UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

United States of America,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Morris Clay Jones, et al.,

Defendants.

Criminal No. 13969

FILED

JUN -7 1963

O R D E R

NOBLE C. HOOD
Clerk, U. S. District Court

Now on this 8th day of May, 1963, there comes on for hearing a motion by Morris Clay Jones and Barnell W. Ward, defendants herein, to dismiss the indictment heretofore returned against them on the ground and for the reason that each defendant has heretofore been placed in jeopardy concerning the same evidence and the same transaction as would be presented upon a trial of the issues presented to the court by the captioned case.

And it appearing to the court, after having heard argument of counsel and being advised in the premises, finds the following:

1. On or about June 22, 1962, Morris Clay Jones and Barnell W. Ward were arrested and charged with the violation of 26 U.S.C., Section 5205(a)(2). On or about September 14, 1962, Morris Clay Jones and Barnell W. Ward were indicted by a federal grand jury in and for the Northern Judicial District of Oklahoma, Case No. 13881, for a violation of 26 U.S.C., Sections 5205(a)(2), 5604(a)(1), being the same charge and transaction for which they were arrested on June 22, 1962. On or about October 30, 1962, Morris Clay Jones and Barnell W. Ward each entered a plea of guilty to the indictment returned by the grand jury on September 14, 1962, and were placed upon probation by this court. Morris Clay Jones received a probationary sentence of three (3) years, and Barnell W. Ward received a probationary sentence of eighteen (18) months.

2. On or about February 5, 1963, Morris Clay Jones and Barnell W. Ward, along with other persons, were arrested and charged with a violation of 18 U.S.C., Section 371, the substance of which charge was that defendants, and others, from on or about the first week of August, 1962, to on or about February 5, 1963, conspired to violate the Internal Revenue Laws of the United States concerning nontaxpaid distilled spirits.
3. On or about February 16, 1963, upon the application of the United States of America to revoke the sentence of probation of Morris Clay Jones and Barnell W. Ward, previously granted in Case No. 13881 on October 30, 1962, as hereinabove stated, this court entered an order denying the application of the United States for revocation of probation. At this hearing and in support of its application, the United States presented certain evidence which this court held to be insufficient to revoke the probationary sentences granted in Case No. 13881. This court further finds that the evidence presented at the hearing on the application for revocation of probation constituted a portion of the same evidence which would have been presented by the United States in a trial of the instant case.
4. On or about April 24, 1963, the duly empaneled grand jury in and for the Northern Judicial District of Oklahoma returned an indictment in this case against Morris Clay Jones and Barnell W. Ward, and other persons, charging that the defendants violated 18 U.S.C.A., Section 371, in that they did conspire, from on or about the first week of August, 1962, to on or about February 5, 1963, to violate certain provisions of the Internal Revenue Laws dealing with nontaxpaid distilled spirits.

It appears to the court, after having examined all of the proceedings hereinabove enumerated concerning and dealing with the defendants, Morris Clay Jones and Barnell W. Ward, that the indictment returned by the grand jury in this case places both defendants in a position whereby they are and would be forced to defend charges concerning which they have previously been placed in jeopardy by virtue of all the above listed and mentioned proceedings.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by this court that considering all events above enumerated, which have heretofore transpired concerning the defendants, Morris Clay Jones and Barnell W. Ward, that these defendants have heretofore been placed in jeopardy upon the same charge set forth in the indictment herein.

IT IS ORDERED that the indictment be dismissed as to Morris Clay Jones and Barnell W. Ward and that their bonds be exonerated.
