Criminal No. 13,992

NOBLE C. HOOD
Clerk, U. S. District Court

On May 20, 1963, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California, Central Division, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Marcia King.

It was adjudged that the defendant had been convicted upon a finding of guilty of the offense of juvenile delinquency, Title 18, U.S.C. Section 5032, in that the defendant, on or about March 1, 1963, did unlawfully be and become a juvenile delinquent in that she received, possessed and concealed $140, knowing the same to have been stolen from Security First National Bank, in violation of Title 18, U.S.C. Section 2113(c), as charged in the Information. It was adjudged that the defendant was guilty as charged and convicted.

It was adjudged that the defendant was 18 years of age at the time of conviction.

It was adjudged that imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for the period of three years, on condition that she obey all laws Federal, State and Local, and comply with all lawful rules and regulations of the Probation Office.

On the 24th day of February, 1964, it appeared to the Court that the interest of justice required that the sentence heretofore imposed be modified pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

It was adjudged that the sentence imposed on May 20, 1963, be modified so that the defendant's probationary period ends as of March 27, 1966.

It was ordered on the 16th day of August, 1963 that jurisdiction of the probationer be transferred to the Northern District of Oklahoma, which accepted jurisdiction of the probationer on August 26, 1963.

Now on this 25th day of February, 1964, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Carl Back; and it being shown to the Court that said defendant has violated the terms and conditions of probation,

It is adjudged that the order of probation be revoked, and the defendant, Carol Jean Courtney, be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for the period of her minority, which expires on March 27, 1966.

It is ordered that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this judgment and commitment to the United States Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.
