O R D E R.

Now on this 30th day of October, 1925, comes the defendant, R. L. Stephens, by his attorney, Franklin H. Griggs, and requests the Court to allow a Bill of Exceptions and grant a Writ of Error to the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit in the above styled and numbered cause: and it appearing to the court that the defendant had been tried in this court on the 20th day of October, 1925, for the crime of unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors in Indian country, to-wit, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, charged by indictment, and convicted by the verdict of a jury of said crime, and that the only defense interposed by the defendant to the charge was that he purchase the liquor in Joplin, Missouri, for medicinal purposes and admitted that he transported said liquor from Joplin, Missouri, to Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and said liquor was in his possession at the time he was arrested on the charge alleged in the indictment in this case. And that the counsel in presenting the application of the defendant for the allowance of a Writ of Error stated that the only question he desired to present was that the court was without jurisdiction to empanel a Grand Jury and have the defendant indicted of any offense: furthermore that the Congress of the United States was without authority in creating the Northern District of Oklahoma to assign the present Judge to said District; the court is of the opinion that the Writ should be denied for the reason that the question of jurisdiction raised has been decided adversely to the contention of counsel for the defendant in the cases of Bland v. Kennamer, and Coatsy v. Same, 6 Fed., 2nd. Series, September, 17, 1925.

The question of possession of Liquor in the Indian country or where the introduction is or was prohibited by treaty or Federal Statute under the act of June 30, 1919, was determined and decided by the Circuit Court of Appeals of the Eighth Circuit in W. M. Edwards vs. United States, No. 5824, decided at the December, 1924, term of court, opinion filed on March 23, 1925.

In view of the above facts and the decision of the Circuit Court of this Circuit above cited and failing to find any merit in defendants application for Writ of Error, it is therefore, ordered by the Court that the application of defendant for writ of error to the Circuit Court of Appeals be and the same is hereby denied.

O R D E R.

Now on this, the ___ day of October, 1925, comes the defendant, Kent Goodner, by his attorney, Franklin H. Grigge, and requests the court to allow a bill of exception and grant a Writ of Error to the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit in the above styled and numbered cause; and it appearing to the Court that the defendant had been tried in this court on the 20th day of October, 1925, for the offense of unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors in the Indian Country or a place where the possession by a person of intoxicating liquors in and was prohibited by treaty or Federal Statute under the Act of Congress of June 30th 1919, charged by indictment and convicted by the verdict of the jury of said crime. The testimony at the trial of said cause clearly established the fact that the defendant had the possession of and transported the whiskey charged in the indictment in and upon a place where the possession thereof is and was prohibited by Federal Statute under said Act of Congress and said testimony or evidence was practically uncontradicted and not denied by defendant or any witness in his behalf and counsel in presenting the application of the defendant for the allowance of a Writ of Error stated to the Court that the only question be desired to present on appeal was that the Trial Court was without jurisdiction to empanel a grand jury and therefore the grand jury was without jurisdiction to indict the defendant of any offense and further, that the Congress of the United States was without authority in creating the Northern District of Oklahoma to assign the present Judge to said District.

In view of the holding of the Circuit Court of Appeals of the Eighth Circuit in "Bland vs Kennamer" and Coatney vs. Kennamer", Sixth Federal (6 Fed.) 2nd. Series, 130, the Court is of the opinion that the Writ should be denied on the question of jurisdiction raised by the defendant and in view of Edwards vs. United States, Circuit Court of Appeals Eighth Circuit, Opinion filed March 23, 1925, the Court is of the opinion that the Writ should be denied for the other reasons and grounds assigned by the defendant.

and it appearing to the Court that the defendant had been tried in this Court on the 19th day of October, 1925, for the offense of unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors in the Indian Country or a place where the possession of intoxicating liquors is and was prohibited by treaty or Federal Statute under the Act of Congress of June 30, 1919, and was charged by indictment and convicted by the verdict of the jury of said crime. The testimony at the trial of said cause clearly established the fact that the defendant had the possession of two gallons of alcohol, as charged in the indictment, in an automobile driven by and in the possession of the Defendant and that such possession was in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and in and upon a place where the possession of intoxicating liquors is and was prohibited by Federal Statute under and by virtue of the provisions of the terms of said Act of Congress aforesaid and that in the trial of the said cause, the defendant, Homer Buchanan did not testify or deny that said alcohol was in the automobile so driven and possessed by him in said Tulsa County, Oklahoma and counsel in presenting the application of the defendant for the allowance of a Writ of Error, stated to the Court that substantially the only question he desired to present on appeal was that the Trial Court was without jurisdiction to empanel a grand jury, therefore, the grand jury was without jurisdiction to indict the defendant of any offense and that the court was without jurisdiction to try defendant on said charge for the reason that the Congress of the United States was without authority in creating the Northern District of Oklahoma and to assign the trial judge to and as judge of said Northern district of Oklahoma.

In view of the holding of the Circuit of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit in Bland vs. Kennamer and Coatney vs. Kennamer, 6 Fed. 2nd.
