United States of America,

vs.
Calvin Fennell,
Defendant.

Criminal No. 13631

Clerk, U. S. District Court

This matter coming on before me, the undersigned Judge, this 1st day of June, 1962, upon the motions of Calvin Fennell for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, for appointment of counsel, for a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum, and to vacate sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 2255, and the Court having examined said motions and the files and records in this cause, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds:

That heretofore, on the 30th day of August, 1961, said movant filed a similar motion to vacate sentence. That at that time he was granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis, counsel was appointed to represent him, and he was returned from the United States Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, to Tulsa, Oklahoma, to testify on his own behalf in support of his motion. That a full and complete hearing was held on said motion before the Honorable Royce H. Savage and that on the 11th day of October, 1961, an order was entered overruling and denying said motion.

That on the 18th day of October, 1961, said movant filed a petition for rehearing and also an application for leave to appeal in forma pauperis. On the 19th day of October, 1961, the petition for rehearing was overruled and the movant was denied leave to appeal in forma pauperis, the Court certifying that an appeal could not be taken in good faith.

That on the 18th day of December, 1961, said movant was granted leave to appeal in forma pauperis by the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit. That on the 12th day of March, 1962, an opinion was filed in the Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit in which the Court dismissed the appeal and denied the appellant leave to proceed further in forma pauperis, holding that the evidence amply supported the Trial Court's decision and that the ap-pellant's contentions were frivolous.

That the present motion to vacate sentence which the movant seeks to file in forma pauperis is a second or successive motion for similar relief which the Court is not required to entertain pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 2255. That the movant raises no new substantial issues not covered by the prior motion, hearing, and order, and therefore said movant's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis should be denied.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the motion of Calvin Fennell for leave to proceed in forma pauperis be and it hereby is denied.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

United States of America,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Criminal No. 13610

Jack Leonard Britt,

Defendant.

AUG 17 1962

NOBLE C. HOOD
Clerk, U. S. District Court

This matter coming on before me, the undersigned Judge, this 17 day of August, 1962, upon the application of the defendant, Jack Leonard Britt, for leave to file in forma pauperis a pleading denominated "Petition for the Writ of Habeas Corpus" which the court will and hereby does treat as a motion to vacate sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C., 2255, and upon said motion <sup>AND</sup> the court having examined the same and having carefully reviewed and examined the files and records in the above styled and numbered cause, and being fully advised in the premises finds:

That the petitioner, Jack Leonard Britt, should be granted leave to file in forma pauperis his motion to vacate sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
2255.

That the files and records in this case, and particularly the transcript of the proceedings had when petitioner entered his plea and was sentenced, clearly negate petitioner's contention that petitioner's plea of guilty was entered without his consent by his court appointed counsel and was not in fact his free and voluntary plea to the charge against him for the reason that the transcript of the proceedings at that time shows that after defendant's attorney entered a plea of guilty on his behalf the court inquired of the petitioner whether it was his desire to enter a plea of guilty to which inquiry the petitioner replied in the affirmative.

That the fact that petitioner was not personally asked if he wished to say anything in his own behalf or in mitigation of punishment as required by Rule 32(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure is not an issue cognizable in a motion to vacate sentence under 28 U.S.C. 2255 as set forth in Hill v. United States, 368 U. S. 424, and there are no circumstances or facts in this case which would remove it from the rule laid down in Hill v. United States, supra.

That under the decision of Hill v. United States, supra, the petitioner is likewise not entitled to any relief should his motion be treated as one to correct an illegal sentence pursuant to Rule 35, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

That the other contentions raised by petitioner are clearly frivolous and without merit. He received but one sentence for the offense with which he was charged and was not sentenced twice for the same crime. That the punishment imposed was neither cruel nor unusual and was a valid sentence in all respects, having been authorized by applicable statutes themselves unquestionably valid.

For all the foregoing reasons, the files and records in this cause clearly reflect that the issues raised by the petitioner are wholly without merit and that he is entitled to no relief. That therefore his motion should be denied.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Jack Leonard Britt be and he hereby is granted leave to file in forma pauperis his motion to vacate sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 2255.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the motion of Jack Leonard Britt to vacate sentence be and it hereby is overruled and denied.
