No. 77-CR-42-C

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

O R D E R

The Court has before it for consideration the defendant's request, in letter form, that the Court permit his federal sentence to run concurrent with a state sentence previously imposed upon him. The Court will treat the request as a motion for reduction of sentence under Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant entered a plea of guilty to an indictment charging him with a violation of Title 21 U.S.C. § 843(b) and was sentenced by the Court on July 21, 1977 to a term of imprisonment of eighteen (18) months.

At the time this Court sentenced the defendant, the state charge and sentence imposed upon him were taken into consideration. The Court has carefully reviewed the entire record and finds that the sentence imposed was appropriate, just and reasonable under the circumstances of this case. Therefore, the motion for reduction of sentence is hereby overruled.

It is so Ordered this 29th day of September, 1977.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

The Court has before it for consideration the defendant's first, second and third motions for admission to probation. On September 1, 1977, the Court reduced the sentence of the defendant from five years' to two and one-half years' imprisonment. This Court is without jurisdiction to order this defendant placed on probation, but if the Court had the authority to do so, it would not, in view of the prior reduction of sentence. Therefore, defendant's first, second and third motions for admission to probation are hereby overruled.

It is so Ordered this 26th day of September, 1977.
