No. 404 Law.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT.

This cause came on for hearing on this 3rd. day of January, 1927 upon the motion of plaintiff for judgment by default. The court being advised in the premises finds:

That this cause was filed in this court on the 1st day of October 1926, and upon the same day summons was issued by the clerk of the Court which summons was duly served by the United States Marshall, according to law, on the person of the said Mrs Ertle Colley, defendant herein; that said summons required said defendant to plead or answer petition of the plaintiff filed herein on or before the 1st day of November, 1926. That the defendant has failed to appear and answer or plead to the petition of the plaintiff, and is wholly in default.

The court further finds that the defendant herein was a stockholder in the First National Bank of Barnsdall, Oklahoma, a national banking association, organized under the National Bank Act; that she held stock in said bank to the extent of $1000.00; that on the 4th day of June, 1926, the said National Banking Association failed and suspended payment, that on the 27th day of July, 1926, the comptroller of the currency of the United States of America, adjudged said banking association insolvent and found it necessary to levy an assessment of $100. against all stockholders of said association according to law; and upon that date required the Plaintiff to enforce liability against each of the stockholders; that the defendant thereby became indebted to plaintiff in the sum of $1000.00, on ten shares of stock owned by her. That on July, 31, 1926, the plaintiff notified defendant that she must pay said stock assessment on or before the 3rd. day of September, 1926, that said notice was also published in the "Barnsdall Times" published in Barnsdall, Oklahoma, a weekly newspaper, for five consecutive issues between July 31, and September, 3, 1926; that defendant has failed to pay said assessment as required by law.

IT IS THEREFORE considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that plaintiff have judgment against defendant for the sum of $1000.00 together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from September, 3, 1926, and that plaintiff have the costs herein laid out and expended in the sum of $_____.

JOURNAL ENTRY.

Now, to-wit: on this 3rd. day of January, 1927, this cause comes regularly on for hearing upon the motion of defendant, Josey Oil Company, to strike and to make definite and certain certain portions of plaintiff's amended petition; and there appears for John A. Denning, Linn & Spredling and plaintiff Woodson Norvell, and there appears for the defendant Biddison, Campbell, Biddison & Cantrell; and it appearing to the court that said motion should be sustained it is by the court ordered that there be stricken from said petition the allegations in paragraph 8 thereof that the defendant held out to the plaintiff that the lease foreman had certain authority therein insufficiently stated; and

That there be stricken from the 9th paragraph of said amended petition the allegation that it was the duty of the defendant to furnish good and safe casing and casing suitable for the purpose for which it was intended; and that there further be stricken from said paragraph 9 the allegation that the lease foreman represented and stated to the plaintiff that the casing was good and safe casing, and directed the use thereof; and that there also be stricken from said paragraph the allegations that the defendant failed to furnish the plaintiff with good and safe casing, and also the allegation that the casing was not suitable for the purpose intended nor suitable for the purpose for which same was furnished, and also the allegation in said paragraph that the lease foreman knew that plaintiff did not furnish good or safe casing or suitable for the purposes intended, and also the allegation in said paragraph that the lease foreman represented to the plaintiff that the same was within his knowledge and so represented and stated the same as a fact to the plaintiff; that there further be stricken from said paragraph and allegation that plaintiff relied upon the duty and obligation of the defendant to furnish to the plaintiff good and safe casing and suitable for the purpose for which it was intended, and the further allegation that the plaintiff relied upon the representations and statements made to him by the lease foreman that said casing was good and safe casing, and that the plaintiff believed said representations to be true, and that he undertook to lower said casing pursuant to the directions of defendant's foreman; and

That there be stricken from the 10th paragraph of said petition the allegation that by reason of the representations and statements made by the defendant's foreman it became impossible for plaintiff to complete said well; and

That there be stricken from the 11th paragraph of said petition the allegations by inference of representations and statements of defendant's agent on which plaintiff acted.

To which order, ruling and judgment of the court the plaintiff excepted and excepts, and asks leave to amend said amended petition, and the court orders that plaintiff have five (5) days in which to amend said petition, and that defendant is given ten (10) days thereafter in which to plead, and twenty (20) days in which to answer the same.

JOURNAL ENTRY.

Now on this 7th day of January, 1927, comes on for hearing the motion of the plaintiff J. P. Evers, to remand the above entitled cause to the Superior Court of Creek County, Oklahoma, and the said plaintiff being present in court by his counsel, and the defendants remanding said cause to this court being present by their counsel and the court having heard the evidence and the argument of counsel finds the issues raised in said motion to remand in favor of the removing defendants and the court further finds that the delay in filing the transcript of the proceedings in the Superior Court of Creek County, Oklahoma, to this court was without fault or delay on his part of the removing parties.

The Court further finds from the testimony that all of said parties removing said cause are non-residents of the State of Oklahoma and are and were at the time the above entitled cause was instituted in the Superior Court of Creek County, Oklahoma, citizens and residents of the State of Missouri.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that said motion of said plaintiff to remand said cause be and the same is hereby overruled. To which action of the court the plaintiff excepted and exceptions were allowed.

No. 88 Cr.

O R D E R.

Now on this 12th day of January, 1927, comes Mrs John Clark and applies to the court to place the defendant in the above styled case on probation during good behavior for the remainder of his sentence. It appearing to the court that the defendant plead guilty on November, 6, 1926, for violation of the prohibitory laws and was sentence to four months and to pay a fine of $100.00, in the Tulsa County Jail on Count One of the indictment, and fined $50.00 on execution on Count Two of the indictment, and the defendant was placed in jail on September, 3, 1926, and has continuously been in jail since said date; that the defendant is a very poor man and has a wife and two small children dependant upon him for support;

It is, therefore, ordered by the court that the defendant be placed on probation for the remainder of his sentence and that the fine of $100.00 on Count one of the indictment be placed on execution. Mr J. R. Small of Sand Springs, Oklahoma, being a suitable person and having expressed his willingness to act as volunteer probation officer, is hereby appointed to serve in that capacity for this defendant. It is ordered that during the term of this probation the defendant must follow some useful occupation, conduct himself as an upright citizen, and refrain from violating any of the laws of the United States or the State of Oklahoma, or subdivisions thereof.

WHEREAS, lately in the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Oklahoma, before you, or some of you in a cause between George E. Bennett, plaintiff and the Riverland Company, a Corporation, Defendant, No. 45, At Law, wherein the judgment of the said District Court in said cause, entered on the 18th day of May, A.D. 1925, was in the following words, viz:

This cause having come on regularly for trial on the 16th day of April, 1925, plaintiff appearing by his attorney, F. E. Riddle, and defendant appearing by its attorney, Edgar A. de Mules, a stipulation in writing expressly waiving the right to trial by jury was filed in open court and said cause there upon came on to be heard by the court sitting without a jury; and the court having heard the allegations and the evidence of the parties, and having heard the arguments of the attorneys for the respective parties, took the above entitled cause under advisement;

The cause coming on for further hearing on this, the 18th day of May, 1925, and the court being fully advised in the premises, does find all of the issues upon both causes of action in favor of the defendant.

It is therefore ordered, considered, and adjudged that judgment be and is hereby rendered for the defendant upon both causes of action.

It is further ordered, considered and adjudged that judgment be rendered against the plaintiff for the costs of this action, for all of which let execution issue.

The plaintiff excepts to the action and the judgment and order of this court, which exception is hereby allowed.

F. E. Kennemer, Judge. "

GREETING:

WHEREAS, lately in the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Oklahoma, before you, or some of you in a cause between The United States of America, Plaintiff, and Fate Colohough and Clarence Copr, Defendants, No. 355, Criminal, wherein the judgment and sentence of the said District Court in said cause, entered on the 21st day of November, A. D. 1925, was in the following words, viz:

"On this 21st day of November, 1925, the defendant in above entitled cause came for sentence upon verdict of guilty heretofore filed herein.

It is thereupon by the Court here considered, ordered, and adjudged that the defendant Fate Colohough, for the crime by him committed as charged in the indictment, be imprisoned in the Federal Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, and confined for the term of Two (2) years from date of delivery, and that he pay a fine unto the United States in the sum of Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars, and in default thereof stand committed until said fine is paid or until released by due process of law.

And it is further ordered that the Marshal of said District transport the said Fate Colohough to the said Federal Penitentiary, at Leavenworth, and deliver him to the warden of the said Federal Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, without delay."

as by the inspection of the transcript of the record of the said District Court, which was brought into the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Eighth Circuit, by virtue of a writ of error prayed by and allowed to Fate Colohough agreeably to the act of Congress in such case made and provided, fully and at large appears:

AND WHEREAS, at the September, term in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, the said cause came on to be heard before the said United States Circuit Court of Appeals, on the Transcript of record from the said District Court, and was argued by counsel.

On Consideration Whereof, it is now here ordered and adjudged by this Court that the judgment and sentence of the said District Court, in this cause, be, and the same is hereby, reversed without costs to either party in this Court.
