This case is before the Court on its own motion for correction of the above-named defendant's sentence pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. On April 19, 1979, the above-named defendant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a conspiracy violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846, in Count I of the above-cited case. In addition to the term of imprisonment imposed in Count I, a two-year special parole term was imposed upon said defendant. On June 16, 1980, the United States Supreme Court held that a special parole term may not be imposed for a narcotics conspiracy violation under Title 21, United States Code, Section 846. Bifulco v. United States, No. 79-5010 (June 16, 1980).

For the foregoing reason, it is therefore ORDERED that the special parole term heretofore imposed upon the above-named defendant in Count I of the indictment is hereby vacated.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 29 day of July, 1980.

O R D E R

This case is before the Court on its own motion for correction of the defendant's sentence pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. On May ¹⁰/₅, 1979, the defendant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846, in Count I of the above-cited case. In addition to the term of imprisonment imposed in Count I, a three-year special parole term was imposed upon the defendant. On June 16, 1980, the United States Supreme Court held that a special parole term may not be imposed for a narcotics conspiracy violation under Section 846. Bifulco v. United States, No. 79-5010 (June 16, 1980).

For the foregoing reason, it is therefore ordered that the special parole term heretofore imposed upon the defendant in Count I of the Indictment is hereby vacated.

It is so Ordered this 23rd day of Jan, 1980.
