U. S. DISTRICT COURT

REVOCATION OF PROBATION

On the 2nd day of November, 1971, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and was represented by counsel, John J. Tanner.

It was adjudged that the defendant, upon her plea of guilty, had been convicted of the offense of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., Sec. 1708, in that on or about the dates of December 1, 1970, and February 1, 1971, in the Northern District of Oklahoma, she did unlawfully have in her possession the contents of two first class letters, one addressed to Allene Cornelius and the other to Rosetta Liggins, each in Tulsa, Oklahoma, that is, Oklahoma Public Welfare Commission checks, one in the amount of $241.00, and one in the amount of $185.00, each had been stolen from authorized depositories for mail matter, knowing the same to have been stolen, as charged in Counts One and Two of the Indictment.

It was adjudged that the defendant was guilty as charged and convicted.

It was adjudged that the defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of five (5) years, and on the condition that the defendant be confined in a jail type or treatment institution for a period of Six (6) months, the execution of the remainder of sentence of imprisonment having been suspended and the defendant placed on probation for a period of fifty-four (54) months, pursuant to the Youth Correction Act. It was further adjudged that the imposition of sentence as to Count Two was suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of fifty-four (54) months, to run concurrently with the period of probation in Count One, pursuant to the Youth Correction Act, and one of the conditions of probation was that the defendant make restitution in the amount of $426.00 at the rate of $10.00 per month, commencing the second month of probation.

On the 26th day of November, 1974, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and was represented by counsel, John J. Tanner. It being shown to the Court that the defendant had violated the terms and conditions of said probation,

It was adjudged that the order of probation be revoked and the defendant was committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period of eighteen (18) months as to Count 1. The Court requested a 90 day report. Imposition of sentence was suspended as to Count 2 and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of two (2) years to commence at the expiration of the sentence in Count 1, the condition of probation being that defendant make restitution in the amount of $416.00 within 18 months after the commencement of probation.

Now, on this 25th day of January, 1977, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and was represented by counsel, John J. Tanner. And it being shown to the Court that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of probation under Count two,

IT IS ADJUDGED that the order of probation be revoked as to Count two and the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period of four (4) years, to commence at expiration of state sentence the defendant is now serving.

IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Order to the U. S. Marshal or other qualified officer to serve as the committment of this defendant.

REVOCATION OF PROBATION

On September 5, 1974, came the attorney for the government and the defendant Monty Dean Hamilton appeared in person and by counsel, Paul Brunton.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty, had been convicted of having violated Title 21, U.S.C., Section 841, in that on or about February 12, 1974, at Tulsa, Oklahoma, in the Northern District of Oklahoma, the defendant and others did unlawfully and willfully distribute various drugs to an agent of the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, as charged in the indictment.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant was guilty as charged and convicted.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of three (3) years, pursuant to the Federal Youth Correction Act, Title 18, U.S.C., 5010(a), conditions of probation being that (1) the defendant enroll in a Drug Abuse Program, (2) attend Vo-Tech School, (3) get a job and stay employed, (4) do not associate with drug users, or use drugs.

On the 10th day of December, 1975, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared with counsel, Paul Brunton. It being shown to the Court that the defendant had violated the terms and conditions of said probation,

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the Order of probation entered on September 5, 1974, be revoked and set aside and the probation was extended for a period of two (2) years, consecutive to the three (3) year term of probation previously imposed, making a term of five (5) years probation.

Now, on this 13th day of January, 1977, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared with counsel, John Street. It being shown to the Court that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of said probation,

IT IS ADJUDGED that the Order of probation entered on December 10, 1975, be revoked and set aside and the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General for a period of three (3) years. IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the defendant is sentenced to a special parole term of three (3) years to commence at the expiration of sentence imposed herein. IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the Court recommends an institution for drug treatment.

IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this judgment and commitment to the United States Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

O R D E R

On July 23, 1976, came the attorney for the government, Ben F. Baker, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, David L. Peterson.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of not guilty, and a verdict of guilty after trial by jury, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §472, as charged in the Indictment.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant be placed on probation for a period of Three (3) Years from July 23, 1976.

Thereafter, on the 7th day of January, 1977, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer Jerry B. Baines that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, Warrant for Arrest of Probationer was issued.

Thereafter, on the 12th day of January, 1977, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer, Andre Maurice Butler, surrendered to the Probation office and the United States Marshal's office, and pursuant thereto, said probationer, Andre Maurice Butler, appeared before the Court with his attorney and counsel, David L. Peterson, and the government being present and represented by its attorney, Ben F. Baker. Thereafter, the Court directed that the Probation Officer, Jerry B. Baines, recite and advise the defendant the grounds of revocation, and after hearing, the Court declines Revocation of Probation, and with the consent and agreement of all parties, modifies the defendant's probation with the following conditions:

The defendant shall:

(1) refrain from violation of any law (federal, state, and local) and get in touch immediately with your probation officer if arrested or questioned by a law-enforcement officer;

(2) associate only with law-abiding persons and maintain reasonable hours;

GUILTY, and the court being satisfied that there is a factual basis for the plea,

NOLO CONTENDERE,

NOT GUILTY

FINDING & JUDGMENT

There being a finding/verdict of NOT GUILTY. Defendant is discharged. GUILTY.

Defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of having violated T. 18, U.S.C., Sec. 656, as charged in Count One of the Indictment.

It is the finding of the Court that the defendant is the age of 21 years, subject to the Youth Correction Act, and it is the further finding of the Court that the defendant would not derive appropriate benefit from the Youth Correction Act, and is therefore sentenced under the applicable statute.

SENTENCE OR PROBATION ORDER

The court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of Five (5) Years, on the condition that the defendant be confined in a jail-type or treatment institution for a period of Six (6) Months, the execution of the remainder of the sentence is hereby suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of Four and one-half (4 1/2) Years, to commence upon the defendant's release from confinement.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

In addition to the usual conditions of probation, upon release from confinement, the defendant is to continue psychiatric treatment in an effort to correct his personality defect.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

In addition to the special conditions of probation imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the general conditions of probation set out on the reverse side of this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of probation, reduce or extend the period of probation, and at any time during the probation period or within a maximum probation period of five years permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke probation for a violation occurring during the probation period.

COMMITMENT RECOMMENDATION

The court orders commitment to the custody of the Attorney General and recommends,

It is ordered that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this judgment and commitment to the U.S. Marshal or other qualified officer.
