U. S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

This cause comes on for consideration by the Court after receipt of a copy of the Opinion together with certified copy of the Judgment of the Court of Appeals, Tenth Circuit filed herein on March 5, 1970.

The defendant, James Earl Milton, was tried before the Court, without a jury, and found guilty of violating Title 18 U.S.C. Section 912. The Court of Appeals by its Opinion filed February 10, 1970, reversed the Trial Court's finding of guilty, without instructions.

It appears to the Court that the defendant on May 13, 1969, was committed to the custody of the Attorney General for a period of three years subject to being eligible for parole under Title 18 U.S.C. Section 4208(a)(2), and said defendant has been incarcerated since the last mentioned date.

The Court is of the opinion that the ends of justice have been accomplished in this case, and it would be unduly harsh to retry the defendant, and THEREFORE, it is the Judgment and Order of this Court that this cause be dismissed and the defendant discharged.

Dated this 17th day of March, 1970.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

This cause came on for trial on March 2, 1970, before the under signed Judge and jury of twelve citizens of this district. The United States of America appeared by ~~Hubert H. Bryant~~ Nathan Kishan, Asst. United States Attorney, and the defendant appeared by Mitchell D. O'Donnell.

Both parties presented witnesses who testified in open court and rested. Thereupon the court duly instructed the jury. The jury after having deliberated approximately four hours, returned into open court and was advised by the foreman that they were unable to reach a verdict, and it appeared to the court that in all probability further deliberations by the jury would not result in a verdict. Thereupon the court discharged the jury from further consideration of this case.

It appearing to the court that the defendant was committed to the county jail, Tulsa county, Oklahoma, on ~~October 11~~ October 11, 1969, and remained committed there until March 2, 1970, without trial.

The court considering the evidence produced by the parties seriously doubts that the same is sufficient to prove a violation of Title 18, U.S.C., 1708, and it further appears to the court that it would be manifestly unjust to the defendant to stand trial again in this case.

Therefore in the interest of justice, and over the objection of the plaintiff, United States of America, this case is hereby dismissed.

Dated this 4th day of March, 1970.
