JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Now on this 19th day of December, A. D. 1934, this action came on for hearing before this Court at a regular term thereof, pursuant to written waiver of trial by jury by the parties litigant hereto; plaintiffs appeared in person and by their counsel, Merrick A. Whipple, Esquire, and O. C. Essman, Esquire, and the defendant appeared by its counsel, Robert D. Hudson, Esquire.

Thereupon, counsel for parties litigant orally stipulated in open Court with reference to certain facts, and thereupon, plaintiffs introduced their evidence and rested. Whereupon, the said defendant by its counsel interposed a demurrer challenging the sufficiency of the evidence to entitle plaintiff to recover. Upon consideration thereof, the same was by the Court overruled; the defendant excepted and exception was allowed. Thereupon, defendant introduced its evidence and rested; and the plaintiffs having announced no rebuttal, both sides rested.

And the Court having heard the arguments of counsel for the respective parties and having duly considered the pleadings, agreed statement of facts, and the evidence introduced by the respective parties, took this matter under advisement and continued this cause until the 7th day of January, 1935, for the purpose of examining documentary evidence necessary to a determination of this action; and this cause again having come on for hearing on the 7th day of January, 1935, before this Court, the same being the January, 1935, term of said Court, and the parties hereto having appeared before the Court and announced that they had no further evidence or arguments to offer, at the conclusion of said evidence, the said attorney for the defendant moved the Court for judgment on the evidence for the reason that plaintiffs' evidence failed to establish a cause of action; and thereupon, the said attorneys for the plaintiffs likewise moved that judgment be entered for them for the reason that the evidence of said defendant failed to establish a defense cognizable in law and that by virtue of the evidence adduced by plaintiffs, they were entitled to recover of and from the said defendant the penal amount of said bond.

The Court finds herein that the plaintiffs are entitled to have and recover of and from the said defendant the sum of Four Thousand One Hundred Eighteen and 06/100 ($4,118.06) Dollars. To all of which the said attorney for the defendant excepts and exceptions are allowed.

Now, therefore, on said decision and on motion of counsel for plaintiffs, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiffs, E. E. Park, M. J. Ward and M. Park, Trustees of Park and Company, a corporation, now dissolved, have and recover of and from the defendant, The Employers Liability Assurance Corporation, Ltd., a corporation, the sum of Four Thousand One Hundred Eighteen and 06/100 ($4,118.06) Dollars, with interest thereon from the 7th day of January, 1935, and for costs of action by plaintiffs herein laid out and expended, and to have execution issue therefor.

Judgment signed and entered this 7th day of January, 1935.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

This cause having been heretofore tried before the court without a jury, argued and briefed by counsel for both parties, comes on now for judgment.

The court specially finds the facts as set out in the findings of fact heretofore read on February 1, 1935, filed with the clerk, as modified at the request of counsel for the defendant, in accordance with instructions given the clerk of this court on February 8, 1935.

Such findings, as modified, are incorporated herein by reference the same as if fully set out herein. To which findings of fact the defendant has filed its six exceptions and objections under date of February 11, 1935, which exceptions and objections are denied, to which ruling of the court the defendant duly excepted. The defendant also objects and excepts to the findings generally, on the ground that they are not supported by any substantial evidence. Such objection and exception is denied, to which ruling of the court the defendant excepts.

The motion of plaintiff for judgment, interposed at the close of the trial, under the law, the pleadings, and the evidence is sustained. The motion of defendant for judgment in its favor, on the same grounds, is denied, to which ruling of the court the defendant excepts.

On the issues presented by the pleadings, including the counter claims of the defendant, the court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to recover from the defendant the sum of $90,944.61, with six per cent interest from January 1, 1933, to the date of this judgment, and the amount of $11,519.16.

IT IS THEREFORE CONSIDERED, ORDERED, and ADJUDGED that the plaintiff have and recover from the defendant the sum of $102,464.26, with six per cent interest from this date until paid, and for the costs herein incurred, for all of which let execution issue on and after thirty days from this date.

To which judgment of the court the defendant duly excepts.

The defendant is allowed sixty days from this date to settle the bill of exceptions.

J U D G M E N T

NOW, on this 28 day of March, A. D., 1935, the above and foregoing cause coming on regularly for hearing, the plaintiff appeared by its attorney, W. N. Banks, of the firm of Banks, O'Brien & McVey, attorneys, and the defendants Iro Drilling Company and H. R. Gruber appeared not.

The Court, upon examination of the summons finds that the Iro Drilling Company, an Oklahoma Corporation, and H. R. Gruber were duly and regularly personally served with summons in this cause, as provided by law, and that the defendants Wm. Gruber and J. F. McGinley were not served with summons. It was shown to the Court, and the Court finds, that the defendants Wm. Gruber and J. F. McGinley are without the State of Oklahoma and were not served in this cause.

That the said defendants Wm. Gruber and J. F. McGinley personally endorsed the note sued on herein.

The Court further finds that the said defendants Iro Drilling Company and H. R. Gruber are in default of an answer or any other pleading in this cause and default is, therefore, entered against said defendants Iro Drilling Company and H. R. Gruber.

Thereupon a jury was waived by the plaintiff, and the trial was proceeded with.

The plaintiff introduced its note in evidence and rested.

The Court finds that the defendant Iro Drilling Company upon July 1, 1932 executed and delivered to plaintiff its note, all as set forth in the petition of plaintiff filed herein and that said note was endorsed upon the back thereof by the defendants H. R. Gruber, Wm. Gruber and J. F. McGinley.

The Court further finds that there is due from the defendants, and each of them, to the plaintiff the sum of nine thousand one hundred forty-four and 40/100 ($9,144.40) Dollars, with interest at eight (8%) per cent from November 24, 1934 and the further sum of nine hundred thirteen and 44/100 ($914.44) dollars attorneys' fee, with interest at eight (8%) per cent per annum from November 24, 1934.

WHEREFORE, it is, by the Court, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that plaintiff have and recover of and from the defendants Iro Drilling Company and H. R. Gruber the sum of nine thousand one hundred forty-four and 40/100 ($9,144.40) dollars and the further sum of nine hundred thirteen and 44/100 ($914.44) dollars as an attorneys' fee, with interest on each of said amounts at eight (8%) per cent per annum from the 24th day of November, 1934 and for its costs herein, taxed at $14.95.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that said note is cancelled as to the defendants Iro Drilling Company and H. R. Gruber, and that by this judgment and the said cancellation of said note as to Iro Drilling Company and H. R. Gruber does not in any way effect the never able to work at any gainful occupation with reasonable regularity thereafter, and that said plaintiff has been totally and permanently disabled since his discharge from said Army on April 14th., 1919, to this date.

That at the time said permanent and total disability originated the Insurance of said plaintiff was in full force and effect, and that by virtue of the terms and conditions thereof said plaintiff became and now is entitled to the payment provided by said policy in the sum of Fifty-seven and 50/100 ($57.50) Dollars per month from and after the 14th day of April, 1919, and continuing so long as he shall live and continue so disabled.

The Court further finds that claim for said insurance was duly made to the United States Veterans' Administration as required by law, and that said Veterans' Administration refused payment of said Insurance and that at the time this suit was instituted a disagreement concerning the same existed, and jurisdiction was thereby vested in this Court to try this case.

The Court further finds that for the purpose of prosecuting this suit, the plaintiff has employed, retained and engaged A. E. Williams, a duly licensed and practicing attorney who appeared at the trial of this cause and prosecuted this action in his behalf, for which service the plaintiff agreed to pay him ten per cent (10%) of any amount awarded and to be paid by virtue of said contract of insurance, which sum the Court finds to be a reasonable attorney's fee in this case.

IT IS, THEREFORE, the order, judgment and decree of this Court that the plaintiff have and recover from the defendant herein in accordance with the terms of said War Risk Insurance contract, the sum of Fifty-seven and 50/100 ($57.70) Dollars per month for each and every month from and after the 14., day of April, 1919, to the date of this Judgment and continuing during the lifetime of the plaintiff so long as he shall continue so permanently and totally disabled, said payments so awarded to said plaintiff and his said attorney, hereinafter adjudged to be reckoned by United States Veterans Administration in conformity with this decreed.

IT IS THE FURTHER ORDER of the Court that out of the money herein awarded to plaintiff and to be paid by virtue of this judgment and said Insurance contract, the attorney for plaintiff, A. E. Williams, be and he is hereby allowed ten per cent (10%) as his reasonable attorney fee, which said amount shall be paid to said A. E. Williams by the authorized agency of the defendant and deducted from the amount awarded to, and to be paid to, the plaintiff by virtue of this judgment.
