That this matter comes on today for sentence, the defendant having heretofore on the 7th day of January, 1964, entered a plea of guilty to the information filed herein. That although the defendant appeared at that time with his counsel and specifically stated that he understood the nature of the charges against him, a question has now been raised as to his competency to have entered said plea and to have understood the consequences thereof and to have understood the nature of the proceedings against him and to have assisted counsel in his defense and of his competency at this time in this regard.
