United States of America,	Plaintiff,
vs.		H. COLP-C.
Iva Parker,	Defendant.

O R D E R

This case came on for hearing before me the undersigned Judge of the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Oklahoma, on this 29th day of July, 1938, upon the application of Iva Parker, and said applicant appearing by her attorney, Maurice P. Ellison, and the plaintiff, United States of America, appearing by the United States District Attorney for the Northern District of Oklahoma, J. E. Bailey, and the Court after the consideration of said application and the evidence and support thereof, finds that at the time said judgment was rendered in this cause for the sum of $100.00, the following described property, to-wit:

Lots One (1) and Twelve (12), Acme Acres Addition to the City of Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, was the homestead of said defendant, Iva Parker; that said property has been used, claimed and occupied as the homestead of the said applicant, Iva Parker and her husband, Bert Parker, from December 3, 1923 until the time of his death, December 31, 1928, and that said applicant, Iva Parker, continued to use and occupy said property as her homestead from that date until October 1, 1933, at which time she sold said property with the intention of using said funds to acquire another homestead.

The Court further finds that said Iva Parker did not after the sale of her homestead, aforesaid, and on November 15, acquire the following described property:

One acre in the Northeast quarter of the Southeast quarter of the Northeast quarter of Section 22, Township 20 North, Range 13 East of the Indian Base and Meridian, described as beginning 354.7 feet South of the Northeast corner of the above described tract; running thence South 100 feet; thence East 437.8 feet; thence North 100 feet; and thence East 437.8 feet to the place of beginning, with the use of the funds derived from the sale of her homestead and that she moved upon said property, last above described, and continuously used, occupied and claimed said property as her homestead until she sold the same about August 18, 1934.

The Court further finds that there were no issue of the marriage of said applicant, Iva Parker and Bert Parker, but that said Lots One (1) and Twelve (12) in Acme Acres Addition to the City of Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, was impressed as a homestead prior to the time of the death of Bert Parker and that by virtue of the use of the funds from the sale thereof in purchasing the following described property:

One acre in the Northeast quarter of the Southeast quarter of the Northeast quarter of Section 22, Township 20 North, Range 13 East of the Indian Base and Meridian, described as beginning 354.7 feet South of the Northeast corner of the above described tract; running thence South 100 feet; thence East 437.8 feet; thence North 100 feet; and thence East 437.8 feet to the place of beginning.

That said property was also impressed as a homestead and that therefore none of said property aforesaid, is subject to levy of execution on the judgment aforesaid rendered in this cause and is not affected by any lien thereof.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the following described property, to-wit:

and to hold it, him until the further order of this court.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Now on this, the 22nd day of May, 1935, the above entitled cause comes regularly on for trial pursuant to assignment and agreement of attorneys. The plaintiffs were present by their officers and agents, and by their attorneys, Shirk, Danner & Earnheart and G. A. Paul; the defendant was present by its officers and attorneys, Walter L. Gray, H. W. Conyers, D. E. Foley and H. R. Duncan.

Thereupon, all parties present announced ready for trial, and the Court, being duly advised, finds that heretofore the plaintiffs and defendant had filed their written agreement waiving a jury herein, and by reason of the waiving of said jury, the cause proceeded to trial to the court.

Whereupon the plaintiffs proceeded to introduce their testimony, and thereupon the defendant objected to the introduction of testimony on the ground that plaintiffs' petition failed to state a cause of action, which objection was by the Court overruled, and the defendant granted an exception to the ruling of the court.

Thereupon the plaintiffs introduced their evidence, and at the conclusion of the introduction of testimony, the defendant demurred thereto; and thereupon the Court overruled the demurrer of the defendant to the evidence of the plaintiffs, and the defendant excepted to the ruling of the court, which exception was by the court allowed.

The defendant rested without offering any testimony, and the Court heard the argument of the attorneys for the plaintiffs and the defendant, and directed that the case be taken under advisement, and further directed the filing of written briefs herein.

and, thereafter, and on the 26th day of June, 1935, the Court, being duly advised, is of the opinion that judgment should be rendered in favor of the defendant and against this plaintiff.

And now on this, the 9th day of September, 1935, this matter again comes on for hearing on the motion for new trial filed by the plaintiffs herein, and the Court, being duly advised finds that said motion for new trial should be and is hereby overruled, to which action of the court plaintiffs except, and exceptions allowed.

It is, therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the plaintiffs be denied judgment herein, and that judgment be rendered for the defendant, to which ruling of the court the plaintiffs, and each of them, except, and their exceptions allowed by the court.

Thereupon the plaintiffs prayed for an appeal to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, and requested that they be granted ninety (90) days from this date in which to prepare, sign and settle Bill of Exceptions, and requested that cost bond on appeal be fixed herein.

It is, therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiffs be and they are hereby granted thirty (30) days from this date in which to prepare, file and settle Bill of Exceptions, and that cost bond on appeal in the sum of $200.00 be given, same to be filed within twenty (20) days from this date.

ORDER NUNC PRO TUNC

The above matter coming on to be heard before me, the undersigned Judge of said court on this 19th day of September, 1935, a regular day of the June Term of said Court, and there being presented in open court the application of said plaintiff for an Order Nunc Pro Tunc herein correcting the order of this court remanding this cause to the District Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and the court being well and sufficiently advised in the premises and being satisfied that through inadvertence the record of this court, at the time the order remanding this cause to the District Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, was made on the 9th day of September, 1935, the record and journal entry of this court fail to fully recite the proceedings before this court, particularly as to action taken on the plaintiff's Second Amended Petition, which said motion was set for hearing before this court on the 3rd day of June, 1935 and on the same day a motion to remand filed by the plaintiff herein was set for hearing; that the motion to remand filed by the plaintiff herein, which was also set for hearing on the 3rd day of June, 1935, was by the plaintiff withdrawn, whereupon the defendants, in open court, withdrew and waived the motion directed against the plaintiff's Second Amended Petition on the grounds of departure, which the records of this court, through oversight, failed to show, and it appearing that said omission or oversight should be corrected and the journal entry of this court should recite the facts aforesaid. IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the order of the judge of the said court filed herein, remanding this cause to the District Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma on the 9th day of September 1935, be and is hereby corrected to show that on the 3rd day of June, 1935, the defendants by and through their attorney, Jas. C. Cheek, in open court, withdrew the motion directed against the Second Amended Petition of plaintiff herein on the ground of departure, and waived their objection by reason thereof. With the record so corrected to include the fact of the waiver of the defendants' said motion, it is ordered that the plaintiff's Second Motion to Remand this cause to the District Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma be and the same is hereby granted, and that this cause be remanded to the District Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma for further proceedings as ordered by this court on the 9th day of September, 1935.

Court, the above styled cause came on for trial in its regular order and pursuant to regular notice. Plaintiff and his attorney appeared and announced ready for trial, and defendants, J. H. Bankston and M. A. Bankston, failed to appear after being duly called. And the Court having examined the records in this case, and finding that the said defendants were duly served with process more than twenty days prior to this date, notifying said defendants of the pendency of this action, and requiring them to enter their appearance herein and file answer; and it appearing that the said defendants did file separate answers and other pleadings herein, but said defendants, J. H. Bankston and M. A. Bankston, both failed to enter their appearance herein for trial, and the Court, therefore, adjudged the said defendants in default.

Plaintiff, in open court, waived a jury and submitted to the Court the original promissory note sued upon herein, and thereupon, being fully advised in the premises, the Court found all the averments in plaintiff's petition to be true as therein set forth; and after hearing the evidence as to the amount still remaining unpaid on said note, the Court found that the defendants were indebted to the plaintiff upon a promissory note set out and described in plaintiff's petition in the sum of One Hundred and Seventy-five Dollars ($175.00), together with interest at the rate of ten (10) per cent, per annum on the principal amount of Four Hundred and Twenty-five Dollars ($425.00) for two years, five months, and six days in the sum of One Hundred and Three and 41/100 Dollars ($103.41); on the principal sum of Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) for one hundred and sixty days in the sum of Seventeen and 77/100 Dollars ($17.77); on the principal sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) for one hundred and seventy-two days in the amount of Fourteen and 33/100 Dollars ($14.33); on the principal sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250.00) for eighty-seven days in the amount of Six and 5/100 Dollars ($6.08); on the principal sum of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Dollars ($225.00) for one hundred and forty-one days in the amount of Eight and 82/100 Dollars ($8.82); on the principal sum of One Hundred and Seventy-five Dollars ($175.00) for one hundred and four days in the amount of Five and 6/100 Dollars ($5.06), making the total interest to date of One Hundred and Fifty-five and 44/100 Dollars ($155.44), together with the principal amount owing of One Hundred and Seventy-five Dollars ($175.00), or a total of both principal and interest, to date, of Three Hundred and Thirty and 44/100 Dollars ($330.44).

IT IS, THEREFORE, BY THE COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff have and recover of and from the defendants, J. H. Bankston and M. A. Bankston, the sum of Three Hundred and Thirty and 44/100 Dollars ($330.44), together with interest thereon at the rate of ten (10) per cent, per annum from date of judgment and the further sum of Forty-two and 50/100 Dollars ($42.50) as attorney fees, and all costs of this action, for all of which let execution issue.

The original promissory note described in plaintiff's petition and sued upon herein, and being merged in this judgment, was by the Court ordered submitted to the Court Clerk for cancellation and filing, which was accordingly done.
