IT IS THE ORDER of the Court that the following conditions entitled “Special Sex Offender Conditions” shall apply to persons placed on probation or supervised release when deemed reasonable and specifically ordered by the Court based on the nature and circumstances of the offense and the defendant’s history and characteristics. Such conditions further the statutory goals of sentencing by affording adequate deterrence to criminal conduct, protecting the public from further crimes of the defendant, and providing the defendant with needed educational or vocational training or other correctional treatment in the most effective manner. The Special Sex Offender Condition shall read as follows:

3. Except for immediate family members,<sup>1</sup> the defendant shall have no contact with persons under the age of 18 unless approved by the probation officer. The defendant will immediately report any unauthorized contact with persons under the age of 18 to the probation officer. 5. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Search and Seizure Condition" as adopted by this Court and filed as General Order 08-4.
6. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" as adopted by this Court and filed as a General Order 08-5.
7. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Computer Restriction and Monitoring Conditions" as adopted by this Court and filed as a General Order 08-6.
