ORDER NUNC PRO TUNC

Now on this 5th day of November, 1938, the above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing upon the motion filed herein by Sam F. Wilkinson as receiver, successor to L. R. Kershaw as receiver of The Producers National Bank of Tulsa, Oklahoma, for an order nunc pro tunc, correcting the amount for which judgment was rendered in this cause March 11, 1938; the judgment creditor appearing by his counsel of record, and no one appearing for the defendant or in opposition to the granting of said motion, and after hearing the evidence offered in support thereof and being fully advised in the premises, the court finds:

That all of the allegations in the motion are true and that the motion should be granted; that due to an inadvertency and clerical error, the judgment of this court herein rendered March 11, 1938, should be corrected to speak the truth and to show that the judgment rendered should have been and was for the sum of $300.00 with interest thereon at 6% per annum from September 17, 1932, and the costs of this action, instead of for $2200.00, with interest and costs of this action; and that said judgment should be corrected nunc pro tunc.

It is FURTHER ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the judgment heretofore rendered in this cause in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant on March 11, 1938, be and the same hereby is corrected to show and be a judgment against the defendant and in favor of the plaintiff for $300.00 with interest thereon at 6% per annum from September 17, 1932, until said, and for the costs of this action, and that said judgment and order be and the same hereby are made and entered now as for then, the date of said judgment, March 11, 1938.

It is FURTHER ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that Sam F. Wilkinson as receiver of The Producers National Bank of Tulsa, Oklahoma, be and he hereby is substituted as said receiver plaintiff for said national banking association, in the name, place and stead of L. R. Kershaw, the former receiver of said association.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT.

Now on this 10th day of November, 1936, same being a day of the Special March, 1936, term of this court, the above entitled cause having come on for hearing on the 14th day of October, 1936, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, L. L. Roberts, and the defendant, United States of America, appearing by Daniel Dillon, attorney for the Bureau of War Risk Insurance Litigation, and Chester A. Brewer, Assistant United States Attorney for the Northern District of Oklahoma, and upon said cause being called both parties announced ready for trial, and a jury having been waived, said cause was submitted to the Court.

After the close of all testimony in behalf of the plaintiff the defendant moved the Court for a verdict, on the grounds that the evidence was not sufficient to justify a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. Said motion was overruled by the Court, and exceptions allowed.

Thereafter, the defendant introduced its testimony, and at the close of all testimony in said cause the plaintiff moved the Court to return a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, and the defendant moved the Court to return a verdict in its favor for the reason that under all the evidence adduced at the trial of said cause, and the law involved herein, plaintiff was not entitled to recover the amount sued for, nor any other amount from the defendant.

Thereafter, said cause was argued by counsel, and the Court continued said cause for further hearing on the 20th day of October, 1936. That on said 20th day of October, 1936, said cause came on for further hearing, and plaintiff introduced his testimony and rested; and the defendant introduced its testimony and rested; and each party renewed its respective motion for judgment.

Thereupon, the Court found in favor of the plaintiff, Melvin Day, and against the defendant, United States of America.

Thereafter, the court instructed each party to file a brief in support of its contention, and upon consideration of the evidence adduced in said cause, and the briefs of the parties, the Court finds that the plaintiff, Melvin Day was totally and permanently disabled in the year 1925, but that by reason of the work record of said plaintiff, Melvin Day, during the years 1921, 1922 and 1923, and the lack of evidence, medical and lay, that the physical condition of this plaintiff at the time the policy herein sued upon lapsed for the non-payment of premiums due, was such as to render him totally and permanently disabled, the said Melvin Day was not totally and permanently disabled on the date on which said war risk insurance policy sued on herein lapsed for non-payment of premiums, on June 1, 1919.

IT IS THEREFORE THE JUDGMENT of the Court that the plaintiff, Melvin Day, recover nothing in this cause of action, and that the costs of said action be taxed against the plaintiff, Melvin Day, to which judgment of the Court plaintiff excepts, and exceptions are allowed.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT.

Now, on this 29th day of December, 1936, this cause comes on for trial by regular assignment on the trial docket before Honorable Franklin E. Kennamer, Judge of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma, and said Court being regularly and legally in session; whereupon, appearance is made by plaintiff in person and by his attorney, Benj. E. Cook, and the defendant appearing by Chester A. Brewer, Assistant United States District Attorney for the Northern District of Oklahoma, and, Daniel Dillon, Attorney for the Bureau of War Risk Litigation, United States Department of Justice, and both plaintiff and defendant having heretofore made their written waiver of jury in this cause and consented to try said cause to the Court without a jury, and both the plaintiff and defendant, on said case being called for trial, having announced in open Court ready for trial; whereupon, the plaintiff introduced his evidence of witnesses sworn and examined in open Court and his documentary evidence and rested, and thereupon, the defendant offered its demurrer to the evidence and to the jurisdiction of the Court, and moved for judgment; and the Court after due consideration, having overruled said motion and demurrer allowed defendant exceptions; whereupon the defendant introduced its testimony of witnesses sworn and examined in open Court and of documentary evidence and rested; and thereafter both litigants having made a motion for judgment to the Court, the Court hears the argument of Counsel in said cause.

And thereafter, on said date, the Court being fully advised in the premises and on the law, and facts as disclosed by the testimony, overrules the defendant's Motion for Judgment and sustains the plaintiff's Motion for Judgment, to which ruling and order of the Court, the defendant excepts and exceptions are by the Court allowed.

The Court, in consideration of said cause, finds that F. J. Brink, on October 24, 1933, was, by the County Court of Delaware County, appointed guardian of Opha L. Logan, an incompetent, and that the said F. J. Brink is, at this time, the duly qualified and acting guardian of said Opha L. Logan. That the said F. J. Brink and Opha L. Logan are citizens and residents of Delaware County, Oklahoma, and within the Northern Judicial District of Oklahoma; that the said Opha L. Logan was sworn into and became a member of the United States military forces on September 20, 1917, and that he was honorably discharged as a soldier of the United States Army on February 27, 1918. That the said Opha L. Logan applied for and there was granted to him War Risk Insurance in the principal sum of $5,000.00; that at the time said insurance contract became effective, the said Opha L. Logan was not permanently and totally disabled; that premiums were paid on said insurance policy through the month of March, 1918, which together with the grace period continued said insurance policy in force to and including the first day of May, 1918. The Court further finds that the said Opha L. Logan became permanently and totally disabled on the 27th day of February, 1918, and has been so disabled to this date.

The Court further finds that at the time said permanent and total disability originated, the said War Risk Insurance Policy was in full force and effect, and that by virtue of the terms and conditions thereof, the said Opha L. Logan became, and now is, entitled to the payments provided by said policy in the sum of twenty-eight & 75/100 dollars ($28.75) per month from and after the 27th day of February, 1918, and continuing so long as he shall live and continue so disabled.

The Court further finds that claim for said insurance was duly made to the United States Veterans' Administration as required by law, and that said Veterans' Administration refused payment of said insurance and that at the time this suit was instituted, a disagreement concerning the same existed, and jurisdiction was vested in this Court to try this case.

The Court further finds that Benj. E. Cook, a duly licensed and practicing attorney, has been duly employed by the plaintiff herein to represent him in this cause, and that he has filed and prosecuted this action on behalf of the plaintiff and is entitled to have allowed and paid to him, as provided by law, for his services in this behalf, ten (10%) per cent of the amount awarded to the plaintiff under the terms of this judgment.

IT IS THEREFORE THE ORDER, JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF THE COURT that the plaintiff,

B. J. Brink, as guardian of Opha L. Logan, an incompetent, have and recover of and from the defendant, the United States of America, the sum of $28.75 per month from and after the 27th day of February, 1918, and to the date of this judgment, as provided by the World War Veterans' Act as amended.

IT IS THE FURTHER ORDER AND JUDGMENT OF THE COURT that of the moneys herein awarded to the plaintiff there shall be paid to the said Benj. E. Cook, as attorney for the plaintiff, an attorney fee in said cause of ten (10%) per cent of the amount of this judgment, by the Veterans' Administration on said insurance as a result of this judgment, said amount to be paid to said attorney as provided by law.

To all of which verdict and judgment the defendant excepts, and its exceptions are allowed.
