NOBLE C. HOOD
Clerk U. S. District Court

O R D E R

This matter coming on for hearing this 1st day of September, 1950, upon the defendant, Vernie M. Hudgins' motion to vacate judgment and the court being fully advised in the premises finds that on the 19th day of January, 1939, the grand jury for the Northern District of Oklahoma returned an indictment against this applicant and a co-defendant, Clyde Lindsay, charging in the first count that said defendants unlawfully transported from New Mexico to Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, a certain motor vehicle, knowing the same to have been stolen and, in the second count, said defendants were charged with receiving, concealing and storing said motor vehicle.

The court further finds that the defendant was represented by counsel and on the 25th day of January, 1939, entered a plea of not guilty and that on the 9th day of February, 1939, his case was tried to a jury, he at that time being represented by counsel of his own choice and the jury returned a verdict finding him guilty on both counts of the indictment and he was thereupon sentenced by the court to five years on each count, to run consecutively. Thereafter a motion for new trial was filed, which was overruled. No appeal was taken from said conviction.

The court further finds that petitioner, in his motion to vacate judgment, bottoms his motion upon two grounds, one that the evidence was insufficient for the jury to return a verdict. The court finds that that is a matter which should have been presented on appeal and is not a matter which the court may consider upon a motion to vacate; two, that the indictment is insufficient to charge a crime against this defendant as to count one and count two. The court finds that the defendant was found guilty of transporting a stolen automobile in interstate commerce, contrary to the acts of Congress relating thereto on count one and, on count two, of concealing said automobile after transporting it to Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The court further finds that the indictment alleges two separate and distinct offenses and is sufficient.

The court further finds that this defendant's co-defendant, Clyde Lindsay, appealed from the sentence entered against him and that the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit affirmed said conviction and in affirming said conviction necessarily found that the indictment did sufficiently allege a violation of the laws of the United States. Said opinion of the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit is reported in Lindsay v. United States, 134 F. 2d 960.

The court thereupon finds that there is no merit to the contentions of the defendant, as contained in his motion to vacate sentence and that said motion should be overruled.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the motion of the defendant, Vernie M. Hudgins, to vacate the judgment and sentence entered in this cause on the 9th day of February, 1939, be and the same hereby is overruled and denied.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
