vs.

United States of America,

Respondent.

Criminal No. 12510

ORDER

I.

NOBLE C. HOOD
Clerk, U. S. District Court

The court does not have jurisdiction to consider the petition filed by the defendant, Ross F. Ray, for a writ of habeas corpus because the defendant is not presently within the jurisdiction of this court; however, the court has jurisdiction to consider said petition as a Motion to Vacate Sentence pursuant to the provision of Title 28, U.S.C.A., Section 2255, by virtue of the fact that sentence was imposed by this court, and leave to file in Forma Pauperis is granted.

II.

The court, having considered this date the Motion to Vacate Sentence, the United States of America being represented by James L. Burton, Assistant United States Attorney, and the defendant not being present, and the court being advised in the premises and having examined the motion and the files and records of the case, finds that the files and records of the case conclusively show that defendant is entitled to no relief for the following reasons:

On the 16th day of November, 1959, probation jurisdiction of the defendant was ordered transferred to the Northern District Oklahoma, which accepted jurisdiction over defendant on November 21, 1956.

On the 19th day of December, 1956, the attorney for the government and the defendant, Ross F. Ray, appeared in person and by his counsel, Frank M. Rowell, Jr., and it was shown to the court that the defendant had violated, among others, the following general condition of his probation order:

"(a) Refrain from the violation of any State and Federal penal laws," in that on or about October 25, 1956, at Vinita, Oklahoma, defendant entered a plea of guilty to a charge of public drunkenness, was convicted of said charge, fined and also given a fifteen-day jail sentence.

The grounds for relief set forth in defendant's motion that his probation was revoked in contravention to his rights as guaranteed by the 4th and 14th Amendments to the United States Constitution because such revocation was based on evidence secured by State law enforcement authorities by illegal and unconstitutional methods is without foundation by virtue of the fact the evidence before the court concerning the above mentioned probation violation was the admission at the revocation hearing by the defendant, through his counsel, that the defendant had been convicted of the above mentioned violation in Vinita, Oklahoma.

Furthermore, the rules of evidence excluding otherwise legally relevant evidence applicable in a trial hearing are inapplicable in a hearing to revoke probation.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Motion to Vacate Sentence be and is hereby denied.

Dated this 30th day of September, 1960.

ORDER

I.

The court does not have jurisdiction to consider the motion filed by the defendant, James Bennie Wright, as a writ of habeas corpus because the defendant is not presently within the jurisdiction of this court; however, the court has jurisdiction to consider said motion as a Motion to Vacate Sentence pursuant to the provision of Title 28, U.S.C.A., Section 2255, by virtue of the fact that sentence was imposed by this court, and leave to file in Forma Pauperis is granted.

II.

The court, having considered this date the Motion to Vacate Sentence, the United States of America being represented by James L. Burton, Assistant United States Attorney, and the defendant not being present, and the court being advised in the premises and having examined the motion finds that it conclusively appears on the face of the motion as a matter of law that defendant is entitled to no relief because nowhere in the motion does defendant allege the sentence imposed by this court is in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States, or that the court was without jurisdiction to impose such sentence, or that the sentence was in excess of the maximum authorized by law, or is otherwise subject to collateral attack.

This court is without jurisdiction to review official acts effecting the sentence imposed by this court when such acts take place wholly outside the Northern Judicial District of Oklahoma.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Motion For Order of Discharge this day filed by defendant, James Bennie Wright, be and the same
