U. S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER SUSTAINING MOTION TO MODIFY

The Court has before it for consideration the Motion of the defendant, Mary Beth Payton, to Modify the Sentence imposed on August 25, 1975.

Pursuant to Rule 35 of the Fed.R.Crim.P. the Court may reduce a sentence within 120 days after the sentence is imposed.

After a plea of guilty to a violation of Title 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1) and Title 18 U.S.C. § 2 this Court sentenced the defendant, Mary Beth Payton to "Three (3) Years, and on the condition that the defendant be confined in a jail-type or treatment institution for a period of Six (6) Months, the execution of the remainder of the sentence is hereby suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of Two and one-half (2-1/2) Years."

The Court observes that 21 U.S.C. § 841(b)(1)(B) requires that "[A]ny sentence imposing a term of imprisonment under this paragraph shall, in the absence of such a prior conviction, impose a special parole term of at least 2 years in addition to such term of imprisonment. . . ."

The Court has considered the Diagnostic Summary and Rehabilitation Plan, a copy of which is attached to the Amended Application to Modify Sentence, and finds that further period of incarceration would not be beneficial to her development at this period in her life.

Therefore, pursuant to Rule 35 of the Fed.R.Crim.P. it is the Order of the Court that the sentence imposed on August 25, 1975, be modified and reduced from "Three (3) Years, and on the condition that the defendant be confined in a jail-type or treatment institution for a period of Six (6) Months, the execution of the remainder of the sentence is hereby suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of Two and one-half (2-1/2) Years," to read: The defendant, Mary Beth Payton, is hereby sentenced to be confined in a jail-type or treatment institution for a period of Two (2) Months and in addition a special parole term of Two (2) Years Ten (10) Months is hereby imposed.

It is so Ordered this 25th day of November, 1975.

O R D E R

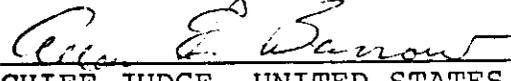

The Court has for consideration a motion pursuant to Rule 35, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, filed on behalf of the Defendant, letters seeking leniency for the Defendant, a letter from the Defendant requesting a reduction of sentence, and the 90-day report requested from the institution which is favorable to the Defendant.

After review, study, and reflection, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds that confinement in a jail-type institution would be of no benefit to society or the Defendant, and it might prove detrimental under the circumstances before the Court. Therefore, the motion for reduction of sentence should be sustained, and the sentence imposed by this Court on July 8, 1975, should be and it is by ORDER OF THIS COURT hereby modified and reduced to the following:

IT IS ADJUDGED that the Defendant, James Carroll Luman, does not need commitment, and the execution of sentence is suspended and the Defendant is placed on three (3) years probation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3651.
