That on the 13th day of December, 1925, Alfred Tomplin was duly and regularly arrested and arraigned before the United States Commissioner for the Northern District of Oklahoma, charged with an offense against the laws of the United States, at which time his bail was fixed by said United States Commissioner in the sum of $1500.00; and thereafter defendant presented for approval his bond for said sum, signed by himself and others, including Ernestine Washington, 921 E. Milton, Tulsa, Oklahoma, as sureties, which bond was duly and regularly approved by the United States Commissioner and filed herein, the material condition of said bond being that said defendant appear before this Court on the first day of the next 1926 term of said Court, immediately after the 18th day of December, 1925, and from time to time thereafter to which said cause might be continued, to answer to said charge. That said defendant failed to appear in accordance with the stipulations of said bond, after due notice thereof on the 8th day of March, 1926, and said bond was by the Court declared forfeited. NELLIE WOOD, Plaintiff, ) vs. ) No. 789 - Law.
M. S. O. OIL CORPORATION, Defendant.)
A CORPORATION,

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Now on this 25th day of May, 1929, this action comes on to be heard in its regular order. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorneys, J. C. Cornett and Wilson & Duncan, Esqs., and the defendant appeared by its attorneys C. E. Cooper and Remington Rogers, and thereupon both sides, in open court, announced ready for trial and waived the intervention of a jury and consented to the trial of this action to the Court.

Thereupon the parties, in open Court, stipulated and agreed that in addition to the cause of action set forth in plaintiff's petition, that the Court should also try the issues as between the parties and determine the damages, if any, for any and all of the pain and suffering, if any, sustained by plaintiff's decedent prior to his death, as fully and to the same extent as if the plaintiff herein had been the duly and legally appointed, qualified and acting administratrix of the estate of George W. Wood; the said plaintiff also stipulating that she would save and hold the said defendant free and harmless against any and all loss, damage, claims and expense of any kind whatsoever in connection with any of the pain and suffering sustained by the plaintiff's decedent prior to his death, and that the said cause of action for such pain and suffering, if any, should be tried out at this time on the allegations of negligence, as set forth in plaintiff's petition, and the denials thereof and defense thereto as set forth in the answer of the defendant, with the same force and effect as if the said petition has been duly amended to allege the said additional cause of action in full.

The plaintiff introduced evidence and rested. Thereupon defendant introduced evidence and rested. And the Court having heard all of the evidence and argument of counsel, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that the plaintiff herein is the surviving widow of George W. Wood, late of Osage County, Oklahoma; that heretofore, to-wit, on or about the 18th day of September, 1928, the said George W. Wood became mortally hurt and wounded by an explosion occurring on an oil and gas leasehold owned by the defendant herein, from which wounds he died on or about the 20th day of September, 1928, leaving him surviving, his widow, the plaintiff in this action, and a certain minor child, Hester Wood, aged 19 months; that no administrator has been appointed for his estate, and that under the laws of the State of Oklahoma, plaintiff herein has legal capacity to maintain this action for and on behalf of herself and the said minor child, and that the said widow and said minor child were and are the only next of kin of said decedent.

In the District Court of the United States in and for the

NORTHERN

District of

OKLAHOMA

SPECIAL MARCH 1929 SESSION TULSA, OKLAHOMA, SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1929.

The Court further finds that at the time of and immediately prior to the said explosion, there was no one with the said George W. Wood, except one David E. Allen, who was also killed in the same explosion; that the plaintiff herein has alleged and contends that the death of the said George W. Allen was occasioned by certain acts of negligence on the part of defendant and that the defendant has denied each and all of said acts of negligence alleged against it; that by reason of the death of the said David E. Allen, the actual circumstances leading up to and surrounding the cause of said explosion are not definitely known; that said defendant, while at all times denying all of the said allegations of negligence and denying any and all liability to the plaintiff herein, for the purpose of avoiding the hazards and uncertainties of litigation, has offered and agreed to pay to the said plaintiff in full, final and complete settlement and satisfaction and compromise of all of the claims of the said plaintiff arising out of, or in any way connected with the death of the said George W. Wood and any and all pain and suffering which he may have sustained prior to his death, has offered and agreed to pay to the said plaintiff, the sum of Fifty-two Hundred Dollars ($5200.00). That by reason of the absence of any surviving witnesses and the difficulty of establishing any of the allegations of negligence, it would manifestly be to the interest and advantage of said plaintiff to avoid the hazards and uncertainties of litigation and to accept the same, and that the plaintiff herein is duly and legally advised of all of her rights in the premises, and that it would be for the best interest of the parties to have the said cause of action settled and compromised, as above set forth.

IT IS THEREFORE, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff herein do have and recover of and from the said defendant, the sum of Fifty-two Hundred Dollars ($5200.00), and that satisfaction of the said judgment shall be in full settlement and compromise of all claims arising out of or in any way connected with the death and the circumstances causing and surrounding and leading up to the death of the said George W. Wood.
