O R D E R

Jack C. Silver, Clerk
U. S. DISTRICT COURT

On June 14, 1979, came the attorney for the government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Kenneth L. Stainer.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C, §§ 2 and 495, as charged in the Indictment.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of Four (4) years.

Thereafter, and on January 8, 1981, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, Warrant for Arrest of Probationer was issued.

Thereafter, and on April 1, 1981, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer, Michael Christopher Knott, appeared before the U. S. Magistrate for the Northern District of Oklahoma. Thereafter, the Magistrate directed the Probation Officer to recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and having been given an opportunity to present evidence in his own behalf and to question witnesses against him, and having been given notice of his right to be represented by counsel, said probationer waived his right to counsel; and waived his right to a preliminary hearing and a revocation hearing before the District Court.

NOW, on this 8th day of April, 1981, the defendant appearing in person and with counsel, Kenneth L. Stainer, and the Government represented by Paula Ogg. Whereupon, said defendant reaffirmed that he had been served with written notice of probation violation and the allegations thereof; waived preliminary hearing; admitted that he was in violation of the conditions of probation as alleged; waived his right to a revocation hearing and requested the Court to proceed to sentencing said defendant.

Wherefore, the Court finds that the defendant has violated the terms of his probation and that probation should be revoked.

IT IS ORDERED that the Order of Probation, entered on June 14, 1979, be revoked and set aside.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, Michael Christopher Knott, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for treatment and supervision pursuant to Title 18, U.S.C., Section 5010(b) until discharged by the U. S. Parole Commission, as provided by law.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Judgment and Commitment to the United States Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

DATED at Tulsa, Oklahoma, this 8th day of April, 1981.

H. DALE COOK, Chief Judge
