No. 76-CR-93

Jack C. Sizer, Clerk
U. S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER SUSTAINING MOTION FOR REDUCTION OF SENTENCE

After a plea of guilty to a One-Count Indictment charging the defendant, William C. Viglia, with a violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 1623, this Court on August 3, 1976, sentenced the defendant to one (1) year imprisonment.

Pursuant to Rule 35 of the Fed.R.Crim.P., the defendant filed a Motion to Reduce Sentence on October 7, 1976. The Motion was filed within 120 days of the date of said sentencing as provided by Rule 35, and the Court therefore has jurisdiction to consider defendant's request.

At the time of the sentencing, the Court observed that defendant's conviction for false declarations before a Grand Jury arose out of activities in which he participated while employed in the accounting department of Gulf Oil Corporation. From 1959 until his retirement in March, 1975, defendant Viglia lived and worked in the Gulf accounting office in the Bahamas. From 1959 until 1973, he maintained a surreptitious account for Gulf designed to provide money for foreign payments and political contributions. He was instructed to keep no records and to destroy bank statements. During this period, defendant carried substantial sums of money from the Bahamas into the United States for delivery to various Gulf officials. In 1972, when it became unlawful to carry an amount in excess of $5,000.00 without reporting such amount to the Secretary of the Treasury, defendant continued to carry large sums of money into the United States without complying with these requirements and with knowledge of them.

In July, 1973, the United States Special Prosecutor announced a policy of immunity in exchange for voluntary disclosures of illegal political contributions. Gulf Oil Corporation voluntarily disclosed its activities.

In August, 1975, while under a grant of immunity, the defendant made false material declarations to a Grand Jury of the United States, duly empaneled and sworn in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in regard to his activities in carrying money into the United States. The defendant knew at the time of his false declarations that the Grand Jury was considering possible violations of the reporting requirements and of the statutes governing political contributions.

At the time of sentencing the Court further noted that the defendant gave no reasonable explanation for his false statements while under a protection of immunity, nor did defendant give a plausible explanation for his knowing violation of the reporting requirements.

The Court has received a letter from Mr. Robert G. Ryan, Branch Chief of the Enforcement Division of the Securities and Exchange Commission wherein Mr. Ryan states that to his knowledge Mr. William C. Viglia, in the fall of 1975, fully cooperated with his agency in its pending injunctive action against Gulf Oil Corporation and Claude C. Wild, Jr., (Securities & Exchange Commission v. Gulf Oil Corp., Civil No. 75-0324, District of Columbia.) Mr. Ryan states that the defendant's cooperation provided valuable evidence to the Commission in its prosecution of that case.

On October 18, 1976, the Court received a letter from Mr. John W. Wailes, Special Agent of the United States Customs Service, wherein Mr. Wailes states that the defendant has cooperated with his agency in its investigation of Gulf Oil Corporation and in particular on September 18, 1976, when he interviewed the defendant at the Federal Correctional Institution in Fort Worth, Texas. During this interview, the defendant agreed to assist the Customs Service in the future as is necessary.

In a letter dated October 14, 1976, Mr. Charles F. C. Ruff of the Watergate Special Prosecution Force advised the Court that the Special Prosecution Force has no objection to a reduction of defendant's sentence.

The Court sentenced defendant Viglia to a term of imprisonment not only because of the special circumstances surrounding this case but also because of the serious and flagrant attack on the judicial process. The defendant's false statements to the Grand Jury jeopardize the integrity of the judicial system and strike a serious blow at the heart of judicial process. The Grand Jury sits to investigate probable criminal violations of the laws of the United States. From the testimony presented, it charges citizens or removes the suspicion. It functions for the protection of citizens from false claims. False statements could easily result in the indictment of the innocent and the release of the guilty. The process is thwarted at its beginning.

The defendant here had no superficial reason for his false statements since he had been granted immunity and he had retired from Gulf prior to August 1, 1975. The facts which have surfaced indicate that this defendant simply did not respect the purposes of the Grand Jury.

Yet, this defendant has had no previous criminal record. In all other matters, he appears to have been a model citizen throughout his lifetime. His conduct before the Grand Jury is inconsistent with his otherwise honorable lifestyle.

The investigating authorities cited herein have indicated that the defendant is cooperating in their investigation. The Court gives great weight to the statements of his cooperation. The Special Prosecutor has indicated that for his purposes further incarceration is unnecessary.

Due to the age, the fact of no prior criminal record and especially to the defendant's willingness to cooperate with the investigating authorities, this Court finds that further incarceration of this defendant is unnecessary at this time. The record shows that neither society nor this defendant will gain from requiring him to serve the sentence imposed by the Court.

THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED that the Motion of defendant William C. Viglia for Reduction of Sentence should be sustained and that the sentence imposed by this Court on August 3, 1976, should be reduced from one (1) year to the period of time which he has now served.

It is so Ordered this 12th day of November, 1976.

REVOCATION OF PROBATION

On November 26, 1974, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Kenneth L. Stainer.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty had been convicted of having violated T. 18, U.S.C., Sections 1708 and 495 in that on or about July 12, 1973 in the Northern District of Oklahoma, defendant unlawfully possessed check No. 65,593,197 over Symbol 3104 dated July 11, 1973, for $104.40 drawn on the U. S. Treasury, payable to the order of Terry L. Marcum, 2423 E. 8th, Tulsa, Ok., which had been stolen from the mail, and with intent to defraud the U. S. did utter and publish as true to Peoples St. Bank, Tulsa, Ok., such check falsely made and forged endorsement "Terry L. Marcum", knowing said endorsement to have been falsely made and forged, as charged in Counts one and two of the indictment.

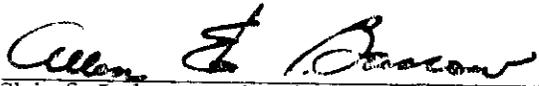

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant was guilty as charged and he was convicted.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence as to Counts one and two was suspended and defendant was placed on probation for a period of Four (4) years as to each Count, Count two to run concurrently with Count one, pursuant to the Federal Youth Correction Act, T. 18, U.S.C., Section 5010(a). IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the conditions of probation were that defendant marry his common law wife, Valerie Strong, within thirty (30) days, and notify the Court at the time of such legal civil ceremony; make restitution in the amount of $104.40 at the rate of $10.00 per month, until paid, such restitution to commence January 1, 1975; and seek out-patient treatment at Hillcrest Medical Center until released by a doctor.

Now, on this 9th day of November, 1976, came the attorney for the government, and the defendant appeared in person and with counsel, Kenneth L. Stainer. It being shown to the Court that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of said probation,

IT IS ADJUDGED that the Order of Probation entered on November 26, 1974, be revoked and set aside and the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General as to Count one for eighteen (18) months and further ordered that defendant shall be eligible for release on parole after serving one-third of such term as provided in T. 18, U.S.C., Section 4205(a). IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED that defendant be given a psychiatric study to determine if he needs psychiatric treatment and make a report to the Court within 90 days. As to Count two, the imposition of sentence is suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of two (2) years. The condition of probation is that the defendant pay the balance of the restitution, $19.40, to the Court Clerk within six (6) months from release of custody.

IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this judgment and commitment to the United States Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

No. 76-CR-82-C

ORDER SUSTAINING MOTION TO DISMISS INDICTMENT AS TO DEFENDANT TOMMY CLARK WILLIAMS

The Court has before it for consideration the Motion of Defendant Tommy Clark Williams to Dismiss the Indictment.

The Indictment filed in this case has listed the name of Tommy Clark Williams in the caption but has failed to state the name of this defendant in the charges enumerated in the body of the Indictment. The name "Williams" appears in Overt Act No. 13 of the Indictment. However, Overt Act No. 13 merely states that an amount of methamphetamine was delivered to defendant Williams. This statement is insufficient to charge the defendant Tommy Clark Williams with conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and to distribute a Schedule II nonnarcotic controlled substance methamphetamine, and a Schedule II nonnarcotic controlled substance amphetamine, under Title 21 U.S.C. § 846.

The plaintiff, United States of America, has no objection to the Motion to Dismiss the Indictment as to defendant Tommy Clark Williams.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss the Indictment as to defendant Tommy Clark Williams is sustained and that the Indictment be and is hereby dismissed as to this defendant.

REVOCATION OF PROBATION

On February 27, 1973, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Ed Parks.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty had been convicted of having violated T. 18, U.S.C., Section 2313, in that on or about September 22, 1972, at Tulsa, Oklahoma, in the Northern District of Oklahoma, he did sell a stolen motor vehicle, that is, a 1971 Chevrolet Monte Carlo, VIN 138571L110088, which was moving in interstate commerce from Dallas, Texas, to Tulsa, Oklahoma, and he then knew the motor vehicle to have been stolen, as charged in the indictment.

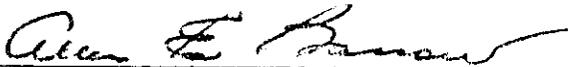

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant was guilty as charged and he was convicted.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence was suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of five (5) years to run concurrently with the sentence imposed in criminal No. 72-CR-190. IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that one of the conditions of probation was that the defendant was directed to prepare and submit to the Court an estimate of total costs of damages incurred during the commission of the crime, for consideration of the Court for the purpose of restitution or reimbursement.

Now, on this 3rd day of November, 1976, came the attorney for the government, and the defendant appeared in person and with counsel, Ed Parks. It being shown to the Court that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of said probation,
