NOBLE C. HOOD

This matter coming on before me, the undersigned Judge, upon the Notice of Appeal and Motion to Appeal in Forma Pauperis filed herein by the defendant, Herbert Hoover Grissom, on the 11th day of January, 1962, and the court having considered said motion and the files and records in this case and being fully advised in the premises, the court finds:

That the Motion to Appeal in Forma Pauperis from the order of this court made and entered on the 3rd day of January, 1962, is not taken in good faith and should be denied for the reason that heretofore and on the 11th day of October, 1961, a previous motion to vacate sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C., Section 2255, was overruled, and on the 26th day of October, 1961, defendant was denied the right to appeal in forma pauperis, the court at that time certifying that said appeal could not be taken in good faith, and that subsequently defendant filed a second successive motion for similar relief alleging in substance the same grounds as asserted in his prior motion, and that this second successive motion was overruled and denied by this court on the 3rd day of January, 1962, for the reason that the court was not required to entertain such a second or successive motion.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that defendant's Motion to Appeal in Forma Pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C., Section 1915, be and it hereby is overruled and denied.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER CERTIFIED BY THIS COURT that the appeal may not be taken in forma pauperis since it is not taken in good faith.
