ORDER MODIFYING SENTENCE

NOBLE C. HOOD
Clerk U. S. District Court

This matter coming on before the undersigned Judge, on this 23rd day of July, 1965, upon the Petition for Reduction of Sentence of the defendant, and the United States being represented by John Imel, United States Attorney for this district, and the defendant being represented by H. G. Bill Dickey, and the Court, after hearing the statements of counsel and examining the files, finds that the ten (10) year sentence imposed on April 29, 1965, should be modified only insofar as the said sentence should provide that the said defendant should be given credit for any time that he was incarcerated by the United States under a prior conviction of the same count and another count of the indictment, although he was granted a new trial from the prior conviction.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Petition for Reduction of Sentence is hereby overruled; provided, however, that the defendant, CHARLES R. JORDAN, should be given credit from the ten (10) year sentence imposed on April 29, 1965, for the period of twenty-two (22) months which he was incarcerated in a federal institution under the prior conviction on the two counts.
