Songer of El Dorado, Kansas, without recourse and without warranties of any kind or character, for not less than the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1500.00) cash, and it appearing that said assets were duly advertised for sale at public auction, and said public auction sale was held pursuant to such advertising in the Sapulpa State Bank of Sapulpa, Oklahoma, at noon, May 1st, 1928, and that J. Earl Tanner and Harvey L. Songer were declared to be the highest bidder for cash in the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1500.00) for all of the remaining assets of said bank, per an itemized list of such assets attached to and made a part of petitioner's application for this order, and

It further appearing that said sale has been recommended for approval by the Receiver, and that the Comptroller of the Currency by telegram dated May 2nd, 1928, has approved said sale and authorized the petitioning Receiver to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order authorizing, approving and confirming said sale; and the Receiver having applied to this court for such authority per his verified application filed in this court, and the court being further and fully advised in the premises, and upon hearing all of the evidence finds that the expenses of liquidation exceeds the collections and that further liquidation is not profitable to the creditors, and that said Receiver has collected practically everything that can be collected out of said assets and it is the Receiver's opinion that all of these remaining assets are of a highly doubtful or bad nature, and that this sale is for the best interests of the creditors.
