and JACOB A. SALMON THE PRESENT RECEIVER OF THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDABEL, OKLAHOMA, Substituted Plaintiff, vs. R. R. GORE, Defendant.
No. 194 L.

JOURNAL ENTRY.

Now on this 1 day of February, 1927, came on to be heard the above entitled and numbered action, and Jacob A. Salmon, the present receiver of The First National Bank of Idabel and the substituted plaintiff in the above entitled and numbered action appeared by Malcolm E. Roser his attorney and announced ready for trial, and the defendant though duly called three times in open court failed to appear, and the court examined the file and finds that the defendant was duly and legally served with summons within the Northern District of Oklahoma, for more than thirty days prior to this date, and that he has failed to demur, plead or answer to the petition of the plaintiff, and that he has wholly made default and the court therefore finds that he is in default; and thereupon the plaintiff offered his evidence and rested, and it appearing that plaintiff's cause of action is founded upon seventeen (17) promissory notes for the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) each, all dated January 1, 1924, and due respectively April, 1, 1924, May 1, 1924, June 1, 1924, July 1, 1924, August, 1, 1924, September, 1, 1924, October, 1, 1924, November, 1, 1924, December, 1, 1924, January, 1, 1925, February 1, 1925, March 1, 1925, April, 1, 1925, May 1, 1925, June 1, 1925, July, 1, 1925, and August, 1, 1925, and that each of said notes bear interest from its date at the rate of ten per cent (10%) per annum, all of which notes are surrendered to the clerk of this Court for cancellation; the court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's petition are true and the court finds that the amount due and owing by the defendant to the plaintiff including interest to this time of Five Hundred Fifty-five and 9/100 Dollars ($555.09) and the court further finds that said notes provide for an attorneys' fee of ten per cent (10%) of the principal and interest in the event suit is brought thereon.

IT IS THEREFORE BY THE COURT CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff Jacob A. Salmon as receiver of the First National Bank of Idabel, Oklahoma, do have and receive of and from the defendant R. R. Gore, the sum of Five Hundred, Fifty-five and 9/100 Dollars
