FINDING & JUDGMENT

There being a finding of NOT GUILTY. Defendant is discharged GUILTY.

Defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of having violated T. 18, U.S.C., Sections 922(b)(3) and 842(a)(3)(B), as charged in Counts 1, 2, 3, 4 and 7 of the Indictment

SENTENCE OR PROBATION ORDER

The court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of Count One - Four (4) Years, and on the condition that the defendant be confined in a jail-type or treatment institution for a period of Six (6) Months, the execution of the remainder of the sentence is hereby suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of Three and one-half (3 1/2) Years.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

The imposition of sentence in Counts Two, Three, Four and Seven is hereby suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of Three and one-half (3 1/2) Years as to each count, to begin at the expiration and run consecutively to the jail sentence imposed in Count One, and to run concurrently with the probation imposed in Count One.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

It is further adjudged that the execution of this sentence is deferred until Monday, June 9, 1975, at 9:00 a.m., at which time the defendant is to present himself to the U. S. Marshal.

In addition to the special conditions of probation imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the general conditions of probation set out on the reverse side of this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of probation, reduce or extend the period of probation, and at any time during the probation period or within a maximum probation period of five years permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke probation for a violation occurring during the probation period.
