FINDING & JUDGMENT

There being a finding/verdict of NOT GUILTY. Defendant is discharged GUILTY.

Defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of having violated T. 26, U.S.C., Section 5861(d), as charged in the Indictment.

It is the finding of the Court that the defendant is the age of 21 years, subject to the Youth Correction Act, and it is the further finding of the Court that the defendant would not derive appropriate benefit from the Youth Correction Act, and is therefore sentenced under the applicable statute.

SENTENCE OR PROBATION ORDER

The court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of

Two (2) Years

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the execution of sentence is suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of Four (4) Years from this date.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

O R D E R

Upon consideration of the Defendant's Motion To Reconsider filed herein on July 19, 1976, the Court finds that the same should be overruled.

In its last Order entered herein under date of July 7, 1976 the Court found and concluded that the sentence of imprisonment and fine imposed herein were appropriate in the circumstances of this case and should not be disturbed. The Court is still of this opinion. In fact, the Court is not disposed to reduce the sentence imposed herein. The fact that Defendant cannot pay the fine does not in any way change this determination.

It is so ordered this 22 day of July, 1976.

GUILTY.

Defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of use of interstate commerce connected with the purchase and sales of securities, to-wit, units of participation in annual programs for recovery of oil sponsored by Home-Stake Production Company, i.e., receipt with others of $10,000 check, in contravention of S.E.C. rules and regulations to protect public and investors, namely, Sec. 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78f(b), Rule 10b-5 thereunder (17 C.F.R. 240.10b-5) and §32 of Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78(ff)).

SENTENCE OR PROBATION ORDER

The court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: ~~The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of~~

No fine imposed in regard to this misdemeanor offense in which only possible sentence is a fine, as recommended by Kenneth P. Snook, Assistant United States Attorney.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

The Court finds, upon recommendation of prosecution and admission by the prosecution that the Government had no evidence that the Defendant had any knowledge, at the time of the offense, of the provisions of 17 C.F.R. 240.10b-5, and holds that the misdemeanor offense charged does not involve moral turpitude.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER REDUCING SENTENCE

On June 18, 1976 this Court sentenced the defendant, Ricky Lee French, to thirteen (13) months imprisonment with the provision that he may become eligible for parole at such time as the United States Parole Commission may determine under Title 18, U.S.C., § 4205(b)(2). The Court further ordered that the sentence be deferred until July 30, 1976 at which time the defendant was ordered to report to the United States Marshal. Said sentence was imposed after defendant entered and the Court accepted a plea of guilty to a one-count violation of Title 26, U.S.C., § 5861(d) in possessing an unregistered firearm.

Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure provides that the Court may reduce a sentence within 120 days after the sentence is imposed.

The Court has reviewed the entire record and the pre-sentence report submitted by the United States Probation Office and finds that a period of incarceration would not be beneficial to the development of the defendant at this time. Therefore, upon its own motion, the Court finds that the sentence of thirteen (13) months should be reduced to read that execution of sentence is suspended and the defendant be placed on probation for a period of three (3) years under the usual conditions of the United States Probation Office.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the sentence of thirteen (13) months previously imposed on the defendant, Ricky Lee French, be reduced and that execution of sentence be suspended and the defendant be placed on probation for a period of three (3) years subject to the usual conditions of probation.

It is so Ordered this 19th day of July, 1976.
