JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Now on this 19th day of February, 1934, same being a day of the regular January, 4, term of this court, this cause came on regularly for trial before Honorable F. E. Kennamer, Judge presiding, both sides having heretofore waived a jury and consented that said cause be tried to the Court; and plaintiff being present in person and by his attorneys Heber Finch and W. V. ... and the defendant appearing by Daniel Dillon, Attorney, Bureau of War Risk Litigation, Department of Justice, and both sides having announced ready for trial in open court;

Whereupon, plaintiff introduced his testimony and rested; and the defendant, at the close of plaintiff's testimony, offered its motion for judgment because plaintiff failed to prove by competent or substantial evidence that he was permanently and totally disabled at the time of his discharge or within the grace period thereafter, and the Court being advised in the premises overrules said motion, to which order of the Court defendant, at the time excepted, and no exceptions were allowed;

And thereupon the defendant introduced its testimony and rested, and said cause closed for the taking of testimony; and thereupon the defendant renewed its motion for judgment because plaintiff had failed to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that he had been permanently and totally disabled at the date of his discharge or within the grace period thereafter, as contemplated by the War Risk Insurance Act.

And the Court, after hearing the argument of counsel took said cause under advisement, and both sides were permitted to file briefs therein, and thereafter said briefs were filed.

And now on this 2nd day of April, 1934, said cause came on regularly to be heard and finally determined, and by consent of the Court plaintiff introduced further testimony and rested; and defendant introduced further testimony and rested; and the Court being advised in the premises, and having considered the evidence of both parties hereto, finds in favor of the defendant, the United States of America.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the court that plaintiff take nothing as a result of this action, and that the defendant, the United States of America, recover costs herein, to which order and judgment of the Court plaintiff excepts, and exceptions are overruled.

D. 1934, a regular court day of the March Term Court sitting at Vinita, Oklahoma, this matter comes on regularly upon the plea of the defendant to the three counts of the indictment herein, and the court after hearing evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds that subject is an excessive user of whiskey and is addicted to the use of narcotic drugs; that he is sixty-eight years of age and is broken in health that because of his habits and practices he has made himself a menace to the practice of his profession, and that to pursue it further would be merely a temptation to continue engaging in awful practice of narcotics and that he should therefore relinquish and surrender his license practice as a physician, and that upon his agreement in open court to voluntarily surrender same, the court deferred sentence until the 1st Monday in July, 1934, or until the court otherwise orders.

JUDGMENT IN EJECTMENT

NOW on this 3rd day of January, 1934, the above entitled cause came on regularly for trial upon the petition of the plaintiff filed herein, plaintiff appearing in person and by attorney of record, but the defendants appeared not, in person nor by attorney, and after viewing the evidence offered in support of plaintiff's petition and being fully advised in the premises, the court finds:

That, although the defendants, and each of them, have been served personally with summons in this action in the manner provided by law, and although the time within which defendants were given the right to plead or answer to the petition of the plaintiff herein has long since expired, which service of summons and return thereon have been duly examined by the court and found to be in compliance with the provisions of law in such cases made and provided and hereby are declared valid; said defendants, and each of them, have failed to demur, answer or otherwise plead to the petition of the plaintiff filed in this action, and, after being called several times at the bar of the court, failed to answer, and were by the court adjudged in default and adjudged to have confessed all of the material allegations of plaintiff's petition.

The court further finds that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's petition are true; that the plaintiff, or the trust represented by him as its receiver, is the owner of the legal estate and title in fee simple, and of the equitable estate in and to the following described real estate situated in Creek County, Oklahoma, to-wit:

Lots 5 and 6 in Block 46, original Town of Oilton, Oklahoma; that the defendants have no right, title, interest, estate or equity in and to said above described real estate and premises, but are merely trespassers thereon, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the possession thereof.

IT IS THEREFORE by the court ordered, adjudged and decreed that plaintiff have and recover judgment against the defendants Marve Madewell and Mrs. Marve Madewell, and each of them, for the immediate possession of the real estate and premises above described, and that the defendants, and each of them, be, and they hereby are required to surrender immediate possession of said premises and property to the plaintiff, and that a writ of possession issue for that purpose in the usual form, directed to the marshal of this court, duly executed by the clerk, and under the seal of this court, and the marshal of this court hereby is directed to serve said writ upon the defendants, and each of them, and to eject said defendants, and each of them, their legal agents, servants and tenants, from the above described real estate and premises, and to deliver the said plaintiff, his agent or other person to be designated by him into possession of said property.

G. HUGHES, Receiver of THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Beggs, Oklahoma, a national banking association, Plaintiff,) vs.) No. 1980 LAW.
N. TERRY, Defendant.)

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

ON The 25th day of April, 1934, the same being one of the regular judicial days of this Court, the above styled cause was called up for hearing; plaintiff appeared in person by his counsel of record, but the defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney, and upon being called three times at the bar of the court and failing to answer, the defendant was by the Court adjudged in default. And after hearing the evidence offered in support of plaintiff's petition and being fully advised in the premises, the Court found that the defendant had been duly and legally served personally with process in this action within the time and in the manner provided by law and the rules of this court in such cases made and provided, and although the time within which the defendant had the right to answer, as fixed by said process and the law and rules applicable thereto, has long since expired, defendant has failed to answer or otherwise plead to the petition of the plaintiff filed herein, and the defendant is therefore held to be in default and to have confessed all of the allegations of plaintiff's petition.

THE COURT FURTHER FOUND that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's petition are true; that the plaintiff is the duly appointed, qualified and acting receiver of The First National Bank of Beggs, Oklahoma, a national banking association, and that the claim against the defendant, declared upon in plaintiff's petition herein, is among and a part of the assets of said bank being administered upon and liquidated by the plaintiff as such receiver in carrying up the affairs of said bank.

THE COURT FURTHER FOUND that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's petition with reference to the indebtedness of the defendant and the pledging of the property to secure the same and the default of the defendant and the right of the plaintiff to possession of the property described in plaintiff's petition, are true, as therein set forth.

THE COURT FURTHER FOUND that the defendant has, since the 1st day of March, 1934, wrongfully detained from the plaintiff and now detains certain goods and chattels which the plaintiff is entitled to the possession of, as set out in plaintiff's petition, and that said goods and chattels are of the reasonable value of One Hundred Fifty (150.00) Dollars; that the defendant was, on March 1, 1934, and is now entitled to possession of said property and that upon March 1, 1934, plaintiff made demand upon the defendant to deliver said goods and chattels to the plaintiff; that the defendant failed and refused to deliver said goods to the plaintiff and defendant has continued to keep possession of the same.

THE COURT FURTHER FOUND that by reason of the wrongful detention of said goods and after March 1, 1934, and by reason of depriving the plaintiff of the use of said property being required to recover possession by legal process, plaintiff has been damaged in the sum of Fifty (50.00) Dollars.

THE COURT FURTHER FOUND that the plaintiff is entitled to the immediate return of the goods and chattels described in plaintiff's petition and hereinafter specifically described to the sum of One Hundred Fifty (150.00) Dollars, the value of said goods and chattels in lieu thereof.

IT IS THEREFORE BY THE COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the plaintiff recover of and from the defendant possession of the following described goods and chattels to-wit:

One black horse, 8 years old, 16 hands high
One black horse, 6 years old, 16 hands high
One black cow, 5 years old, dehorned
One yellow jersey cow, 4 years old, horns
One set of leather harness complete
One John Deere 12" turning plow, said goods and chattels the defendant, W. N. Terry, is by the Court ordered to deliver to the plaintiff forthwith.

IT IS BY THE COURT FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that in the event said goods and chattels can not be returned by the defendant to the plaintiff, that the plaintiff have recover of and from the defendant the sum of One Hundred Fifty (150.00) Dollars in lieu thereof the value of said goods described, with interest at the rate of six (6) per cent. per annum, from this date until paid.

AND IT IS FURTHER BY THE COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the plaintiff recover of and from the defendant the further and additional sum of Fifty (50.00) Dollars damages, together with all costs of this action.

For all of which let execution issue.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

THIS CASE coming on for trial in regular order on this 2nd day of May, 1934, and plaintiff appearing by its attorney, A. B. Honnold, and defendant appearing by his attorney, e r. Dewberry, Assistant County Attorney, and it appearing that a written waiver of jury trial signed by counsel for both parties has been filed, and that jury trial was waived, and plaintiff having introduced its evidence and rested, and defendant having introduced his evidence and rested, and an agreed statement of facts being filed in the cause, and the Court having heard and considered the evidence and argument of counsel and being fully advised in the premises, finds for plaintiff as prayed for in the petition and amendment thereto. And the Court further finds that the property of plaintiff was assessed at a sum which is erroneous, grossly excessive and out of proportion to the value of other similar properties, that such assessment was and is in violation of Article 10, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Oklahoma providing that taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects, and in violation of the equal protection clause of the 14th amendment to the Constitution of the United States; that the failure of the Tulsa County Assessor to certify the assessed valuation as directed by the Tulsa County Board of Equalization, and his subsequent failure to certify the assessed valuation to the County Treasurer, as reduced by the Tulsa County Board of Equalization and by the Oklahoma State Board of Equalization, were in violation of the due process of law clause of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and that plaintiff paid the illegal taxes under compulsion and protest and under protest, and is entitled to recover them back independent of any statute. Ward v. Love County, 253 U.S. 17, 40 S. Ct. 419, 64 L. Ed. 751; Carpenter v. Shaw, 50 S. Ct. 121, 280 U.S. 363; Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe R. Co. v. O'Connor, 223 U.S. 280, 32 S. Ct. 316, 56 L. Ed. 378; Robertson v. Frank Brothers Company, 132 U.S. 17, 10 S. Ct. 5, 33 L. Ed. 236; Swift, etc., Company v. United States, 111 U.S. 222, 4 S. Ct. 244, 28 L. Ed. 341; Union Pacific R. Co. v. Public Service Commission, 248 U.S. 67, 39 S. Ct. 24, 63 L. Ed. 131;. See also Commerce Trust Co., Kansas City, Mo. v. Morris, (Okl.) 11 Pac. (2d) 183; Grubb v. Smiley, 140 Okl. 223, 283 Pac. 784, which this Court has considered and believes to be not in conflict with the decision herein under all the facts and circumstances of this case. As to unlawful discrimination, see Greene v. Louisville & I. R. Co., 244 U.S. 499, 61 L. Ed. 1280, 37 S. Ct. 673, Ann. Cas. 1917E, 88; State v. Tate, (Okl.) 286 Pac. 891.

The Court further finds that the illegal excess paid under protest amounts to $358.30 taxes and $482.24 penalties thereon, or a total of $5,840.54, and that under the evidence in this case same was paid within a reasonable time.

The Court further finds that the Tulsa County tax rolls were not prepared and certified in the time provided by law, and that payment having been made under protest this action should be maintained to recover the illegal taxes, notwithstanding payment was made after the date of delinquency provided by statute. Grubb v. Smiley, supra; Commerce Trust Co., Kansas City, Mo. v. Morris, supra.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Fifteenth andisco Building Company, a corporation, have judgment against the said defendant, A. L. Carmichael, as County Treasurer of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, for the sum of $5,840.54, being the amount of taxes and penalties paid by plaintiff under protest for the year 1932; to which findings and judgment of the Court defendant excepts and exceptions are allowed, and defendant gives notice of intention to appeal to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the Tenth Circuit.

O R D E R

Now on this 18th day of June, 1934, comes the defendant, Linnie Bowdry, indicted Lenna Bowdry, in cause No. 7526, Cr., and respectfully states to the Court that her name is Linnie Bowdry, and that she had previous to the return of the indictment in this case executed appearance bond on this charge, said bond being signed Mrs. Ben Bowdry, as principal, and the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, as surety; that this Honorable Court made an order on the 22nd day of May, 1934, permitting her to substitute a property bond in lieu of the surety bond, said property bond was filed and approved by this Court; that the Court further ordered that the surety bond be discharged from further liability; that said orders failed to state that the surety bond discharged from further liability was the bond signed Mrs. Ben Bowdry, as principal, and the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, as surety; that on account of the failure to state the name of the principal and surety in said order of May 22nd, 1934, said surety company is demanding the payment of further premiums on said bond.

The defendant Linnie Bowdry respectfully request the Court to order the bond signed Mrs. Ben Bowdry, principal, and United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, surety, be discharged from further liability from and after May 22nd, 1934.

The Court being fully advised in the matter finds the statements of the defendant Linnie Bowdry to be true and that the request should be granted.

It is therefore ordered that the bond in this case signed Mrs. Ben Bowdry, principal, and United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, surety, be and is discharged from further liability from and after May 22nd, 1934.
