Jerome G. Queenan, Receiver)

ORDER AUTHORIZING RECEIVER TO COMPOUND AND SETTLE DOUBTFUL DEBT.

The above matter coming on to be heard before the court on this, the 16th day of June, 1936, on the duly verified petition of Jerome G. Queenan, as receiver of the First National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma, and it appearing from said verified petition and the court being fully advised in the premises, finds that among the assets of said bank which came into his possession as receiver were two certain notes due said bank, and which notes are now held as free or unpledged assets of said bank, and fully described as follows:

Asset No. 10, being promissory note dated December 2, 1930, due May 22, 1931, in the principal sum of $1,250.00 and bearing interest at the rate of 10% per annum from March 22, 1932, duly signed and executed by Pitts Beaty; and

Asset No. 12, being promissory note dated November 19, 1931, due June 2, 1932, in the principal sum of $162.70, bearing interest at the rate of 10% per annum from maturity, duly signed and executed by Pitts Beaty, and finding further that the other allegations of said petition are true and that the authority prayed for in said petition is necessary in order to liquidate the assets of the said bank and to serve the best interests of said bank, its depositors, creditors, and shareholders, and further finding that the authority prayed for in said petition is within the jurisdiction of this court and that the offer of the above named debtor has been submitted to the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States and by him approved as shown by his letter to the receiver, copy being attached to the petition herein as "Exhibit A."

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said petition of Jerome G. Queenan as receiver of said bank be sustained and he is hereby authorized to accept from Pitts Beaty the sum of $1,000.00 in cash in payment, settlement and release of Assets No. 10 and 12, being promissory notes signed by Pitts Beaty, Asset No. 10 being dated december 2, 1930, due May 22, 1931, in the principal sum of $1,250.00, and Asset No. 12 being dated November 19, 1931, due June 2, 1932, in the principal sum of $162.70.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that upon the payment of the sum herein set forth that said petition or receiver of said bank be and he is hereby authorized to accept the same, to cancel said note and deliver same to the maker thereof, and to perform all such other acts as may be necessary to fully effectuate the authority contained herein.

In re: Receivership of First)
National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma) miscellaneous ✓
Jerome G. Queenan, Receiver)

ORDER AUTHORIZING RECEIVER TO SELL REAL ESTATE AND EXECUTE CONVEYANCE THEREFOR.

This cause came on regularly for hearing on this, the 16th day of June, 1936, upon the verified application of Jerome G. Queenan, Receiver of the First National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma, asking for authority to sell the real estate hereinafter described and to execute conveyance therefor.

On consideration of said petition and the evidence introduced in support thereof the court finds that the real estate above mentioned is described as follows, to-wit:

Lots 9, 10, 11, 12, Block 13, Tallchief Addition to the town of Fairfax, Osage County, Oklahoma; that same is carried among the assets of said insolvent trust as Asset No. 37; that the receiver has an opportunity to sell said real estate, having an offer for the purchase of same by R. A. Baylor, who has made an offer to purchase said real estate at the sum of $2,000.00 cash, with the understanding that the receiver is to pay the taxes on said property, which taxes are in the approximate sum of $228.00, and that the receiver is to furnish abstract of title continued to date and conveyances to be made in the form of receiver's deed.

The court further finds that under date of May 26, 1936, the Comptroller of the Currency wrote letter to the receiver advising that said property be sold on the terms above outlined; that said letter of the Comptroller was based upon the asset being a free asset of the trust and further based upon a condition precedent that there be a written approval of at least three substantial creditors of the trust who are in no way interested in the proposed sale except as such creditors.

The court finds that three substantial creditors who are not interested in said sale other than being creditors of said trust have given their written approval of said sale.

The court further finds that said trust has been in existence for approximately four years; that the asset above mentioned has been a part of the assets of said trust during all of said time and has been for sale during all of said time; that the offer made by the said R. A. Baylor is the best offer that has ever been made to purchase said property.

The court therefore finds that it is for the best interest of said trust for the sale of said asset to be made on the terms outlined in said application and hereinbefore outlined.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND DECREED that Jerome G. Queenan, receiver of the First National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma, be and he is hereby authorized to sell the real estate hereinbefore described for the sum of $2,000.00 with the 1935 and all previous taxes paid by the receiver and abstract furnished to the purchaser continued to date; that said property be conveyed by the receiver by regular receiver's deed.

the matter or bill of complaint in aid of execution instituted herein by E. D. Stout, assignee of the above named plaintiff of the judgment had and obtained in this court; and the court having ordered said defendants, E. J. Skidmore and Mary A. Skidmore, his wife, to appear in this court on the 21st day of July, 1936, at 9:30 A.M., to submit to an examination touching any property rights of the defendant, E. J. Skidmore, which may be subjected to sale and sold under the orders of the court to the satisfaction of such judgment; and the said E. J. Skidmore and Mary A. Skidmore having appeared on said 21st day of July, 1936, pursuant to said citation and having been examined in open court, the court finds that said proceeding is authorized by Section 480 Oklahoma Statutes 1931 and the Conformity Act of the National Congress; and after being fully advised in the premises finds that the promissory note, the subject-matter of this action, was executed by the said E. J. Skidmore on August 26, 1929 by which he became indebted to the plaintiff or plaintiff's assignor in the sum of $3,819.69, and which said indebtedness had not been satisfied at the time E. J. Skidmore transferred all of his property, both real and personal, to the said Mary A. Skidmore.

The court further finds that the deed transferring all of the said real estate owned by the said E. J. Skidmore to his wife, Mary A. Skidmore, described as follows:

Lots thirteen (13) and twenty (20) in Block five (5) of the original town, now city of Drumright, Oklahoma.
Lots one, two, three, and four (1,2,3,4) in Block thirty-two (32) N. Jones Addition in the city of Drumright, Oklahoma.
Lots eleven (11) and the West one-half of Lot twelve (12) in Block seven (7) in Drumright's Extended Addition to the city of Drumright, Oklahoma.

was not recorded for almost two years after the purported date of said deed.

The court further finds that in the transfer of the drug stock the said E. J. Skidmore and Mary A. Skidmore made no attempt whatsoever to comply with the Oklahoma Bulk Sale Law, Section 19014.

The court further finds, that in the deed and transferring of all his property by the said E. J. Skidmore to Mary A. Skidmore, that the consideration for the deed on the part of Mary A. Skidmore was her agreement to support and maintain the said E. J. Skidmore during his natural life, in legal effect a conveyance of property to the grantee, Mary A. Skidmore, by the grantor, E. J. Skidmore, in trust for himself, and that such conveyance is fraudulent and void as to the other creditors of E. J. Skidmore without regard to any question of fraudulent intent.

The court further finds that the chattel mortgage dated June 28, 1933 in which the said E. J. Skidmore and Mary A. Skidmore mortgaged the drug stock and fixtures to E. H. Holderness the brother of Mary A. Skidmore, was filed July 1, 1933 in Creek County, Oklahoma, and that the said E. H. Holderness has failed to comply with Section 11225 Oklahoma Statutes 1931 as amended by Session Laws of 1931, Chapter 22, by making and filing an affidavit exhibiting the interest of the mortgagee in the property within thirty (30) days next preceding the expiration of the term of three years from such filing and that the same has ceased to be valid as against creditors of E. J. Skidmore and Mary A. Skidmore.

The court further finds that Mary A. Skidmore listed the drug stock and fixtures in the inventory of her husband, E. J. Skidmore, on the 21st day of July, 1936, and on the 21st day of July, 1936, and 1936.

The court further finds that the rental from the drug stock and fixtures owned by Mary A. Skidmore has been used then enough to pay for hospital and medical expenses and support since said drug stock and fixtures were transferred to her for that purpose.

In all things save the judgment and order of sale and distribution of said property, both real and personal, hereinbefore described, except the interest of the plaintiff or plaintiff's assignor in satisfy the claim of the plaintiff or the assignee of the plaintiff, E. E. Stout.

The court, however, finds that at the time of the execution and delivery of said note sued upon, the said E. J. Skidmore gave as collateral for the purpose of securing said note, fifty (50) shares of Warner Bros. Pictures Incorporated stock, No. 4,308, which said collateral of fifty shares of Warner Bros. stock is now held by the assignee of the plaintiff herein, and he is ordered the same into court to be ordered sold by the Marshal and the proceeds to apply as part payment of said judgment obtained herein.

The complainant is hereby ordered to surrender the said fifty shares of stock to the Marshal to be sold and the proceeds applied to the satisfaction of said judgment; and all of the real estate and personal property therein, other than the homestead, as hereinbefore mentioned, is held and ordered by this court subject to execution to satisfy said judgment. To which findings, conclusions, and judgment the defendants except as said exceptions are, by the court, allowed.

ASHLEY H. BERTS, administrator of the estate of WILLIAM PARKER, deceased, Plaintiff

vs.

JAMES M. BURN and JOHN G. LONSDALE, as trustees for St. Louis and San Francisco Railway Company, a corporation, and THE ARK WAREHOUSE COMPANY, a corporation, and JOHN TARRIFF, Defendants.

No. 574 - Law.

JOURNAL ENTRY.

Now on this the 20th day of August, 1930, this matter comes on in its regular order to a heard before me, the undersigned Judge; the plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, H. C. McArthur, and the defendants James M. Burn and John G. Lonsdale as trustees for St. Louis and San Francisco Railway Company, a corporation, and James Tarriff appeared by his attorney Grace, Littlefield & Grigsby, and the defendant The Ark Warehouse Company, a corporation, appeared by its attorneys Hudson & Hudson, by H. D. Hudson; both sides announced ready and having waived a jury, the court proceeded to the trial of said cause. From the introduction of the evidence in this cause the court finds:

That Ashley H. Berts is the duly appointed, qualified and acting administrator of the estate of William Parker, deceased, who died intestate on or about the 11th day of December, 1928, and that said plaintiff is entitled to maintain this action as such administrator for said estate.

The court further finds that the said William Parker, deceased died as a result of certain personal injuries caused by the negligence of the said defendants and each of them, and that at the time of his death he was of the age of 3 years, and left surviving him as his sole and only legal heir and next of kin the father of said deceased, John Henry Parker, aged 72 years at the time of the death of said deceased, and that the said John Henry Parker is the sole and only person entitled to participate in the proceeds herein rendered.

The court further finds that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover for the pecuniary loss and suffering but is only entitled to recover for the wrongful death of said deceased William Parker.

The court further finds that the plaintiff has established all the material allegations contained in his petition save and except those relating to the conscious pain and suffering and suffering, and that he is entitled to recover the sum of $600.00 (Six Hundred Dollars) of and from the said defendants and each of them.

That the court further finds that the said sum of $600.00 when paid, shall constitute a fund for the use and benefit of John Henry Parker, the sole and only heir and next of kin of said deceased.

The court further finds that as the said sum of $600.00 is the result of said judgment, same paid in part of them should not properly a part of the estate of the deceased and are not subject to administration.

The court further finds that the said sum of $600.00 shall be paid to or each of them by the said judgment satisfied by paying the said sum of $600.00 to the plaintiff herein, for the use and benefit of the said John Henry Parker, the sole and only heir and next of kin of said deceased, together with the costs of this action.

The court further finds that the said plaintiff shall disburse and distribute the proceeds of the judgment to the said John Henry Parker for the use and benefit of said John Henry Parker.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff have and recover of and from the said defendant and each of them the sum of Six Hundred and no/100 ($600.00) together with interest thereon from this date at the rate of 6% per annum until paid, and for the costs of this action.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that plaintiff do not recover as for conscious pain and suffering of the said deceased.

In re: Receivership of First)
National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma,) Miscellaneous.
Jerome G. Queenan, Receiver,)

ORDER AUTHORIZING RECEIVER TO COMPOUND AND SETTLE DOUBTFUL DEBTS

The above cause coming on regularly to be heard before the court on this 23rd day of September, 1936, upon the duly certified petition of Jerome G. Queenan, as receiver of the First National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma, and it appearing from said verified petition and the court being fully advised in the premises, finds that among the assets of said bank which came into his possession as receiver were three certain promissory notes due and payable to said bank and which said notes are now held as free and unpledged assets of said bank, fully described as follows:

Asset No. 70, being an unsecured promissory note dated March 4, 1932 in the original principal sum of $750.00, due on demand and bearing interest at the rate of 10% per annum from date, with interest paid to April 30, 1932, on which there is now an unpaid balance principal sum of $689.42, said note being executed by the Fairfax Motor Company, a corporation,

Asset No. 71, an unsecured promissory note dated March 2, 1932 in the principal sum of $2,000.00, due on demand, bearing interest at the rate of 10% per annum from date, with interest paid to April 30, 1932, executed by the Fairfax Motor Company, a corporation, and finding further that all of the allegations of said petition are true and that the authority prayed for in said petition is necessary in order to liquidate the assets of said bank and to serve the best interests of said bank, its depositors, creditors and shareholders and further finding that the authority prayed for in said petition is within the jurisdiction of this court and that the offer of the above named debtors to compromise and pay the indebtedness as above set forth has been separately submitted by the receiver to the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States and by him approved by his separate letters to the receiver, copy of which are attached to the verified petition herein as Exhibits A and B.

It being further shown to the court by said verified petition that said receiver holds as a part of the assets of said trust an eighteen inch Underwood typewriter purchased new in 1932 and carried and charged to "Schedule R" of said trust but not carried under an asset number; that said receiver has had an offer from F. M. Overstreet to purchase said typewriter for the sum of $18.00 cash and the said offer has by said receiver been submitted to the Comptroller of the Currency and by him approved as shown by his letter to the receiver, copy being attached to the petition herein as Exhibit C.

Upon consideration of the offers as specifically set forth in said verified petition and the same having received the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States, IT IS THEREFORE DULY CONSIDERED, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said petition of Jerome G. said trust was conducted: that the receiver would on Tuesday, September 10, 1931 at the hour of two o'clock P.M. of each day and at the rear office of the First State Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma offer for sale and sell at public sale to the highest bidder for cash subject to the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States and to confirmation by this court without recourse and without warranty of any kind or character all the remaining assets in the said First National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma, less such items as might be paid or otherwise disposed of prior to said date of sale as above mentioned.

The Court further finds that at the time and place advertised that the receiver sold at public auction all the remaining assets of said trust as specifically identified and hereinbefore set forth and in the conducting of said sale and as a preliminary thereto that he read to the assembled prospective bidders a copy of the formal notice of sale as advertised and that the receiver made the further announcement that all bids would be subject to the acceptance of any bid would be subject to the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency and by confirmation by this court; that all negotiable instruments would be signed without recourse and without warranty of any kind or character and that thereupon the receiver offered at public auction all of the remaining assets as specifically listed herein; that such assets were first offered individually and separately and then offered in groups and then all of such assets were offered as a whole in order that the receiver might obtain the largest possible bid.

The Court further finds that the total of the bids of the assets offered separately amounted to $1,681.00, the total of the assets offered in groups amounted to $1,800.00; that the total of the assets as a whole was $1,900.00, submitted by S. S. Mathis of Fairfax, Oklahoma for cash and subject to confirmation of the Comptroller of the Currency and by this court.

The Court further finds that the schedule here set out in this decree is a full, true and complete schedule of the assets of the First National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma, sold as aforesaid and that it

And the Court further finds that the Receiver of the First National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma has practically completed the process of administration of said trust in that the same has been in process of liquidation for more than four years last past; that he has administered said trust to the point where it is difficult to make further substantial collections or realize any appreciable sum from the remaining assets in his hands as such receiver; that heretofore on July 15, 1936 the receiver submitted to the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States an itemized list of the remaining assets of his said trust which included all of the assets held by him on that date and it includes all of the assets of said trust at this time save and except some miscellaneous collections made by the receiver and some compromises and compounding of doubtful debts, all of which have been reported to and approved by the Comptroller of the Currency and which have been submitted to and approved by this court, and in said report said receiver recommended to the Comptroller of the Currency the final liquidation of the remaining assets of said trust.

The court further finds that pursuant to the above letter that the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States authorized and directed said receiver by the Comptroller's certain office letter of July 30, 1936 to offer for sale and sell all the remaining assets of said trust, save and except one certain cause of action pending in this court in case No. 2190 Law, wherein the receiver was plaintiff and Maryland Casualty Company was defendant and which has been reduced to judgment in favor of said trust and is now in process of being appealed by the defendant in said cause.

The court further finds that pursuant to the authority of the Comptroller of the Currency in his letter of July 30, 1936, a copy of which is attached to the receiver's petition in this cause as Exhibit B, and in obedience to the instructions therein contained the receiver duly advertised by public notice published in the Fairfax Chief, a newspaper printed and published in the town of Fairfax, where the place of business of includes all of the remaining assets of said trust not heretofore disposed of by the receiver by authority of the Comptroller and by confirmation of this court.

The court further finds that the bid of S. S. Mathis was the highest and best bid for said assets and the said bid of $1,900.00 was the highest and best bid offered at said public sale; that said sale was publicly, impartially and fairly conducted by the said receiver; that every opportunity was given to prospective bidders and purchasers to bid on said assets and that said bid of S. S. Mathis was not accepted until all other bidders present had declined to bid further or any higher or greater sum, and the court further finds that the said bid of S. S. Mathis represents the fair and reasonable market value of all of said remaining assets as hereinbefore set forth in the schedule.

The court further finds that after the consummation of said sale as aforesaid the receiver on September 11, 1936 reported said sale in detail to the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States for his consideration and action thereon and the Comptroller of the Currency under date of September 19, 1936 approved said sale and authorized your receiver to petition this court for an order ratifying, approving and confirming the sale as made, it being expressly understood that said sale did not include the claim asserted by the trust against the Maryland Casualty Company in the amount of $4,200.00 and as embraced by the suit filed in this court, No. 2190 Law, and which claim is not included in the schedule of assets so sold, and thereupon upon consideration of said report of said receiver, the approval of said sale by the Comptroller of the Currency and upon an examination of the schedule of said assets, and being fully advised in the premises, the court finds that said sale should in all things be approved, ratified and confirmed, and IT IS BY THE COURT DULY CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the public sale of all of the remaining assets of the First National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma as made by said receiver on September 10, 1936 to S. S. Mathis upon his bid in the sum of $1,900.00 be and the same is hereby approved, ratified and confirmed and the receiver, Jerome G. Jeehan, be and he is hereby authorized and directed to make due and proper endorsements, assignments and conveyances of all of said assets so sold to the purchaser, S. S. Mathis, without recourse and without warranty of any kind or character.

The court further finds that the petition of the receiver under instructions of the Comptroller of the Currency prays that he be authorized by this court to destroy all of the books and records of the First National Bank of Fairfax which in the opinion of the Comptroller of the Currency no longer have any use or value but which constitute useless records which would have to be stored or kept by the Comptroller of his agent at manifest cost to this trust and the court upon consideration of said petition finds that the same should be granted, and IT IS ORDERED that the receiver under direction and by authority of the Comptroller of the Currency be and he is hereby authorized to destroy by burning all of the obsolete, useless and valueless books and records of the First National Bank of Fairfax, Oklahoma whenever directed to do so by the Comptroller of the Currency, but said receiver will not destroy any of the books or records of the receivership.
