REVOCATION OF PROBATION

On December 10, 1975, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Charles Whitman.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty had been convicted of having violated T. 18, U.S.C., Section 922(a)(6), as charged in Count One of the Indictment.

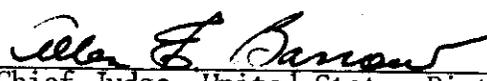

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant was guilty as charged and he was convicted.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the Court determined the defendant would not benefit under the Youth Correction Act and the defendant was committed to the custody of the Attorney General for a period of thirty-six (36) months, and on the condition that the defendant be confined in a jail type institution for a period of six (6) months, the execution of the remainder of the sentence of imprisonment is hereby suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for thirty (30) months. The conditions of probation were that defendant (1) not associate with criminals and (2) seek out-patient treatment for drug abuse.

Now, on this 31st day of May, 1977, came the attorney for the government, and the defendant appeared in person and with counsel, Phil Frazier. It being shown to the Court that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of said probation,

IT IS ADJUDGED that the Judgment & Commitment entered on December 10, 1977, be revoked and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of Two (2) years, commencing after release from institution from sentence imposed in Case 77-CR-15. Any parole term from the sentence in 77-CR-15 is to run concurrently with probation imposed in this case. The special condition of probation is that the defendant continue drug treatment.

IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this Revocation of Probation to the United States Probation office.

ORDER ON REVOCATION OF PROBATION

On June 18, 1976, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Allen Pease.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty, had been convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §1708 and §495, as charged in Counts 1 and 2 of the Indictment.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant was guilty as charged and convicted.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence be deferred and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of Three (3) Years as to Counts 1 and 2 of the Indictment, to run concurrent.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that in addition to the usual conditions of probation, the defendant was to make restitution in the amount of $378.10, in regular monthly payments, the amounts of which were to be determined by the Probation Office.

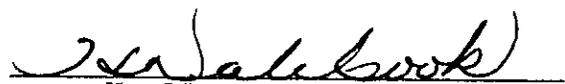

Now, on this 13th day of May, 1977, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and with counsel, Allen Pease. It being shown to the Court that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of said probation,

IT IS ADJUDGED that the order of probation entered on June 18, 1976 be revoked and set aside and the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period of Eighteen (18) months as to each of Counts 1 and 2, Count 2 to run concurrently with Count 1. The Court further finds that the defendant may be eligible for parole under Title 18, U.S.C. §4205(B)(2) at a time the Parole Commission may determine.

IT IS ORDERED that the imposition of this sentence is deferred until May 23, 1977 at 9:00 a.m. to permit defendant to get personal affairs in order. The defendant is to report to U. S. Marshal at that time. Defendant is allowed to remain on present bond until May 23, 1977 at 9:00 a.m.

IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this Order to the United States Marshal or other qualified officer and that a copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 13th day of May, 1977.

ORDER

The Court has for consideration a motion for modification of sentence pursuant to Rule 35, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, filed on behalf of the Defendant, Jimmy Ray Culver.

Being fully advised in the premises, after review, study and reflection, the Court finds that the motion should be sustained.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Judgment and sentence entered herein May 3, 1977, be and it is hereby modified to the following:

The Defendant, Jimmy Ray Culver, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of:

Count One--Sixty (60) months, and on the condition that the defendant be confined in a half-way house near his place of business in Texas for a period of six (6) months, the execution of the remainder of the sentence of imprisonment is hereby suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for fifty-four (54) months.

Counts Three, Seven, Twelve, Sixteen and Seventeen--The same sentence as is imposed in Count One, to run concurrently with the sentence imposed in Count One.

The special condition of probation is that the defendant make restitution to the Court Clerk in the amount of $14,250.66, at the rate of not less than $300.00 a month for payment to grain companies. Payments to begin the first month after release from the institution and the balance of restitution to be paid by the end of fourth year of probation.

O R D E R

The Court has for consideration a letter from the Defendant, Monty Dean Hamilton, and a pro se motion pursuant to Rule 35, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, seeking discretionary modification of sentence.

After review of the motion, study of the file, and reflection, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds that the sentence imposed upon revocation of probation January 13, 1977, was lenient and proper under the circumstances before the Court. However, the Court further finds that in said sentence, the Court recommended that the Federal sentence be served at an institution for drug treatment. Therefore, the sentence should be modified to provide release in the discretion of the Parole Commission when they determine the defendant may have been rehabilitated.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the motion for modification of sentence of Monty Dean Hamilton be and it is hereby sustained in that the Defendant be and he is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General for three (3) years pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4205(b)(2).
