NOW, on this 27 day of August, 1975, this matter comes on for disposition on application of Plaintiff, United States of America, for entry of judgment on a stipulation agreeing upon just compensation, and the Court, after having examined the files in this action and being advised by counsel for the Plaintiff, finds:

2.

This judgment applies only to the estate condemned in the tract, or tracts, listed in the caption hereof, as such estate and tract, or tracts, are described in the Complaint filed in this action.

3.

The Court has jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter of this action.

4.

Service of Process has been perfected either personally or by publication notice, as provided by Rule 71A of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on all parties defendant in this cause who are interested in subject property.

5.

The Acts of Congress set out in paragraph 2 of the Complaint filed herein give the United States of America the right, power, and authority to condemn for public use the estate described in said Complaint. Pursuant thereto, on December 13, 1974, the United States of America filed its Declaration of Taking of such described property, and title to the described estate in such property should be vested in the United States of America as of the date of filing said Declaration of Taking.

6.

Simultaneously with filing the Declaration of Taking, there was deposited in the Registry of the Court as estimated compensation for the taking of a certain estate in subject property a certain sum of money and none of this deposit has been disbursed, as set out below in paragraph 12.

7.

On the date of taking in this action, the owner of the estate taken in subject property was the defendant whose name is shown below in paragraph 12. Such named defendant is the only person asserting any interest in the estate taken in such tract. All other persons having either disclaimed or defaulted, such named defendant is entitled to receive the just compensation awarded by this judgment.

8.

The owner of the subject property and the United States of America have executed and filed herein a Stipulation As To Just Compensation wherein they have agreed that just compensation for the estate condemned in subject property is in the amount shown as compensation in paragraph 12 below, and such Stipulation should be approved.

9.

This judgment will create a deficiency between the amount deposited as estimated compensation for subject property and the amount fixed by the Stipulation As To Just Compensation; and the amount of such deficiency should be deposited for the benefit of the owner. Such deficiency is set out below in paragraph 12.

10.

It Is, Therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the United States of America has the right, power, and authority to condemn for public use the property particularly described in the Complaint filed herein; and such property, to the extent of the estate described in such Complaint, is condemned, and title to such described estate is vested in the United States of America as of December 13, 1974, and all defendants herein and all other persons interested in such estate are forever barred from asserting any claim to such property.

11.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that on the date of taking, the owner of the estate condemned herein in subject property was the defendant whose name appears below in paragraph 12 and the right to receive the just compensation for the estate taken herein in this property is vested in the party so named.

12.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Stipulation As To Just Compensation, described in paragraph 8 above, hereby is confirmed; and the sum therein fixed is adopted as the award of just compensation for the estate condemned in subject property as follows:

TRACT NO. 2116ME

OWNER: Osage Tribe of Indians

Award of just compensation pursuant to Stipulation -----	$6,772.50	$6,772.50
Deposited as estimated compensation -----	$3,612.00
Disbursed to owner -----		None
Balance due to owner -----		$6,772.50
Deposit deficiency -----	$3,160.50

13.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the United States of America shall deposit in the Registry of this Court, in this Civil Action, to the credit of subject property, the deficiency sum of $3,160.50, and the Clerk of this Court then shall disburse from the deposit for subject tract, to the Osage Tribe of Indians the sum of $6,772.50.

This judgment will create a deficiency between the amount deposited as estimated compensation for subject property and the amount fixed by the Stipulation As To Just Compensation; and the amount of such deficiency should be deposited for the benefit of the owner. Such deficiency is set out below in paragraph 12.

It Is, Therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the United States of America has the right, power, and authority to condemn for public use the property particularly described in the Complaint filed herein; and such property, to the extent of the estate described in such Complaint, is condemned, and title to such described estate is vested in the United States of America as of December 13, 1974, and all defendants herein and all other persons interested in such estate are forever barred from asserting any claim to such property.

The Court has jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter of this action.

Service of Process has been perfected either personally or by publication notice, as provided by Rule 71A of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on all parties defendant in this cause who are interested in subject property.

5.

The Acts of Congress set out in paragraph 2 of the Complaint filed herein give the United States of America the right, power, and authority to condemn for public use the estate described in said Complaint. Pursuant thereto, on December 13, 1974, the United States of America filed its Declaration of Taking of such described property, and title to the described estate in such property should be vested in the United States of America as of the date of filing said Declaration of Taking.

6.

Simultaneously with filing the Declaration of Taking, there was deposited in the Registry of the Court as estimated compensation for the taking of a certain estate in subject property a certain sum of money and none of this deposit has been disbursed, as set out below in paragraph 12.

7.

On the date of taking in this action, the owner of the estate taken in subject property was the defendant whose name is shown below in paragraph 12. Such named defendant is the only person asserting any interest in the estate taken in such tract. All other persons having either disclaimed or defaulted, such named defendant is entitled to receive the just compensation awarded by this judgment.

8.

The owner of the subject property and the United States of America have executed and filed herein a Stipulation As To Just Compensation wherein they have agreed that just compensation for the estate condemned in subject property is in the amount shown as compensation in paragraph 12 below, and such Stipulation should be approved.

9.

This judgment will create a deficiency between the amount deposited as estimated compensation for subject property and the amount fixed by the Stipulation As To Just Compensation; and the amount of such deficiency should be deposited for the benefit of the owner. Such deficiency is set out below in paragraph 12.

10.

It Is, Therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the United States of America has the right, power, and authority to condemn for public use the property particularly described in the Complaint filed herein; and such property, to the extent of the estate described in such Complaint, is condemned, and title to such described estate is vested in the United States of America as of December 13, 1974, and all defendants herein and all other persons interested in such estate are forever barred from asserting any claim to such property.

11.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that on the date of taking, the owner of the estate condemned herein in subject property was the defendant whose name appears below in paragraph 12 and the right to receive the just compensation for the estate taken herein in this property is vested in the party so named.

12.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Stipulation As To Just Compensation, described in paragraph 8 above, hereby is confirmed; and the sum therein fixed is adopted as the award of just compensation for the estate condemned in subject property as follows:

TRACT NO. 2038ME

Balance due to owner ----- $9,450.00

Deposit deficiency ----- $ 6,030.00

13.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the United States of America shall deposit in the Registry of this Court, in this Civil Action, to the credit of subject property, the deficiency sum of $6,030.00, and the Clerk of this Court then shall disburse from the deposit for subject tract, to the Osage Tribe of Indians the sum of $9,450.00.

ORDER

This is a proceeding brought pursuant to the provisions of Title 28, U.S.C. § 2254 by a state prisoner confined in the Oklahoma State Penitentiary at McAlester, Oklahoma. Petitioner attacks the validity of the judgment and sentence rendered by the District Court of Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, in Case No. CRF-74-1572. Petitioner was found guilty therein of the crime of attempted robbery with firearms, and his punishment was fixed at confinement in the state penitentiary for a period of 10 years.

Petitioner alleges he was denied equal protection of law and due process by the State of Oklahoma. This contention is based upon the State's refusal to furnish Petitioner a transcript at state expense of a preliminary hearing held August 6, 1974, which Petitioner requested in order to assist him in preparing his State appeal. Petitioner states he filed a motion for said transcript in the Tulsa District Court on about June 21, 1975. According to Petitioner, the request was denied because "Petitioner gave no grounds or facts to receive transcript." Thereafter, Petitioner filed a Writ of Mandamus in the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals which was also denied. Petitioner prays this Court to rule that the denying of the transcript is reversible error or to grant Petitioner a new trial or modify judgment and sentence.

Petitioner states that he plead guilty and was sentenced on October 17, 1974. As stated, he filed his Motion for Transcript on June 21, 1975. On July 15, 1975, Judge Raymond W. Graham ruled Petitioner had not stated any grounds or facts that would justify Petitioner receiving a transcript at public expense.

Equal protection and due process command that a prisoner who seeks to mount a state or federal collateral attack on his conviction is entitled to relevant portions of his trial transcript whenever he alleges a defect in his conviction of constitutional dimension and can identify with particularity those relevant portions of his transcript which he "needs" to prosecute and prove his claim. Jones v. Superintendent, 460 F.2d 150 (4th Cir. 1972), citing Lane v. Brown, 372 U.S. 477, 83 S.Ct. 768, 9 L.Ed.2d 892 (1963).

Petitioner cites Pollard v. Kidd, 383 F.Supp. 1056 (E.D.Va. 1974), in which the plaintiff, an indigent prisoner alleged that the State had unconstitutionally denied him certain parts of his trial transcript which he "needed" to collaterally attack his State conviction. The Court held:

" . . . that whenever a litigant seeks to raise claims of constitutional dimension, which are not patently frivolous, on collateral review of his conviction in either a state or federal court, that litigant is entitled to those portions of his or her transcript which he or she can identify with reasonable particularity and which have arguable relevance to the constitutional contentions which he or she intends to raise."

Petitioner contends that "he did not need to give grounds or facts to Tulsa District Court to receive transcript at public expense" because he was acting as his own attorney. However, as stated in the cases herein cited, the State of Oklahoma is not required to furnish every Petitioner a transcript at State expense if a "particularized need" is not shown, particularly in a situation like the case at bar, where the time to appeal had presumably run.

In Application of Knight, Okl.Cr., 390 P.2d 894 (1964) the Petitioner filed a writ of mandamus to require the District Court of Tulsa County to furnish a casemade. The Petitioner filed with the Court of Appeals an order entered in his case in Tulsa County denying Petitioner's motion for casemade at the expense of Tulsa County for the reason that such motion was insufficient in form and in substance to afford the relief requested; and further that neither notice of intent to appeal nor a motion for new trial was entered in said cause within the time provided by law, and also stating that the statutory time for filing an appeal had expired.

Title 22 O.S.1971 Sec. 1054 provides:

" . . . In felony cases the appeal must be taken within six (6) months after the judgment is rendered . . . "

The time for making and perfecting an appeal runs from the date of entry of judgment. Rothrock v. State, 93 Okl. Cr. 243, 226 P.2d 997 (1957). Petitioner states that no appeal of his judgment has been made and that his request for a transcript to aid him in perfecting an appeal was not even made until approximately eight months after judgment was rendered.

The Oklahoma courts have repeatedly stated, as they held in Knight, supra, in cases in which Petitioners request the Court to mandate a District Court to provide a transcript that:

"There is no statute in this state which permits this court to issue an order requiring the district court to furnish a transcript or casemade after the time has expired for taking an appeal in a criminal case."

Monzell v. State, 78 Okl.Cr. 34, 143 P.2d 163 (1943); Application of Cannon, Okl.Cr., 360 P.2d 732 (1961); Montgomery v. State, Okl.Cr., 375 P.2d 984 (1962); Harrison v. State, Okl. Cr., 373 P.2d 1020 (1962); Rodden v. District of Oklahoma County, Okl.Cr., 429 P.2d 793 (1967).

Based upon the above it is clear that the actions taken by the courts of the State of Oklahoma did not deny Petitioner equal protection of the law or deny due process. Therefore,

Petitioner's writ of habeas corpus is hereby denied.

It is so Ordered this 25th day of August, 1974.

Service of Process has been perfected either personally or by publication notice, as provided by Rule 71A of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on all parties defendant in this cause who are interested in subject property.

The Acts of Congress set out in paragraph 2 of the Complaint filed herein give the United States of America the right, power, and authority to condemn for public use the estate described in said Complaint. Pursuant thereto, on December 13, 1974, the United States of America filed its Declaration of Taking of such described property, and title to the described estate in such property should be vested in the United States of America as of the date of filing said Declaration of Taking.

6.

Simultaneously with filing the Declaration of Taking, there was deposited in the Registry of the Court as estimated compensation for the taking of a certain estate in subject property a certain sum of money and none of this deposit has been disbursed, as set out below in paragraph 12.

7.

On the date of taking in this action, the owner of the estate taken in subject property was the defendant whose name is shown below in paragraph 12. Such named defendant is the only person asserting any interest in the estate taken in such tract. All other persons having either disclaimed or defaulted, such named defendant is entitled to receive the just compensation awarded by this judgment.

8.

The owner of the subject property and the United States of America have executed and filed herein a Stipulation As To Just Compensation wherein they have agreed that just compensation for the estate condemned in subject property is in the amount shown as compensation in paragraph 12 below, and such Stipulation should be approved.

9.

This judgment will create a deficiency between the amount deposited as estimated compensation for subject property and the amount fixed by the Stipulation As To Just Compensation; and the amount of such deficiency should be deposited for the benefit of the owner. Such deficiency is set out below in paragraph 12.

10.

It Is, Therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the United States of America has the right, power, and authority to condemn for public use the property particularly described in the Complaint filed herein; and such property, to the extent of the estate described in such Complaint, is condemned, and title to such described estate is vested in the United States of America as of December 13, 1974, and all defendants herein and all other persons interested in such estate are forever barred from asserting any claim to such property.

11.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that on the date of taking, the owner of the estate condemned herein in subject property was the defendant whose name appears below in paragraph 12 and the right to receive the just compensation for the estate taken herein in this property is vested in the party so named.

12.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Stipulation As To Just Compensation, described in paragraph 8 above, hereby is confirmed; and the sum therein fixed is adopted as the award of just compensation for the estate condemned in subject property as follows:

TRACT NO. 2016ME

Assistant United States Attorney; the Defendant, American Finance
System of Tulsa, Inc., appearing by its attorney, J. G. Follens; the Defendants, County Treasurer, Tulsa County, and Board of County Commissioners, Tulsa County, appearing by Gary J.
Summerfield, Assistant District Attorney; and the Defendants,
Jasper Crutison, Jr., Hattie Crutison, and Associates Discount
Corporation of Oklahoma, Inc., appearing not.

The Court being fully advised and having examined the file herein finds that Defendants, Jasper Crutison, Jr., Hattie Crutison, and Associates Discount Corporation of Oklahoma, Inc., were served by publication, as appears from the Proof of Publication filed herein, and that Defendants, American Finance System of Tulsa, Inc., County Treasurer, Tulsa County, and Board of County Commissioners, Tulsa County, were served with Summons and Complaint on April 11, 1975, all as appears from the United States
Marshal's Service herein.

It appearing that Defendant, American Finance System of Tulsa, Inc., has duly filed its Disclaimer herein on May 30, 1975, that Defendants, County Treasurer, Tulsa County, and Board of County Commissioners, Tulsa County, have duly filed their Answers herein on April 29, 1975, that Defendants, Jasper Crutison, Jr., Hattie Crutison, and Associates Discount Corporation of Oklahoma, Inc., have failed to answer herein and that default has been entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that this is a suit based upon a mortgage note and foreclosure on a real property mortgage securing said mortgage note and that the following described real property is located in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, within the Northern Judicial District of Oklahoma:

Lot Eleven (11), Block Ten (10), VALLEY VIEW ACRES ADDITION to the City of Tulsa, Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, according to the recorded plat thereof.

THAT the Defendants, Jasper Crutison, Jr., and Hattie Crutison, did, on the 23rd day of April, 1971, execute and deliver to the Glenn Justice Mortgage Company, Inc., their mortgage and mortgage note in the sum of $11,450.00 with 7 per cent interest per annum, and further providing for the payment of monthly installments of principal and interest.

That by Assignment of Mortgage of Real Estate dated August 27, 1971, the Glenn Justice Mortgage Company, Inc., a corporation, assigned said Note and Mortgage to the Federal National Mortgage Association and that by Assignment dated April 24, 1972, the Federal National Mortgage Association, a corporation, assigned said Note and Mortgage to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, Washington, D.C.

The Court further finds that Defendants, Jasper Crutison, Jr., and Hattie Crutison, made default under the terms of the aforesaid mortgage note by reason of their failure to make monthly installments due thereon for more than 11 months last past, which default has continued and that by reason thereof the above-named Defendants are now indebted to the Plaintiff in the sum of $11,362.78 as unpaid principal with interest thereon at the rate of 7 percent per annum from September 1, 1973, until paid, plus the cost of this action accrued and accruing.

The Court further finds that there is due and owing to the County of Tulsa, State of Oklahoma, from Defendants, Jasper Crutison, Jr., and Hattie Crutison, the sum of $ 24.00 plus interest according to law for personal property taxes for the year(s) 1972 and that Tulsa County should have judgment, in rem, for said amount, but that such judgment is subject to and inferior to the first mortgage lien of the Plaintiff herein.

The Court further finds that there is due and owing to the County of Tulsa, State of Oklahoma, from Defendants, Jasper Crutison, Jr., and Hattie Crutison, the sum of $ $667.00 plus interest according to law for real estate taxes for the year(s) 1972-1974 and that Tulsa County should have judgment, in rem, for said amount, and that such judgment is superior to the first mortgage lien of the Plaintiff herein.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Plaintiff have and recover judgment against Defendants, Jasper Crutison, Jr., and Hattie Crutison, in rem, for the sum of $11,362.78 with interest thereon at the rate of 7 percent per annum from September 1, 1973, plus the cost of this action accrued and accruing, plus any additional sums advanced or to be advanced or expended during this foreclosure action by Plaintiff for taxes, insurance, abstracting, or sums for the preservation of the subject property.

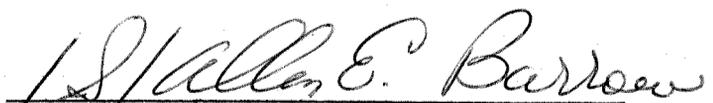

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the County of Tulsa have and recover judgment, in rem, against Defendants, Jasper Crutison, Jr., and Hattie Crutison, for the sum of $ 24.00 as of the date of this judgment plus interest thereafter according to law for personal property taxes, but that such judgment is subject to and inferior to the first mortgage lien of the Plaintiff herein.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the County of Tulsa have and recover judgment, in rem, against Defendants, Jasper Crutison, Jr., and Hattie Crutison, for the sum of $ 667.00 as of the date of this judgment plus interest thereafter according to law for real estate taxes, and that such judgment is superior to the first mortgage lien of the Plaintiff herein.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Plaintiff have and recover judgment, in rem, against Defendant, Associates Discount Corporation of Oklahoma, Inc.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that upon the failure of said Defendants to satisfy Plaintiff's money judgment herein, an Order of Sale shall be issued to the United States Marshal for the Northern District of Oklahoma, commanding him to advertise and sell with appraisement the real property and apply the proceeds thereof in satisfaction of Plaintiff's judgment, which sale shall be subject to the real estate tax judgment of Tulsa County, supra. The residue, if any, shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Court to await further order of the Court.

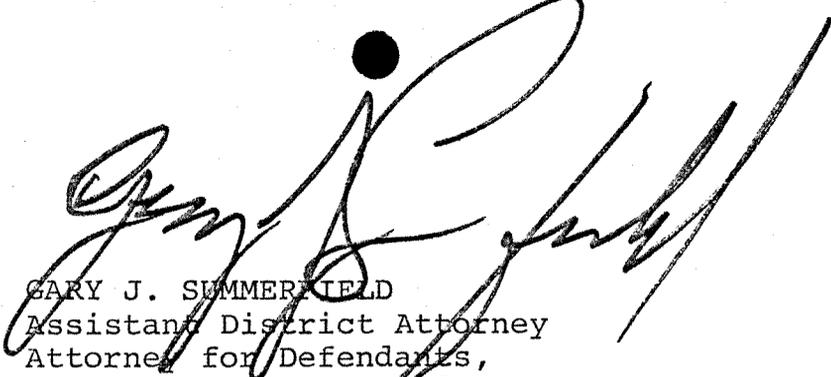

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that from and after the sale of said property, under and by virtue of this judgment and decree, all of the Defendants and each of them and all persons claiming under them since the filing of the complaint herein be and they are forever barred and foreclosed of any right, title, interest or claim in or to the real property or any part thereof.

NOW, on this 19th day of August, 1975, this matter comes on for disposition on application of Plaintiff, United States of America, for entry of judgment on a stipulation agreeing upon just compensation, and the Court, after having examined the files in this action and being advised by counsel for the Plaintiff, finds:

2.

This judgment applies only to the estate condemned in the tract, or tracts, listed in the caption hereof, as such estate and tract, or tracts, are described in the Complaint filed in this action.

3.

The Court has jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter of this action.

4.

Service of Process has been perfected either personally or by publication notice, as provided by Rule 71A of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on all parties defendant in this cause who are interested in subject property.

5.

The Acts of Congress set out in paragraph 2 of the Complaint filed herein give the United States of America the right, power, and authority to condemn for public use the estate described in said Complaint. Pursuant thereto, on December 13, 1974, the United States of America filed its Declaration of Taking of such described property, and title to the described estate in such property should be vested in the United States of America as of the date of filing said Declaration of Taking.

6.

Simultaneously with filing the Declaration of Taking, there was deposited in the Registry of the Court as estimated compensation for the taking of a certain estate in subject property a certain sum of money and none of this deposit has been disbursed, as set out below in paragraph 12.

7.

On the date of taking in this action, the owner of the estate taken in subject property was the defendant whose name is shown below in paragraph 12. Such named defendant is the only person asserting any interest in the estate taken in such tract. All other persons having either disclaimed or defaulted, such named defendant is entitled to receive the just compensation awarded by this judgment.

8.

The owner of the subject property and the United States of America have executed and filed herein a Stipulation As To Just Compensation wherein they have agreed that just compensation for the estate condemned in subject property is in the amount shown as compensation in paragraph 12 below, and such Stipulation should be approved.

9.

This judgment will create a deficiency between the amount deposited as estimated compensation for subject property and the amount fixed by the Stipulation As To Just Compensation; and the amount of such deficiency should be deposited for the benefit of the owner. Such deficiency is set out below in paragraph 12.

10.

It Is, Therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the United States of America has the right, power, and authority to condemn for public use the property particularly described in the Complaint filed herein; and such property, to the extent of the estate described in such Complaint, is condemned, and title to such described estate is vested in the United States of America as of December 13, 1974, and all defendants herein and all other persons interested in such estate are forever barred from asserting any claim to such property.

11.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that on the date of taking the owner of the estate condemned herein in subject property was the defendant whose name appears below in paragraph 12 and the right to receive the just compensation for the estate taken herein in this property is vested in the party so named.

12.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Stipulation As To Just Compensation, described in paragraph 8 above, hereby is confirmed; and the sum therein fixed is adopted as the award of just compensation for the estate condemned in subject property as follows:

TRACT NO. 2108ME

pursuant to Stipulation ----- $ 4,770.00 $ 4,770.00

Deposited as estimated compensation ----- $ 2,184.00

Disbursed to owner ----- None

Balance due to owner ----- $ 4,770.00

Deposit deficiency ----- $ 2,586.00

13.

It Is Further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the United States of America shall deposit in the Registry of this Court, in this Civil Action, to the credit of subject property, the deficiency sum of $2,586.00, and the Clerk of this Court then shall disburse from the deposit for subject tract, to the Osage Tribe of Indians the sum of $4,770.00.

ORDER

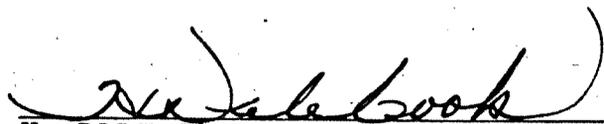

This is a proceeding brought pursuant to the provisions of Title 28, U.S.C. § 2254, by a state prisoner confined in the Tulsa County Jail at Tulsa, Oklahoma. Petitioner attacks the validity of the judgment and sentence rendered by the District Court of Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, in Case No. CRF-75-81. After a trial by jury, petitioner was found guilty of the crime of knowingly concealing stolen property, and his punishment was fixed at confinement for a period of 10 years. Petitioner states that said case is now on appeal to the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals.

Title 28, United States Code, § 2254, pursuant to which this proceeding is brought, provides in subsection (b):

"An application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court shall not be granted unless it appears that the applicant has exhausted the remedies available in the courts of the State. . . ." (emphasis added)

Petitioner's writ of habeas corpus pursuant to Section 2254 may not be granted unless it appears his state remedies are exhausted. Therefore, the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals not having ruled on the matter, the Petition is hereby denied.

It is so Ordered this 21st day of August, 1975.
