ORDER AUTHORIZING THE RECEIVER TO COMPROMISE AND DEBT ALL REMAINING ASSETS AND DESTROY THE BOOKS AND RECORDS OF THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF COLLINSVILLE, OKLAHOMA.

Now on this 7th day of January, 1931, there comes on for hearing [illegible]re this Court the Application of Irving Page, Receiver of the First [illegible]onal Bank of Collinsville, Oklahoma, for an Order authorizing and directing [illegible] as such Receiver to compromise, sell or compound each and every asset re[illegible]ing in said Trust and for an order directing the destruction of the records [illegible] books of the First National Bank of Collinsville, Oklahoma. And said [illegible]icant exhibited to the Court a complete and detailed list showing the [illegible]t number, name of the debtor or a description of the asset and the amount which such asset is carried upon the books of the Trust, of all the bills [illegible]ivable as well as a detailed list of all the additional assets and a com[illegible]e list of unpaid stock assessments for the information of this Court.

THEREUPON, on motion of the Applicant, said lists are with[illegible]n by permission of this Court from the file herein and the Court being [illegible] and truly advised and having heard the testimony relative thereto, finds:

That an early liquidation of this Trust should [illegible]; that the remaining assets in this Trust are of a very doubtful value; that the total amount of the bills receivable remaining in the hands of the Receiver amount to the sum of $143,939.98; that the total amount of unpaid Claims and over-drafts aggregate the sum of $6,533.12; that the total amount of Charged Off Notes aggregate the sum of $18,980.39; that the total amount of Unpaid Stock Assessments aggregate the sum of $11,000.00.

That on account of the doubtful value of the remaining assets in this Trust and in order to facilitate an early closing up of its affairs, this Court should enter its general order permitting the said Receiver to sell, compromise or compound each and every remaining asset or to offer the same for sale at public or private sale as in the judgment of the Receiver will be most beneficial to the Trust, which compromise or sales shall be made subject only to the final approval by the Comptroller of Currency.

That after the sale, compromise or compounding of said assets, the business of this Trust will be completed and closed up and the books and records of said Bank remaining in the hands of said Receiver being worthless of no value, should be destroyed.

That all of the facts with reference to said assets and condition of this Trust as herein found by this Court, have been duly submitted to the Comptroller of Currency who by his office letter dated December 16, [illegible], authorized the Receiver of this Trust to apply to this Court for this general order.

[illegible], It Is, by this Court, ordered that [illegible] Receiver of the First National Bank of Collinsville, Oklahoma, be and he is hereby directed and authorized to sell, compromise or compound each and every asset remaining in this Trust or to offer the same for sale at public or private sale, separately or in bulk, for the best price or prices obtainable as the judgment of said Receiver shall be best for this Trust; that all of the compromises or sales so made under this order, shall be [illegible] approved by the Comptroller of Currency.

IT IS further ordered by the Court that when the Receiver under this Order shall compromise a note, the lien or mortgage, if any, securing the note, that he is hereby ordered and directed to release the security. Or if the note is sold, he is hereby ordered and directed to make proper assignment or transfer of the accompanying security.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED By the Court that the said Receiver be and is hereby directed and authorized after the payment of the final dividend to the creditors of this Bank to destroy all the remaining books and records belonging to the First National Bank of Collinsville, Oklahoma, when directed to do by the Comptroller of Currency.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the detailed list of bills receivable, other assets, unpaid stock assessments described hereinabove which is exhibited to this Court in this hearing, be and the same is hereby permitted to withdraw by said Receiver from the records in this cause.

In the Matter of Irving Page, Receiver of the First National Bank of Barnsdall, Oklahoma.	)	No. 459 Law

ORDER AUTHORIZING THE RECEIVER TO SELL
SELL, COMPROMISE AND COMPOUND ASSETS AND DIRECTING THE BOOKS AND RECORDS OF THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BARNSDALL, OKLAHOMA.

Now on this 7 day of January, 1931, there come on for hearing before this Court the application of Irving Page, Receiver of the First National Bank of Barnsdall, Oklahoma, for an order and direction, in as such Receiver to compromise, sell or compound each and every asset remaining in said Bank and for an order directing the destruction of the records and books of the First National Bank of Barnsdall, Oklahoma. And said applicant exhibited to the Court a complete and detailed list showing the asset number, name of debtor or a description of the asset and the amount for which the asset is carried upon the books of the Trust, of all the bills receivable as well as a detailed list of all the additional assets and a complete list of unpaid stock assessments for the information of this Court.

WHEREUPON, on motion of the Applicant, said lists are withdrawn by permission of this Court from the file herein and the Court being well and fully advised and having heard the testimony relative thereto, finds:

That an early liquidation of this Trust should be made; that the remaining assets in this Trust are of a very doubtful value; that the total amount of the bills receivable remaining in the hands of the Receiver amount to the sum of $60,788.74; that the total amount of all other assets amount to $[illegible]01.81; that the total amount of unpaid stock assessments amount to $[illegible]93.00. The book value of $63,881.81, covering the value of all other assets, includes real estate carried as asset No. 355, the Banking House described as - Lot 9 in Block 17, Barnsdall, Oklahoma.

That on account of the doubtful value of the remaining assets of this Trust and in order to facilitate an early closing up of its affairs, the Court should enter its general order permitting the said Receiver to sell, compromise or compound each and every remaining asset or to offer the same for sale at public or private sale as in the judgment of the Receiver will be most beneficial to the Trust, which compromise or sales shall be made subject only to the final approval by the Comptroller of Currency; that the real estate hereinabove described as - Lot 9 in Block 17, Barnsdall, Oklahoma, should be sold at public or private sale and that thereafter such sale should be reported back to this Court for final approval and confirmation.

That after the sale, compromise or compounding of said assets, the business of this Trust will be completed and closed up and the books and records of said Bank remaining in the hands of said Receiver being worthless of no value, should be destroyed.

That all of the facts with reference to said assets and condition of this Trust as herein found by this Court, have been duly submitted to the Comptroller of Currency who by his office letter dated December 16, 1930, [illegible]orized the Receiver of this Trust to apply to this Court for this general [illegible]er.

[illegible], It Is, by this Court, ordered that Irving Page as [illegible]eiver of the First National Bank of Barnsdall, Oklahoma, be and he is here- [illegible] directed and authorized to sell, compromise or compound each and every [illegible]et remaining in this Trust or to offer the same for sale at public or [illegible]vate sale, separately or in bulk, for the best price or prices obtainable in the judgment of said Receiver shall be best for this Trust; that all such compromises or sales so made under this order, shall be final when [illegible]roved by the Comptroller of Currency.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT.

Now on this 12th day of January, 1931, the above entitled cause s on upon plaintiff's motion for default judgment, plaintiff appearing by attorney, Eugene Jordan, and the defendant, though duly and regularly served summons in said cause more than thirty days prior hereto appears not.

Thereupon said cause proceeds to trial and the court having ined process finds that defendant has been regularly and duly served with ons and has wholly neglected, and failed to answer or otherwise plead he petition of the plaintiff within the time provided in said summons so larly served upon said defendant: said defendant being three times per court called, came not, and is accordingly adjudged to be in default the allegations of plaintiff's petition taken as confessed.

The court finds that heretofore and under date of March 3, 1920, defendant, in strict accordance with law, duly executed, issued and sold nty-five certain Waterworks Extension Bonds of 1920, and that plaintiff the commencement of this action was the owner of bonds numbered 7, 8, 9, 11, and 12, of said issue and each of said bonds were and are in th omination of $1,000.00 each and were payable on March 3, 19[illegible], with interest m date at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the st days of March and September of each year. The court further finds that erest on said bonds was paid to the first day of September, 19[illegible]; and the rt further finds that subsequent to the commencement of this action the endant paid to plaintiff upon said bonds, the principal sum of $3,000.00, ether with accrued interest on three of said bonds. The court further finds t plaintiff is now the owner and holder of bonds numbered 10, 11, and 12, ether with interest coupons thereto attached, and that the amount due reon to this date is the sum of $3,246.15, for which amount the plaintiff entitled to judgment together with the cost of this action.

It is therefore considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed by court, that plaintiff have and recover of and from the defendant, the sum $3,246.15, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum il paid, together with the cost of this action.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that d judgment be paid by the defendant in the manner provided by law.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that intiff surrender to this court said bonds numbered 10, 11, and 12 for canlation and that the same be endorsed by the Clerk "Cancelled and erged o judgment."
