FINDING & JUDGMENT

There being a finding/verdict of

NOT GUILTY. Defendant is discharged

GUILTY.

Defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of having violated T. 18, U.S.C., Section 472, as charged in the Indictment.

SENTENCE OR PROBATION ORDER

The court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of Four (4) Years, and on the condition that the defendant be confined in a jail-type or treatment institution for a period of Six (6) Months; the execution of the remainder of the sentence is hereby suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of Four (4) Years, to commence upon the defendant's release from confinement.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant is allowed to remain on his present bond until the U. S. Marshal is advised by the Attorney General to which institution the defendant is to be confined.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

In addition to the special conditions of probation imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the general conditions of probation set out on the reverse side of this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of probation, reduce or extend the period of probation, and at any time during the probation period or within a maximum probation period of five years permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke probation for a violation occurring during the probation period.

COMMITMENT RECOMMENDATION

The court orders commitment to the custody of the Attorney General and recommends,

It is ordered that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this judgment and commitment to the U.S. Marshal or other qualified officer.

Jack C. Silver, Clerk U. S. DISTRICT COURT

FINDING & JUDGMENT

Defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of having violated T. 18, U.S.C.A., Section 2313, as charged in the Indictment.

SENTENCE OR PROBATION ORDER

The court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of

Two (2) Years

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant may become eligible for parole at such time as the U. S. Parole Commission may determine as provided in T. 18, U.S.C.A., Section 4205(b)(2).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the sentence imposed shall run concurrently with the sentence imposed in Case No. 76-CR-69.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

In addition to the special conditions of probation imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the general conditions of probation set out on the reverse side of this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of probation, reduce or extend the period of probation, and at any time during the probation period or within a maximum probation period of five years permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke probation for a violation occurring during the probation period.

COMMITMENT RECOMMENDATION

The court orders commitment to the custody of the Attorney General and recommends,

It is ordered that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this judgment and commitment to the U.S. Marshal or other qualified officer.
