JOURNAL ENTRY

And now on this the 21st day of March 1929, the above entitled matter coming on for final hearing upon the motion of the United States Attorney for judgment and the court having examined the files finds that on May 9, 1928, defendants filed motion to quash which motion was heard by the court on the 9th day of July, 1928, and was overruled, and thereafter and on the 12th day of July, 1928, defendants filed a demurrer which demurrer was heard and overruled on the 10th day of September, 1928, and on the filing and overruling of said demurrer, defendants filed answer and thereafter and on the 24th day of September, 1928, upon motion by the plaintiff for judgment on the pleadings, said motion was heard on the 19th day of October, 1928, and an order was made setting aside said bond forfeiture conditioned that the costs in this action be paid as is shown by an order of dismissal entered on said date; that said defendants have failed, refused and neglected to pay said costs or any part thereof.

And it further appearing to the court that the District Attorney on the 6th day of March, 1929, notified said defendants and each of them, and their attorney of record that unless said order of court was complied with on or before the 15th day of March, 1929, that said District Attorney would move the court for a judgment for the full amount, and penalty of said bond;

And it further appearing to the court that said defendants and each of them have failed to respond and have failed to show cause why the motion of the plaintiff should be not sustained.

The court further finds that the defendant Charlie Jefferson on the 18th day of July, 1927, acknowledged himself indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $2000.00, and that Lucinda Hooker, 205 West Hobson Avenue, Sapulpa, Oklahoma, and J. W. Craig, 205 West Hobson Avenue, Sapulpa, Oklahoma, acknowledged themselves indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $2000.00, and presented to the proper authorities of the United States of America their bail bond which was duly and regularly approved as provided for by law, and under said bond was conditioned that said defendant appear before this court on the first day of the next term 1927, and from time to time thereafter to which said case might be continued to answer the charges in said action. That said defendant failed to appear in accordance with the stipulations of said bond after due notice thereof, and on the 6th day of February, 1928, said bond was duly declared forfeited by the Court and a writ of Scire Facias ordered by the court against the Defendant and the signers upon said bond commanding them to appear before the court and show cause why the forfeiture of the aforesaid bond should not be made absolute; that the same was duly issued and returned by the United States Marshal showing that said defendants Lucinda Hooker and J. W. Craig had each been duly served and that said defendant and sureties thereon have failed to show any sufficient reason why said judgment should not be made absolute, and the court being fully advised in the premises.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the forfeiture heretofore taken upon the bail bond herein shall hereby be made absolute and judgment is hereby rendered in favor of the United States of America against Lucinda Hooker and J. W. Craig, sureties on said bond for the aforesaid sum of $2000.00, with interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from this date until paid and for all costs in this behalf laid out and expended, for all of which let execution issue.
