ORDER

This case is before the Court on its own motion for correction of the above-named defendant's sentence pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. On November 14, 1974, the above-named defendant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a conspiracy violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846, in Count 1 of the above-cited case. In addition to the term of imprisonment imposed in Count 1, a two-year special parole term was imposed upon said defendant. On June 16, 1980, the United States Supreme Court held that a special parole term may not be imposed for a narcotics conspiracy violation under Title 21, United States Code, Section 846. Bifulco v. United States, No. 79-5010 (June 16, 1980).

For the foregoing reason, it is therefore ORDERED that the special parole term heretofore imposed upon the above-named defendant in Count 1 of the indictment is hereby vacated.

Jack [unclear], Clerk
U. S. DISTRICT COURT

O R D E R

On July 20, 1979, came the attorney for the Government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, O. B. Graham.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty as to Count 2, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U. S. C., §495, as charged in Count 2 of the Indictment.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant be placed on probation for a period of Three (3) Years as to Count 2 from July 20, 1979.

Thereafter, on the 25th day of August, 1980, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer, E. Dayton Wagoner, that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, Warrant for Arrest of Probationer was issued.

Thereafter, on the 27th day of August, 1980, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer, Curtis Lee Jamerson, was arrested; and pursuant thereto, said probationer appeared before the Court with his attorney and counsel, Christopher Grant, on the 5th day of September, 1980. The Government was represented by its attorney, Kenneth P. Snoke. Thereafter, the Court directed that the Probation Officer, E. Dayton Wagoner, recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation, and after statements confirming probation violation by probationer and his counsel, the Court finds that an evidentiary hearing is not necessary and that the defendant had violated the terms of his probation and that probation should be revoked.

THE COURT ORDERS that the Order of Probation entered on July 20, 1979, be revoked and set aside. IT IS ADJUDGED that the defendant, CURTIS LEE JAMERSON, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of:

Count 2 - Three (3) Years.

The Court leaves the decision as to whether the sentence shall run concurrent with any State sentence to the discretion of the Attorney General; but the Court recommends that when the defendant is in Federal custody that he be given drug evaluation and treatment as determined by the Attorney General.

IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this judgment and commitment to the United States Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

DATED this 5th day of September, 1980.

PLEA

GUILTY, and the court being satisfied that there is a factual basis for the plea,

NOLO CONTENDERE,

NOT GUILTY

FINDING & JUDGMENT

There being a finding/verdict of NOT GUILTY. Defendant is discharged GUILTY.

Defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., Section 371 & 2 and Title 7, U.S.C., Section 2024(b), as charged in Counts 1,2,3 & 5 of the Indictment.

SENTENCE OR PROBATION ORDER

The court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that ~~the defendant~~ hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General.

Counts 1,2,3 & 5 - Imposition of sentence is suspended and the defendant is hereby placed on probation for a period of TWO AND ONE-HALF YEARS from this date, under provisions of the Youth Correction Act, pursuant to Title 18, US.C. Sec. 5010(a). Counts 2, 3 and 5 to run concurrently with Count 1.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

A SPECIAL CONDITION of probation is that defendant make restitution in the amount of $792.50, at rate determined by the Probation office.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

In addition to the special conditions of probation imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the general conditions of probation set out on the reverse side of this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of probation, reduce or extend the period of probation, and at any time during the probation period or within a maximum probation period of five years permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke probation for a violation occurring during the probation period.

COMMITMENT RECOMMENDATION

The court orders commitment to the custody of the Attorney General and recommends,

It is ordered that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this judgment and commitment to the U.S. Marshal or other qualified officer.
