JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT.

Now on this 13th day of October, 1936, same being a day of the Special March 1936, term of this Court, the above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, J. M. Hill and Heber Finch, and the defendant, United States of America, appearing by Daniel Dillon, Attorney for the Bureau of War Risk Litigation, and Chester A. Brewer, Assistant United States Attorney for the Northern District of Oklahoma, and upon said cause being called both parties announced ready for trial, and a jury was duly empaneled and sworn to try said cause.

After the close of all testimony on behalf of the plaintiff the defendant moved the Court for a verdict on the ground that the evidence was not sufficient to justify a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. Said motion was by the Court overruled and exceptions allowed.

Thereafter, the defendant introduced its testimony, and at the close of all the testimony in said cause the defendant moved the Court to direct the jury to return a verdict in favor of the defendant, for the reason that under all the evidence adduced at the trial of said cause and the law involved therein, plaintiff was not entitled to recover the amount sued for, or any other amount from the defendant.

The Court, after hearing the argument of counsel for the plaintiff and defendant, found that said motion for a directed verdict in favor of the defendant, should be sustained.

IT IS THEREFOR ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that said motion for a directed verdict in favor of the defendant against the plaintiff, be, and the same hereby is sustained, to which ruling of the Court plaintiff excepts, and exceptions are allowed.

IT IS THE FURTHER ORDER of the Court that the costs of this action be taxed against the plaintiff.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

NOW on this 18th day of January, 1937, the above cause comes on for trial, plaintiff appears in person and by his attorneys, Yancey & Spillers and T. Austin Gavin, and defendant appears by his attorneys, Duff & Manatt.

Thereupon the plaintiff announced ready for trial and the defendant, H. L.

Standeven, announces ready for trial. A jury is empanelled, sworn and accepted to try the issues in said cause and the plaintiff introduces his evidence and rests, and at the conclusion of the plaintiff's evidence the defendant, H. L. Standeven, demurs to the evidence of the plaintiff upon two grounds:

First. Because the plaintiff had not proven facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action against said defendant; and Second. Upon the specific ground that the plaintiff's cause of action is barred by the Statute of Limitations.

Counsel for defendant presented his argument in support of said demurrers and counsel for plaintiff argues the case for the plaintiff, and the court having heard all the argument offered by counsel for both parties and being fully advised in the premises, finds:

1. That said general demurrer should be sustained because the facts proven by the plaintiff do not warrant a recovery against the defendant, to which the plaintiff excepts; and

2. That plaintiff's alleged cause of action is barred by the Statute of Limitations and defendant's demurrer should be sustained on that specific ground, to which the plaintiff excepts.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the court that said general demurrer be and the same is hereby sustained, to which the plaintiff excepts.

Thereupon, the court calls the jury and instructs the jury to return a verdict in favor of the defendant and the jury, in obedience to such instruction, returns its verdict for the defendant, to which the plaintiff excepts.

IT IS, THEREFORE, CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the verdict of the jury be and the same is hereby approved, to which the plaintiff excepts.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the court that the cause of action of the plaintiff be and the same is hereby dismissed, and a judgment is hereby entered in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff for costs, to which the plaintiff excepts; all of which said exceptions are hereby allowed.

U. S. District Court EA

Court adjourned to February 1, 1937.

the law, and facts as disclosed by the testimony, overruled the defendant's Motion for Judgment and defendant's Motion to Dismiss, and sustains the plaintiff's Motion for Judgment, to which rulings and orders of the Court the defendant excepts and exceptions are by the Court allowed.

The Court, in consideration of said cause, finds that Harvey Daley Rowe enlisted in the United States Army on the 31st day of August, 1918 and was honorably discharged from said military service January 21, 1919; that while in said military service, said Harvey Daley Rowe, applied for and was granted a war risk term insurance policy in the principal sum of $10,000; that at the time of plaintiff's honorable discharge from said United States Army on January 21, 1919, said Harvey Daley Rowe was permanently and totally disabled and that said Harvey Daley Rowe was permanently and totally disabled and that said Harvey Daley Rowe died on September 25, 1921; that the said insurance policy by payment of premiums was in full force and effect to and including March 1, 1919 and that by virtue of the terms and conditions of said policy it matured on January 21, 1919 and became payable to the said Harvey Daley Rowe in the sum of $57.50 per month from and after the 21st day of January, 1919.

The Court further finds that claim for said insurance was duly made in the United States Veterans' Administration as required by law and that said claim was denied; and that at the time suit was instituted, a disagreement existed between the plaintiff and defendant; and that jurisdiction was thereby vested in this Court to try this cause;

The Court further finds that Delila Rowe, the mother of the deceased Harvey Daley Rowe, was designated by him as beneficiary of said insurance; and that Delila Rowe died a resident of Craig County, Oklahoma, subsequent to the death of Harvey Daley Rowe on the 6th day of December, 1935.

The Court further finds that W. F. Reynolds was by the County Court of Craig County, Oklahoma, appointed administrator of the estates of Harvey Daley Rowe and Delila Rowe and that said W. H. Reynolds at the institution of this suit was the duly qualified and acting administrator of said estates.

The Court further finds that for the purposes of prosecuting this suit, plaintiff has employed L. L. Roberts and Benjamin E. Cook, licensed and practicing attorneys in the State of Oklahoma; and that said attorneys have prosecuted this action on behalf of said plaintiff for which services the plaintiff agreed to pay said attorneys ten per cent (10%) of any award to be made under the terms of said insurance contract, which said sum the Court finds to be a reasonable attorney's fee in this case.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that this Plaintiff as administrator of the estate of the deceased veteran, Harvey Daley Rowe, recover from the defendant herein in accordance with the terms of said war risk term insurance contract, the proceeds of said insurance payable at the rate of $57.50 per month from January 21, 1919 to the date of the death of the insured, to-wit, September 21, 1921; that the amounts which would have been paid to the beneficiary named in the insurance policy from and after September 21, 1921, date of insured's death, until December 6, 1935, date of death of said designated beneficiary; Delila Rowe, shall be paid to this plaintiff as administrator of the estate of the deceased beneficiary; and that the balance of the proceeds of said insurance shall be paid to this plaintiff as administrator of the estate of the deceased veteran.

IT IS THE FURTHER ORDER OF THE COURT that out of the moneys herein awarded under the foregoing contract which shall be paid by virtue of this judgment, L. L. Roberts and Benjamin E. Cook, attorneys for plaintiff, are hereby allowed ten per cent (10%) as reasonable attorney's fees.

To all of which findings and orders of the Court, defendant prays and is granted exceptions.

vs.) No. 2453 LAW.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Now, on this 12 day of April, 1937, this cause comes on for hearing upon its merits; plaintiff appeared in person and by her counsel Z. W. Dickerson, and the defendant appeared by its counsel, Hudson & Hudson, of Tulsa; and both parties having announced ready for trial, and having waived a jury, the court proceeded to the trial of said cause.

The plaintiff then introduced her evidence and rested, and the court being fully advised in the premises, upon consideration thereof, find:

1. That Albert Kirk, plaintiff's decedent, died on the 23th day of September, 1936; that he left surviving him as his heirs at law and next of kin his widow, Fannie Kirk, and five children, namely, Thomas Kirk, son, age 17, Lois Kirk, daughter, age 15, Albert Kirk, Jr., son, age 10, Elbert Kirk, son age 8, and Freddie Kirk, son, age 2. That the said Albert Kirk, died intestate.

2. That the plaintiff, Fannie Kirk, was appointed administratrix of the estate of said Albert Kirk on the 6th day of April, 1937, and as such administratrix was substituted as plaintiff herein on said date. That plaintiff, Fannie Kirk, administratrix maintains this action for the benefit of herself and the above named minor children.

3. The court further finds from the testimony that plaintiff is entitled to recover of and from the defendant on her first cause of action, for wrongful death, the sum of five hundred ($500.00) dollars and costs.

4. The court further finds from the testimony that plaintiff is entitled to recover of and from the defendant on her second cause of action, for conscious pain and suffering, the sum of one-hundred ($100.00) dollars, and costs.

5. The court finds that the said sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, when so paid, shall constitute a trust fund for the benefit of the said Fannie Kirk, as widow, and for the benefit of said minor children of said deceased. And the court finds that by reason of the trust character of said judgment on her first cause of action, monies paid in payment of said $500.00 judgment are not properly a part of the estate of said deceased and are not subject to administration.

6. The court further finds that the monies paid and received in payment of judgment on plaintiff's second cause of action for $100.00, are a part of estate of said deceased and are to be received and accounted for to the County Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, to be disbursed as that court may direct.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, by this court, that the plaintiff, Fannie Kirk, administratrix of the estate of Albert Kirk, deceased, have and recover from the defendant Consolidated Construction Company, a corporation, the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars on her first cause of action herein and the further sum of One Hundred ($100.00) dollars on her second cause of action, together with the costs of this action, to which her execution

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the clerk file and enter any satisfaction of judgment herein tendered for filing by plaintiff or defendant, showing the payment of six hundred ($600.00) dollars, as aforesaid, after the costs of this action have been paid.
