No. 76-CR-101-C

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

O R D E R

The Court has before it for consideration a Motion to Reduce Sentence filed by the defendant Homer Lee Gafford on January 28, 1977. A jury trial in this case resulted in a finding that defendant was guilty of violating 18 U.S.C. § 2313, as charged in the indictment. On October 1, 1976, defendant was sentenced to imprisonment for a period of two years and the Court ordered that the defendant should become eligible for parole at such time as the United States Parole Commission may determine as provided in 18 U.S.C. § 4205(b)(2). The Court further ordered that the sentence imposed should run concurrently with the sentence imposed in Case No. 76-CR-69.

Defendant states in his motion that to remain incarcerated works a hardship on defendant's wife and family. The Court has carefully reviewed the entire record in this case and finds that the sentence imposed as indicated herein was appropriate, just and reasonable under the circumstances of this case. Therefore, the Motion for Reduction of Sentence is overruled.

It is so Ordered this 23rd day of February, 1977.
