IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA.

Eva Morrow, Guardian of Daniel H.
Brentes, Incompetent, Plaintiff, vs.

United States of America, Defendant.

No. 2392 Law.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Now, on this 21st day of September, 1937, this cause came on for trial by regular assignment on the trial docket before Honorable Franklin E. Kennamer, Judge of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma, and said court being regularly and legally in session; whereupon, appearance is made by plaintiff in person and by her attorney, Benj. E. Cook, and defendant appearing by Chester A. Brewer, Assistant United States District Attorney of the Northern District of Oklahoma, and Daniel Dillon, Attorney for the Bureau of War Risk Litigation, United States Department of Justice, and both plaintiff and defendant having heretofore made their written waiver of jury in this case and consented to try said cause to the Court without a jury, and both the plaintiff and defendant, on said cause being called for trial, having announced in open court ready for trial; whereupon, plaintiff introduced her evidence of witnesses sworn and examined in open court and her documentary evidence and rested; and thereupon, defendant offered its demurrer to the evidence and to the jurisdiction of the court and moved for judgment; and the Court, after due consideration having overruled said motion and demurrer, allowed defendant exceptions; whereupon, defendant introduced its testimony of witnesses sworn and examined in open court and of documentary evidence, and rested; and thereafter the plaintiff made a motion for judgment to the Court; and the defendant renewed its demurrer to the jurisdiction of the court and moved for judgment; the Court hears the argument of counsel in said cause and after being fully advised in the premises as disclosed by the testimony, the Court overrules defendant's motion for judgment and to the jurisdiction of the court, and sustains the plaintiff's motion for judgment, to which ruling and order of the Court, the defendant excepts and exceptions are by the Court allowed.

The Court, in consideration of said cause, finds that Eva Morrow, on December 30, 1931, was, by the County Court of Osage County, Oklahoma, appointed guardian of Daniel H. Brentes, an incompetent, and that the said Eva Morrow is, at this time, the duly qualified and acting guardian of the said Daniel H. Brentes. That the said Eva Morrow and Daniel H. Brentes are citizens and residents of Osage County, Oklahoma, and within the Northern District of Oklahoma; that the said Daniel H. Brentes was sworn into and became a member of the United States military forces on October 3, 1917, and that he was honorable discharged as a soldier in the United States Army on April 28, 1919. That the said Daniel H. Brentes applied for and there was granted to him War Risk Term insurance in the principal sum of $10,000.00; that the premiums on said insurance were paid through the month of April, 1919, which, together with the grace period, continued said insurance policy in force to and including the 1st day of May, 1919. The Court further finds that the said Daniel H. Brentes, as the result of dementia praecox, became permanently totally disabled on the 25th day of April, 1919, and has been so disabled to this date.

The Court further finds that at the time of said permanent total disability, said War Risk insurance policy was in force and effect, and by the terms and conditions thereof said Daniel H. Brentes became, and now is, entitled to payments provided by said policy in the sum of Fifty seven and 50/100 dollars ($57.50) per month from and after the 25th day of April, 1919.

The Court further finds that claim for said insurance was duly made with the United States Veterans' Administration as required by law and that said Veterans' Administration refused payment of said insurance, and that at the time this suit was instituted, a disagreement concerning the same existed and jurisdiction was vested in this Court to try said case.

The Court further finds that Benj. E. Cook, a duly licensed and practicing attorney has been duly employed by the plaintiff herein to represent her in this cause, and that he has filed and prosecuted this action on behalf of the plaintiff and is entitled to have allowed and paid to him, as provided by law, for his services in this behalf, ten (10%) per cent of the amount awarded to the plaintiff under the terms of this judgment.

IT IS THEREFORE THE ORDER, JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF THE COURT that the plaintiff, Eva Morrow, as guardian of Daniel H. Brentes, an incompetent, have and recover of and from the defendant, the United States of America, the sum of $57.50 per month from and after the 25th day of April, 1919, and to the date of this judgment, as provided by the World War Veterans' Act as amended.

IT IS THE FURTHER ORDER AND JUDGMENT OF THE COURT that of the moneys herein awarded to the plaintiff, there shall be paid to the said Benj. E. Cook, as attorney for the plaintiff, an attorney fee in said cause of ten (10%) per cent of the amount of this judgment, by the Veterans' Administration on said insurance as a result of this judgment, said amount to be paid to said attorney as provided by law.

To all of which verdict and judgment the defendant excepts, and its exceptions are allowed.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES IN AND FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

ORDER FOR ADDITIONAL GRAND JURORS

On this the 4th day of October, A. D. 1937, it appearing to the Court that the Regular Grand Jury panel is insufficient on account of illness and non-service of the regular Venire, a special Venire Facias should issue.

April, 1937, and was not at the time the claim for insurance benefits was filed herein, the Administrator of the estate of Lucy McNack.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

1st. The Court holds as a matter of law, that this action could be maintained only by the administrator of Eli Kay and the administrator of Lucy McNack, and concludes that as no claim had been filed for insurance benefits as provided by law by the administrator of Eli Kay and the administrator of Lucy McNack and a disagreement had thereon, the plaintiff cannot recover notwithstanding the fact that a claim had been made for insurance benefits under said policy by Rhoda Johnson, Willie Kay, Chisso Kay, Betsy Hardridge, and Sam Johnson as the executor of the estate of Eli Kay, who were the heirs and only heirs of Eli Kay and Lucy McNack and were entitled ultimately to the proceeds of said insurance policy, and a disagreement had been issued thereon.

The Court therefore concludes that the action by Rhoda Johnson and Sam Johnson, executor of the estate of Eli Kay, deceased, should be dismissed, to which these plaintiffs except.

2. As to the plaintiff, L. E. Hardridge, administrator of the estate of Lucy McNack, the Court finds that no claim for insurance benefits under the policy issued to Eli Kay, had been made either by L. E. Hardridge as administrator, or by Lucy McNack during her lifetime and the Court concludes for this reason as to this plaintiff, the action is barred by the Statute of Limitations and that this plaintiff cannot recover for the further reason that no claim had been filed and disagreement had thereon as required by law. The Court holds that the action by this plaintiff should be dismissed. The Plaintiff, L. E. Hardridge, excepts.

The Court therefore Orders and Decrees that the motion of the defendant for judgment be and the same is hereby sustained and further Orders and Decrees that the plaintiff have and recover nothing by reason of this action as against the defendant, to which the plaintiffs except.

One Ford Coupe Automobile, Motor Number
18-2874567, 1936 Model, Frank Sappington,
Edna Mae Sappington and Interstate Securities
Company, incorporation, Defendants.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

On this 25th day of October, 1937, this matter comes on for trial upon the petition of the United States of America praying for forfeiture of the following described personal property, to-wit:

One 1936 Ford Coupe automobile, Motor number : 18--2874567

by reason of the use of said automobile in violation of the Internal Revenue Laws of the United States relating to untax paid intoxicating liquor; the Government appearing by Joe A. Howard, and Paul Sims, Assistant United States Attorneys; the Owner thereof, Edna Mae Sappington, although having filed her general appearance, appears not and makes default at this hearing and the Interstate Securities Company appears by it's attorneys, Ownby & Warren, and the court, having heard the evidence of plaintiff and the evidence offered by said Interstate Securities Company, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that the United States of America is entitled to a forfeiture of all the right, interest or claim to said automobile that the said Edna Mae Sappington may have.

The Court further finds that the Interstate Securities Company has filed it's petition herein praying for a remission and mitigation of such forfeiture and the Court further finds that the allegations of such petition are true, and that the Interstate Securities Company has a first and valid lien against said automobile by reason of a chattel mortgage in the principal sum of $108.86, with attorney's fees in the sum of $25.00.

The Court further finds that said Interstate Securities Company acquired said mortgage and it's interest and lien upon said automobile in good faith and that it, at no time, had any knowledge or reason to believe that said automobile was being, or would be, used in the violation of the laws of the United States.

The Court further finds that there is an equity in said automobile in excess of the lien and claim of said Interstate Securities Company and that said Interstate Securities Company should pay to the Clerk of this Court the value of such excess in the sum of $210.00, which sum should be used; First, to pay the costs of this action, the balance to be remitted, as provided by law, and that upon payment of said sum that said Interstate Securities Company is entitled to a return of such automobile.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that a forfeiture of the above described automobile be, and the same is hereby adjudged insofar as the interest and claims of said Elma Mae Saupinton are concerned.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the petition of Interstate Securities Company for the revision and mitigation of such forfeiture be, and the same is hereby allowed upon condition that said Interstate Securities Company pay to the Clerk of this Court the sum of $210.00 and pay the costs of storage against said automobile and that upon the payment of said sum of $210.00 and storage charges, the United States Marshal for this District is hereby ordered and directed to deliver possession of said automobile to said Interstate Securities Company.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that said sum of $210.00 be first applied to the payment of the costs accrued and accruing in this action and any other lawful charges against said automobile, the balance, if any, to be applied, as required by law.
