G.O. NO. 16 - 10

GENERAL ORDER

IT IS THE ORDER of the Court that the Clerk of Court shall file under seal any Order on Probation/Supervised Release directing a warrant be issued, and any issued revocation warrant, and shall seal the docket entries of both the order and the issued warrant. The Clerk of Court shall disclose any sealed Order on Probation/Supervised Release and sealed revocation warrant to the United States Probation Office, the United States Marshals Service, and the United States Attorney's Office only. Upon execution of the warrant, the United States Probation Office and/or the United States Marshals Service shall immediately disclose the Order on Probation/Supervised Release to the offender and counsel for the offender, and the United States Magistrate Judge for the purpose of setting the initial appearance, pursuant to Fed.R.Crim.P.32.1. Following the initial appearance, the United States Magistrate Judge and/or the United States Probation Office shall advise the Clerk of Court of such appearance, and upon notification, the Clerk of Court shall unseal the Order on Probation/Supervised Release, and shall unseal the docket entries for both the order and the issued warrant.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 29th day of July, 2016.
