O R D E R

The Court has before it for consideration Defendant's alternative motion for probation of sentence, reduction of sentence, and early eligibility for parole, made pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3651 and 4205, and Rule 35, F.R.Crim.Pro.

The Court has carefully considered Defendant's motion, as well as the records and reports of the federal correctional facility at Seagoville, Texas, which were furnished to the Court, and is now fully informed of the circumstances surrounding Defendant's case.

Defendant, upon the Court's acceptance of his plea of guilty was sentenced to commitment to the custody of the Attorney General for a period of three years on each count of a three-count indictment charging him with violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1), the sentence on Counts two and three to run concurrently with Count one, all pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4205(a). The Court further sentenced Defendant to a special parole term of two years as to each of the three counts, Counts two and three to run concurrently with Count one, such term to commence upon the expiration of the sentence imposed.

Having considered the arguments of Defendant, the grounds asserted by him, and the circumstances of this case, the Court concludes that a reduction of sentence pursuant to Rule 35, F.R.Crim.Pro. is warranted, and the Court therefore orders that the sentence imposed upon the Defendant be reduced to:

Commitment to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period of two and one-half years as to each of Counts 1, 2, and 3, Counts 2 and 3 to run concurrently with Count 1, as provided under Title 18, U.S.C. § 4205(a).

The Court declines to modify the special parole term provisions imposed upon the Defendant at the original sentencing.

It is so Ordered this 18th day of March, 1981.

ORDER

The Court has for consideration, after a hearing had on February 20, 1981, the Motion of the defendant, Anthony Lee Mayberry, for a reduction of sentence pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant entered a plea of guilty to an indictment charging him with a violation of Title 18 U.S.C. §2313, and now asks the Court to modify the sentence imposed upon him on December 2, 1980.

In considering the Motion for Reduction of Sentence, the Court finds the Motion should be sustained and the sentence heretofore imposed on December 2, 1980, should be modified as follows:

IT IS ADJUDGED that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a term of 3 years; and on condition that the defendant be confined in a jail type or treatment institution for a period of 6 months, the execution of the remainder of the sentence of imprisonment is hereby suspended and the defendant placed on probation for a period of 2 years and 6 months to commence upon the defendant's release from confinement, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3651.

All other conditions of probation heretofore imposed are to remain the same.

On November 15, 1977, came the attorney for the Government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Joel Wohlgemuth.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §2312, as charged in the Indictment.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the defendant was sentenced to the custody of the Attorney General for treatment and supervision until discharged under the Youth Corrections Act, §5010(b), as to Count 1 of the Indictment. It was further adjudged that the imposition of sentence as to Count 2 be suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of Three (3) years, to follow incarceration in Count 1. As to Count 3, the imposition of sentence was suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of Three (3) years, to run concurrently with the sentence imposed in Count 2.

Thereafter, on the 13th day of February, 1981, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer, E. Dayton Wagoner, that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, Warrant for Arrest of Probationer was issued.

Thereafter, on the 26th day of February, 1981, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer, Mark Eric Oots, appeared before the Court with his attorney and counsel, James W. Barlow. The Government was represented by Kenneth P. Snoke. Thereafter, the Court directed that the Probation Officer, E. Dayton Wagoner, recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and there having been made a disclosure of the evidence against him, and being provided an opportunity to appear and present evidence in his own behalf, together with the opportunity to question witnesses against him, and after statements confirming probation violation by probationer and his counsel, and said probationer having waived his right to an evidentiary hearing, the Court finds that an evidentiary hearing is not necessary and that the defendant had violated the terms of his probation and that probation should be revoked. The Court ordered a presentence investigation.

Now, on this 9th day of March, 1981,

IT IS ORDERED that the Order of Probation, entered on November 15, 1977, be revoked and set aside.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, MARK ERIC OOTS, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of:

COUNT 2 - Three (3) years.

COUNT 3 - Three (3) years, said term of imprisonment to run concurrent with the sentence imposed in Count 2.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Judgment and Commitment to the United States Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

DATED at Tulsa, Oklahoma, this 9th day of March, 1981.
