JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Now, on this 26th day of October, 1934, this cause coming on for decision on the demurrer of the defendants, Oklahoma Natural Gas Corporation, a corporation, and Oklahoma Natural Gas Company, a corporation, and the questions presented thereby having been heretofore argued and briefed by the respective counsel of the parties hereto, the Court upon due consideration thereof, finds that the grounds of said Demurrer numbered (2), (3) and (4) should be overruled, and the ground numbered (1), being that this Court has no jurisdiction of the subject of the action, should be sustained for the reason that the defendant, Board of Education of the City of Tulsa, is a public corporation separate and distinct from the City of Tulsa, and was not a party to the franchise contract, but was merely a customer of the defendant utility company, and such is required to pay the rate put in force by the general rate order of the Corporation Commission of Oklahoma, and that plaintiff's cause of action is a cause of action which was originally vested in the said Board of Education to recover refunds of alleged excessive rates charged by the said defendant Oklahoma Natural Gas Corporation, and paid to the said corporation by the said Board of Education; exclusive original jurisdiction of which proceedings is vested in the Corporation Commission of the State of Oklahoma. S. L. 1913 Chapt. 10, secs. 1,2,3 Oklahoma Statutes 1931, secs. 3626, 3627, 3628); Oklahoma Constitution, Article IX. secs. 24, 3; Chicago Rock Island Pacific Ry. Co. v. Bunyon et al, 138 U. S. 623, 34 L. Ed. 1086.

It is, therefore, by the Court CONSIDERED, ORDERED and ADJUDGED that the Demurrer of the defendant, Oklahoma Natural Gas Corporation, a corporation, and Oklahoma Natural Gas Company, a corporation, to the separate petition of plaintiff herein and the amendment thereto, be overruled as to grounds (2), (3) and (4), to which ruling of the Court the said defendants except and exception is allowed, and be sustained as to the first ground, to which order and judgment of the Court plaintiff excepts and said exception is allowed.

O R D E R

NOW on this 19th day of November, 1934, the above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing, plaintiff and defendants appearing by their respective counsel of record, and after hearing arguments of counsel and being fully advised in the premises, the court finds:

That plaintiff asks leave to withdraw his motion for judgment filed herein, and that leave was granted without objection.

That plaintiff asks leave to file motion to strike certain portions of the amended answer of defendant Myrtle Trope filed herein, and that the same was granted without objection; that, by agreement of counsel in open court, said motion to strike was heard by the court and the court finds that the same should be sustained.

The court further finds that the defenses of the defendants herein are the same as the defenses which have heretofore been asserted by the defendant R. M. Hays in cause No. 1716 pending in this court.

IT IS THEREFORE ordered by the court that plaintiff's motion to strike portions of the defendants' answers, being all that portion of the answers of said defendants, except the general denial and admissions by the defendants of the allegations of plaintiff's petition, is hereby sustained, to which the defendants excepted and an exception is allowed; and that upon request of the defendants, they are given fifteen days from this date within which to amend, to the granting of which leave to amend, the plaintiff excepts and his exception is allowed.

RUBY M. LUCKETT, Administratrix of the) estate of T. Bruce Lockett, Deceased, RUBY) LUCKETT, and W. H. HELMERICK, Defendants.)

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

ON the 7th day of November, 1934, the same being one of the regular judicial days of this Court, the above styled cause duly came on for trial, pursuant to regular setting of the case and notice to the parties. Plaintiff appeared in person and by his counsel of record; defendant, W. H. Helmerick, appeared personally and by his counsel of record; defendants Ruby M. Lockett, Administratrix of the estate of T. Bruce Lockett, deceased, and Ruby Lockett, appeared not, either in person or by attorney, and upon being called three times at the bar of the Court and failing to answer, said last named defendants were by the Court adjudged in default. After hearing the evidence offered in support of plaintiff's petition, including the original note mentioned therein and sued upon herein, and upon inspection of the Court files, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court found that said defendants, Ruby M. Lockett, Administratrix of the estate of T. Bruce Lockett, deceased, and Ruby Lockett, and each of them, have been duly and legally served personally with process in this action with the time and in the manner provided by law and the rules of this court in such cases made and provided by law and the rules of this court in such cases made and provided, and although the time within which the said last named defendants had the right to answer, as fixed by said process and the law and rules applicable thereto, has long since expired, said defendants, and each of them, have failed to answer or otherwise plead to the petition of the plaintiff filed herein, and said defendants, and each of them, are therefore held to be in default and to have confessed all of the allegations of plaintiff's petition.

THE COURT THEREFORE FOUND that the said defendants, Ruby M. Lockett, Administratrix of the estate of T. Bruce Lockett, deceased, and Ruby Lockett, are indebted to the plaintiff, jointly and severally, as set out and prayed for in plaintiff's petition upon the promissory note described therein to-wit, in the sum of Four Hundred and Ninety-three and 86/100 Dollars ($493.86), together with interest thereon at the rate of ten (10) per cent, per annum, from May 1934 until this date, making the total sum of Five Hundred and Nineteen and 51/100 Dollars ($519.51), and that this judgment shall bear interest from date at the rate of ten (10) per cent, per annum, until paid, and that said defendants are also indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of fifty-nine and 38/100 Dollars ($59.38), attorney's fee and for all costs of this action.

WHEREFORE, IT IS BY THE COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff have and recover of and from the defendants, Ruby M. Lockett, Administratrix of the Estate of T. Bruce Lockett, deceased, and Ruby Lockett, and each of them, jointly and severally, the sum of Five Hundred and Nineteen and 51/100 Dollars ($519.51) and the further sum of fifty-nine and 38/100 ($59.38) Dollars, attorney's fee, and that judgment herein shall bear interest at the rate of ten (10) per cent, per annum, from this date, until paid, and that said defendants shall pay all the costs of this action. Execution shall issue herein upon the judgment as to said defendant, Ruby Lockett, but as to said defendant, Ruby M. Lockett, Administratrix of the estate of T. Bruce Lockett, deceased, a certified copy of the journal entry of this judgment shall by the plaintiff be filed in the County Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, as allowed claim against said estate, and to be paid in due and regular course of administration said estate.

The said defendant, W. H. Helmerick, having filed answer herein, denying liability to the plaintiff, and now announcing ready for trial, and the plaintiff announcing ready for trial, said cause proceeded to trial before the Court, and the Jury, duly impanelled, selected and sworn to try the said issues. The defendant assumed the burden of proceeding and introduced his evidence in support of his answer. Plaintiff then introduced his evidence. Argument of counsel was waived. The Court duly charged and instructed the Jury and the Jury retired to consider its verdict. Thereafter and on the same day the Jury returned into court and announced that it had found and decided the issues in favor of the defendant, W. H. Helmerick. Plaintiff excepted to said verdict, and the Court ordered that judgment be entered in the cause in accordance with the said verdict of the Jury.

IT IS THEREFORE BY THE COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff take nothing herein against said defendant, W. H. Helmerick, and that said defendant, W. H. Helmerick, be dismissed with his costs, to which order and judgment of the Court the plaintiff, at the time and in open court, excepted and his exceptions were allowed.

2044 Law. Cont'd.

ON The 8th day of November, 1934, the same being one of the regular judicial days of this Court, the above styled cause duly came on for trial, pursuant to regular setting of the case and notice to the parties. Plaintiff appeared personally and by his counsel, and announced ready for trial, and the defendants, and each of them, appeared personally and by their counsel and announced ready for trial. A Jury, having been duly impanelled, selected and sworn to try the issues between the parties, and the counsel for the respective parties having made opening statements to the Jury, plaintiff introduced his evidence and rested. The defendants demanded exception to the plaintiff's evidence and the same was by the Court overruled and defendants allowed exception. Defendants introduced their evidence and rested. Counsel for plaintiff and defendant respectively presented arguments to the Jury at the close of which it was by the Court found that there was not sufficient time left on this date to finish the case, and then it was by the Court ordered that the court be recessed until the following morning at nine o'clock. Thereafter, and on the 9th day of November, 1934, at nine o'clock A.M., the said parties returned into court and announced ready to proceed, and the Jury all being present, the Court charged the Jury and instructed them as to the law applicable to the issues in this case. Thereupon the Jury returned to consider of its verdict. After deliberating at length the Jury was returned into court in the presence of all of the parties and their respective counsel, and announced in open court that they were unable to agree upon a verdict. The Court then and in open court asked plaintiff and the defendants and their respective counsel if they desired to stipulate in open court that a majority of the Jurors might agree upon a verdict and that such verdict agreed upon by a majority of the Jury would be accepted and binding upon the parties. After conferring with their respective clients, counsel for plaintiff and each of the defendants announced in open court that they all agreed to permit the Jury to return a verdict agreed upon by a majority in number of the jurors, and that if such verdict should be returned, agreed upon and signed by a majority of the jurors, the same would be acceptable and binding upon all the parties. Whereupon the Jury again retired to consider of its verdict, and after due deliberation the Jury then returned into Court with the verdict signed by eleven of the twelve Jurors, and by said verdict the Jury found that the plaintiff was entitled to recover of and from the defendants excepting Buck Bellinger the sum Seventeen Hundred Dollars ($1,700.00).

The Court ordered that judgment be entered in accordance with said verdict.

WHEREUPON, IT WAS BY THE COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff recover and recover of and from the defendants, Bert Streeter and Lawrence Calloway, operating and doing business as a partnership under the name of Claremore Bottling Company and Claremore Ice Sales Company, and C. L. Brasier and each of them, the sum of Seventeen Hundred and no/100 Dollars ($1,700.00), together with all costs of this case, to which order and judgment of the Court, the defendants, and each of them, excepted and their exceptions were allowed.

Thereupon counsel for the defendants, and each of them, gave notice in open court of their intention to appeal from said judgment to the Circuit Court of Appeals in the United States for the Tenth Circuit, and upon request of the defendant's counsel the Court fixed the appeal and supersedeas bond in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) which defendants should be required to give and furnish and file herein in the manner and form required by law, and the Court ordered that execution on plaintiff's judgment herein shall be stayed, during said period of ten days from this 9th day of November, 1934, and if such bond shall be furnished and duly approved and filed herein in the manner and form required by law, then execution on the judgment shall be further stayed, pending determination of such appeal.

ORDER ON APPLICATION FOR CITATION

On this 14th day of December, 1934, this matter comes on to be heard upon the application of the plaintiff for citation to require the production of certain evidence taken by way of depositions in Kansas City, Missouri. Plaintiff appeared by Charles B. Rogers; the defendant appeared not, although it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that a diligent effort has been made to notify him of this application.

It appears from the verified application that the defendant took the deposition of J. T. Christy, an officer of the defendant, the Concrete Engineering Company, in Kansas City, Missouri, on the eighth day of December, 1934, and that in the taking of such deposition certain exhibits were identified by the witness; that said exhibits have been returned to counsel for the plaintiff and, as counsel for the plaintiff is informed and believes, the defendant does not intend to cause said deposition to be filed.

It further appears that the plaintiff will desire to offer such deposition, or parts thereof;

It is therefore ordered (a) that the deposition be transcribed and filed by noon on Monday, December 17, 1934; or (b) that the witness whose deposition was taken be present in court; or (c) that Anna M. Feltenstein, the reporter who took said deposition be present in court with her shorthand notes.

That certified copy of this order be served at the office of the counsel for the defendant, the Concrete Engineering Company, this afternoon, and counsel for plaintiff is authorized to telegraph the substance of this order to the reporter, Anna M. Feltenstein.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

This cause came on to be heard at this term, the plaintiff appearing in person and counsel of record, the defendant Concrete Engineering Company, a corporation, appearing by counsel of record, and the defendant Roy S. Lotspeich appearing not, either in person or by counsel. Thereupon, a jury of twelve men from the Northern District of the State of Oklahoma is selected, empaneled and sworn to try the issues in said cause, whereupon opening statements are made to the jury on behalf of the plaintiff and the defendant Concrete Engineering Company by their attorneys of record. Thereupon, the plaintiff having introduced his evidence and rested, the defendant Concrete Engineering Company moves the court to instruct the jury to return a verdict in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff. And the court being well and sufficiently advised in the premises finds that said motion is well taken and should be sustained.

IT IS THEREFORE CONSIDERED, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED BY THE COURT that said motion of the defendant Concrete Engineering Company, a corporation, be and it is hereby sustained, and the jury having rendered its verdict in accordance with the instructions of the court in favor of the said defendant and against the plaintiff, it is FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED BY THE COURT that the plaintiff W. A. Skaggs take nothing as against the defendant Concrete Engineering Company, and that judgment be and it is hereby rendered in favor of said defendant Concrete Engineering Company and against the plaintiff, and that the said defendant Concrete Engineering Company have and recover of and from the plaintiff the costs of the said defendant herein laid out and expended; to which findings, rulings and judgment as above set forth in favor of the defendant Concrete Engineering Company, a corporation, and against the plaintiff W. A. Skaggs, and in all of them, the plaintiff excepts and exceptions are allowed.

Thereupon the court finds from an examination of the files in said cause, that summons for the defendant Roy S. Lotspeich was duly issued and served on said defendant, advising him that he had been sued in this action for the sum of $10,350.00; the court further finds that said defendant Lotspeich has failed to plead, answer or demur to plaintiff's petition, or to make any appearance herein, and he is in default. Thereupon the court instructs the jury as to the case of the plaintiff against the said defendant Roy S. Lotspeich; whereupon the jury retires in charge of a sworn bailiff to consider of its verdict. Thereupon the jury returns into the court with its verdict in favor of the plaintiff W. A. Skaggs and against the defendant Roy S. Lotspeich for the sum of $8,500.00 damages, and which verdict is duly received and filed, and is a part of the record in this cause.

IT IS THEREFORE CONSIDERED, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED BY THE COURT that the plaintiff A. Skaggs have and recover of and from the defendant Roy S. Lotspeich damages in the sum of $8,500.00, and the costs of this action, for all of which let execution issue.

On motion of the plaintiff, and for good cause shown, he is hereby granted an extension of time of sixty (60) days from this 17th day of December, 1934, in which to prepare and file to be signed and filed herein a bill of exceptions in the matter of the judgment hereinbefore rendered in favor of the defendant Concrete Engineering Company and against the plaintiff A. Skaggs, and the present term of this court is hereby extended for said period of sixty (60) days.
