JOURNAL ENTRY

Now on this 13th day of March, 1930, the above entitled cause comes on for hearing upon the separate motion of the defendant, Producers Royalty Corporation, to quash the service and return of summons so served upon said defendant; and comes on for further hearing upon separate motions of defendant, C. Thereupon, said matters and each of them were duly presented to the Court and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds as follows:

Journal Entry of Judgment

Be it remembered, that this cause came on to be heard and was heard before the Honorable W. L. Kemmerer, U. S. District Judge, on this the 27th day of March 1930, same having been set for trial on said day on the regular trial docket of said Court, the plaintiff having waived, in writing, the right to a trial by a Jury and agreeing to submit all matters of fact and Law, both legal and Equitable, to the determination of the Court. The Plaintiff appeared in person, by his Guardian and his attorney, W. L. SUREMAN, and the defendant appeared by its Counsel, and both sides announced ready for trial.

The Plaintiff, by Counsel, moved the Court to permit the Plaintiff to amend his petition, so as to pray for a Judgment against the the defendant on the Policies of Insurance sued upon, up to the 27th day of March 1930, or the date of the trial, and said motion was allowed by the Court and the amendment so made.

Said cause coming on to be further heard upon the petition, amended petition, the answer thereto and the proof adduced in open Court the Court finds as matters of Fact, that the material allegations in said petition and amended petition, are true and that the said Plaintiff was at the time he ceased to pay premiums on the said Insurance Policies sued upon, totally and permanently disabled within the purview of the Law of the Land, and is entitled to receive the benefits of said policies as per the terms thereof. The Court further finds that an attorneys fee of 10% of all payments made as a result of this Judgment, would be reasonable and should be paid to the Plaintiffs Attorney, W. L. SUREMAN, for services rendered the Plaintiff.

It is therefore ordered adjudged and decreed by the Court, that the Plaintiff above named, have and recover of the defendant, The United States of America, the sum of ($7245.00) Seventy Two Hundred and Forty Five Dollars, it being the aggregate sum of $57.50, per month from and including the month of October, 1919, and each succeeding month thereafter up to and including the month of March 1930, or for 126 months. It is further ordered and decreed that out of said Judgment, the defendant pay to the said W. L. SUREMAN, the sum of 724.50 it being 10% of said Judgment above rendered.

It is further ordered and adjudged and decreed that this Judgment and the payment thereof, shall not prejudice the rights of the plaintiff as to any rights in said Insurance Policies sued upon, accruing in the
