No. 81-CR-19-E

JUN 18 1981 fm

O R D E R

On March 11, 1981 the Defendant appeared in person and with court appointed counsel, Charles H. Froeb. The Government appeared by Paula S. Ogg, Assistant United States Attorney.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the Defendant, upon his plea of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, United States Code, Section 7(3), 13 and Title 21 O.S., Sections 1701, 1703, 1704(2) and 1706 as charged in the Indictment.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the imposition of any sentence of imprisonment or fine on each of Counts I, II and III was suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of ninety (90) days from the 11th day of March, 1981 under the Federal Youth Correction Act, pursuant to Title 18, U.S.C., Section 5010(a).

Thereafter on the 4th day of June, 1981 there having been filed an application by the Supervising Probation Officer, Rod Baker, that the Defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, Warrant for Arrest of Probationer was issued.

Thereafter, on the 18th day of June, 1981, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer, Charles A. Loman, appeared before the Court with his court appointed counsel, Charles H. Froeb. The Government was represented by Philard L. Rounds, Jr. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, stated that he did stipulate and admit that he had violated conditions 5 and 7 of his probation in that he failed to notify his Probation Officer immediately of a change in his residence and failed to submit Monthly Supervision Reports for the months of March, April and May, 1981. The Court finds that based upon the stipulation and admission of the Defendant that an Evidentiary Hearing is not necessary and that the Defendant has violated the terms of his probation.

Now, on this 18th day of June, 1981,

IT IS ORDERED that the Defendant is placed on probation for an additional ninety (90) days from this date under the Federal Youth Correction Act, pursuant to Title 18, U.S.C., Section 5010(a).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the general conditions of probation set out on the reverse side of the Judgment and Commitment Order of March 11, 1981 be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of probation, reduce or extend the period of probation, and at any time during the probation period or within the maximum probation period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke probation for a violation occurring during the additional ninety (90) day probation period.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Order to the United States Marshal and Probation Officer.

O R D E R

The Court has received a letter from the defendant, Adekunle Adegbenro, which it will treat as a motion for a reduction of sentence pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. On February 19, 1981, the defendant was convicted by a jury of a violation of Title 18, USC §473. On April 15, 1981, the defendant was sentenced by the Court to serve a twenty month term of imprisonment.

In considering defendant's motion for reduction of sentence, the Court has carefully reviewed the entire record and finds that the sentence should be modified according to the provisions of Title 18, USC §4205(b)(2) such that the defendant may be released on parole at such time as the United States Parole Commission may determine. In all other respects, the sentence heretofore imposed upon the defendant shall remain the same.
