"JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT"

NOW on this the 30th day of December, 1933, this cause comes on for hearing, the court herein having permitted the plaintiff to file his supplemental petition and the defendant having filed his answer to the supplemental petition joining the issues on the cause of action for conscious pain and suffering; wrongful death and loss of services of the minor by his father.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by his counsel, Frank W. Nesbit and N. C. The respective parties further stipulate in open court that the Honorable Trial Court may consider the evidence heretofore offered in this cause on the regular trial, the same as in a mistrial was declared and the jury discharged and to render judgment on said evidence.

The Court, having heard and considered stipulation of counsel, and having heard and considered the evidence offered in this case when tried heretofore, finds that the plaintiff is entitled to recover on his First Cause of Action the sum of $2500.00 and upon his Second Cause of Action the sum of $400.00 and upon his Third Cause of Action the sum of $100.00, together with the clerk's costs in this cause, not to include any mileage or traveling expense of witnesses.
