O R D E R.

This cause came on regularly on this, the 13th day of September, 1932, for hearing on the motion of plaintiff, Ida E. McTavish, to remand to the District Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and on the separate demurrers of defendants Connecticut General Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut, Gypsy Oil Company, and Gulf Pipeline Company of Oklahoma, to the petition. The court overruled the plaintiff's motion to remand, to which ruling the plaintiff excepted. Pending consideration by the court of the demurrers of the three defendants, the plaintiff asked, and was granted, leave to amend her petition by interlining the words "and as agents" between the expression "for and on behalf" and "of the aforesaid the Connecticut General Life Insurance Company at a time when said insurance company was without license or authority to do business in Oklahoma." The petition was then so amended by interlineation.

Thereupon, by consent of all the parties to this action, and by consent of the court, the separate demurrers of the defendants were considered and treated as going to the petition as amended. The court being advised, overruled each of the three demurrers and each of the three defendants excepted to the ruling of the court as to its respective demurrer. Each of the defendants was then given twenty days in which to answer.

JUDGMENT

Now on this, the 19th day of September, 1932, this cause coming on for hearing by regular assignment before the Honorable Franklin E. Kennamer, and the plaintiff, George H. Wetzel, appearing in person and by Glenn O. Young, his attorney, and the defendant, United States of America, appearing by J. V. Fitts, Regional Attorney for the Veterans Administration and by A. E. Williams, United States Assistant Attorney for the Northern District of Oklahoma, and both sides having announced ready for trial, thereupon trial by jury having been waived by stipulation executed and filed in the court, and it being agreed that the cause may be tried to the court, without intervention of a jury, the plaintiff presented his evidence and rested, and the defendant presented her evidence and rested, and the court, being fully advised in the premises, finds the issues for the plaintiff and against the defendant; that plaintiff is and was at the time of the institution of this suit an actual and bona fide resident of Creek County, State of Oklahoma; that on June 28, 1918, the plaintiff was commissioned a Captain in the medical corps, United States Army, and was assigned to service in the Base Hospital at Camp McArthur, Texas; that plaintiff continued in the service of the United States from the date of his enlistment until October 7, 1919, upon which latter date he was honorably discharged therefrom; that plaintiff while in the service of the United States was not guilty of spying, treason, wilful and persistent misconduct or desertion nor any offense or offenses against the laws of the United States which would work a forfeiture of rights vested in him as hereinafter set forth;

That while in the active service of the United States aforesaid and withing one hundred twenty days from the date of his enlistment there n, plaintiff applied for and was granted insurance under the terms of the War Risk Insurance Act; that said insurance so granted was in accordance with the term War Time Insurance Plan and was issued in the sum of $10,000; that a condition of said insurance and the laws and regulations governing the same was that the same might thereafter be converted into a permanent form of insurance;

The court finds that subsequent to his discharge from the United States Army, plaintiff continued to pay premiums upon said insurance upon the term plan until on or about the 1st day of July, 1920, upon which said date, pursuant to the law and regulations issued by the United States Veterans Bureau, plaintiff applied for and was granted a converted insurance policy; that by the terms of said converted insurance policy the defendant, United States of America, in consideration of the payment by the plaintiff of an annual premium of $229.20 insured said plaintiff against death and/or permanent and total disability in the principal sum of $10,000; that said insurance contract, and the law, rules, and regulations governing the same provided, among other things, that in the event plaintiff while said policy was in full force and effect became continuously unable to do and perform any substantially gainful occupation then, and in that event, all further premiums due on said insurance should at once cease and terminate and the plaintiff should thereafter be entitled to receiver monthly payments in the sum of $57.50 per month from and after the date of such disability and to continue receiving such monthly payments thereafter so long as he should live and continue to be so disabled;

The court further finds that on Aug. 1, 1930, and while said converted insurance was in full force and effect, as aforesaid, plaintiff became permanently and totally disabled in accordance with the terms and conditions of said policy and the laws governing the same; that he has continued so disabled from and after said date and is now so disabled; that here- tofore, to-wit, on December 8, 1930, plaintiff filed with the United States Veterans Adminis- tration claim for the payment of said insurance and that on the 5th day of December, 1931, said Veterans Administration, and the Director thereof, disallowed said claim for insurance; that a disagreement arose thereby, jurisdiction whereof is vested in this court;

That in order to recover said insurance plaintiff engaged, retained, and employed Glenn O. Young, a duly licensed and practicing attorney of the Oklahoma Bar, agreeing to pay him for his services in this behalf reasonable compensation in the sum of ten per cent, said compensation to be contingent upon approval and allowance of the court, as provided by law; that said Glenn O. Young pursuant to said agreement, did appear and prosecute this action in accordance with said agreement; that said sum so agreed upon as compensation is reasonable attorney's fees herein;

IT IS, THEREFORE, the order, judgment, and decree of the court that plaintiff have and recover from the defendant the sum of $57.50 per month from and after the 1 day of August, 1930, to the date of this judgment and continuing during the lifetime of the plaintiff so long as he lives and continues so permanently and totally disabled; provided further that in event plaintiff shall continue permanently and totally disabled but shall die before receiving two hundred forty monthly installments, as provided by said policy, then, and in that event, the remaining unpaid installments shall be paid in accordance with the terms of said contract;

It is the further order of the court that out of the moneys awarded to be paid by virtue of this judgment, Glenn O. Young, be and he is hereby allowed ten per cent attorney's fees, said amount to be paid to said Glenn O. Young by the Veterans Administration and deducted from the amount awarded plaintiff hereby.

To all of which judgment, the defendant prays and is allowed an exception.

JOURNAL ENTRY

Now on this 22nd day of September, 1932, the same being a regular judicial day of the special March 1932 Term, at Tulsa, Oklahoma, the above styled and numbered cause came on pursuant to the regular assignment for trial, and the plaintiff, Walter E. Skaggs, appearing in his own proper person and by his solicitors of record, L. L. Roberts of Vinita, Oklahoma, and R. M. Mountcastle of Muskogee, Oklahoma, and the defendant, the United States of America, being present by its solicitors of record, Messrs. A. E. Williams, Assistant United States Attorney for the Northern District of Oklahoma, and J. V. Pitts, Chief Attorney for the Veterans' Bureau for the Department of Oklahoma, and a jury having been previously waived in writing and said waiver having been filed in open court before this cause came on for trial and before the assignment of trial, and before the introduction of any evidence the plaintiff asked leave to amend his petition, and leave was granted so that the same now reads and prays for a recovery of the sum of $57.50 per month for each and every month from the 4th day of February, 1919, up until the trial of this law suit, to-wit: the 22nd day of September, 1932, and both parties having announced ready for trial, the court proceeded to hear the evidence on behalf of the plaintiff, and at the close of the testimony of the plaintiff the defendant moved for a judgment for the defendant and against the plaintiff on the ground and for the reason that the plaintiff had failed to sustain the allegations of his petition by a fair preponderance of the testimony, which motion, after being considered by the court, was overruled, to which the defendant excepted then and there and the exceptions were by the court allowed. Then the defendant proceeded to put on testimony on behalf of the defendant, and after hearing the testimony offered both on behalf of the plaintiff and the defendant, and after both sides had rested, and after considering all of the testimony, both oral, written and documentary, and after hearing the argument of counsel and after considering the law, and after having examined all of the evidence introduced on behalf of the plaintiff and on behalf of the defendant, the court finds that the plaintiff has sustained the allegations as set forth in his petition herein and is entitled to judgment as prayed for in the petition as amended.

The court further finds that the said Walter E. Skaggs, the plaintiff in this case, was inducted into the United States Army on the 18th day of September, 1917, at Miami, in the State of Oklahoma, and was honorably discharged from the military forces of the United States on the 4th day of February, 1919, and that from the time of his induction into the military service up until the date of his honorable discharge that he was in the military service of the United States; and that while in the service and within the time provided by law he applied for what was then known as War Risk Insurance and the same was granted to him in the sum of $10,000.00, and that premiums were paid on said policy of insurance by proper deductions having been made by the military authorities from the service pay of the insured, the plaintiff herein, up and through the month of February, 1919, with a thirty-one day grace period; and that sometime prior to February 4, 1919, and while his policy of insurance was in full force and effect, that the then insured, now the plaintiff, became permanently and totally disabled in that he could not follow any gainful occupation with reasonable regularity, and that the ailment with which he was suffering, to-wit: a mental disorder and an injured hand, and sometime prior to his discharge from the service that he became insane and has remained insane at all times since that time and is now insane, that this condition at the time of his discharge and while his policy was in full force and effect was permanent in that it is founded upon conditions which render it reasonably certain that it will continue throughout the lifetime of the insured, the plaintiff in this case.

ORDER RETAXING COST AND INSTRUCTING THE CLERK OF THIS COURT HOW TO APPORTION THE COSTS IN THIS CASE AND GENERAL ORDER AS TO FUTURE INSTRUCTIONS.

Now on this 24th day of September, 1932, the same being a regular judicial day of the special March 1932 term of this court at Tulsa, Oklahoma, and coming on for hearing the motion of the plaintiff in the above styled and numbered cause to retax the cost and instruct the clerk of this court how to apportion this cost and said plaintiff being represented by his counsel of record, R. Pitts, Chief Attorney for the Veterans Administration for the Department of Oklahoma, and the court having heard the testimony of witnesses and argument of counsel makes the following finds, to-wit:

That it appears in this case that the plaintiff prevailed and recovered of and from the defendant a judgment on a policy of war risk insurance, issued to the said Edward B. Sherman, an incompetent person, and that the defendant has failed to appeal in said cause and that there is now on hands in the clerk's office a check payable to Rose Ellen Sherman, as guardian of Edward B. Sherman, an incompetent person, the sum of $8,176.50, and that the said plaintiff deposited with the clerk of this court the sum of $25.00 upon institution of said cause of action. The court further finds that said clerk is in receipt of a letter from the Veterans Administration of Washington, D. C., which recites among other things the following: "These checks are forwarded to your office with a view that before delivery you will collect the cost and fees for which the plaintiff is liable and have the judgment satisfied of record."

The court further finds that the clerk should tax the plaintiff with the proper and usual fee for filing of all his pleadings in said cause, but that the attorney's docket fee, the witness fee claimed and charged in said case for the attendance of government witnesses and marshall's fee for service of process issued by and for the defendant, the attorneys docket fee and the clerks fee other than those charges occasioned on behalf of plaintiff instituting cause of action and filing plaintiff's papers should not be charged to the plaintiff and the clerk so directed.

As a general order and for the purpose of advising the clerk in all cases where the plaintiff prevails, the plaintiff should only be charged the fee necessary for filing the papers for and on behalf of the plaintiff and in no event should the clerk charge to the plaintiff the cost incurred for and on behalf of the defendant.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

NOT on the 30th day of September, 1932, the above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing, plaintiff appearing by his attorney of record, and the defendant appeared not,
either in person or by attorney, but made default and was by the court adjudged in default;

AFTER hearing the evidence offered in support of plaintiff's petition, and being fully advised in the premises, the court finds:

That, although defendant has been duly and legally served personally with summons in the above entitled cause, and although the time given in said summons within which the defendant might answer the petition of the plaintiff has long since expired, defendant has failed and neglected to demur, answer or otherwise plead to the petition of the plaintiff herein; that the return of service filed in this cause has been examined by the court, found to be in compliance with the law in such cases made and provided, and is hereby ordered valid and legal, and said defendant, after having been called three times at the bar of the court, is adjudged by the court to be in default and all of the material allegations of plaintiff's petition filed herein hereby are adjudged to have been confessed by the court.

The court further finds that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's petition are true, and that plaintiff is entitled to the judgment prayed for.

IT IS THEREFORE ordered by the court that the defendant be required to deliver to the plaintiff the personal property described and referred to in the chattel mortgage of the plaintiff declared upon in plaintiff's petition filed herein, to-wit:

- 35 cows, various colors, 4 to 8 years old, various brands.
- 8 yearling steers and heifers of various colors.
- 3 calves belonging to the above described cows;

and that the costs of this action be taxed against the defendant.
