U.S. DISTRICT COURT

SENTENCE OR PROBATION ORDER

The court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of Imposition of sentence of imprisonment is suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of 5 years under the provisions of the Youth Corrections Act. The defendant is sentenced to pay a fine of $250.00 on Count 1 and $250.00 on Count 2. The payment of the fine is to be paid by defendant paying monthly payments thereon in such amounts as determined by the probation officer. One of the conditions of probation is that the defendant make restitution to the U.S. in the sum of $2,203.90. Monthly payments are to be made to the U.S. Court Clerk in such amounts as determined by probation officer.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

In addition to the special conditions of probation imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the general conditions of probation set out on the reverse side of this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of probation, reduce or extend the period of probation, and at any time during the probation period or within a maximum probation period of five years permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke probation for a violation occurring during the probation period.

COMMITMENT RECOMMENDATION

The court orders commitment to the custody of the Attorney General and recommends,

It is ordered that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this judgment and commitment to the U.S. Marshal or other qualified officer.

O R D E R

On May 28, 1981, Alvin Lee Hardy appeared before the Court, with Robert S. Lowery, his counsel, and entered his plea of "guilty" to Counts 1, 2 and 3 of the Indictment, in which he was charged with violations of Title 18, U.S.C. §§ 495 and 1708. The Court, being satisfied that there was a factual basis for the plea, and finding Defendant guilty as charged, ordered Alvin Lee Hardy committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period of five years on Count 1, ten years on Count 2, and ten years on Count 3, all as provided for under 18 U.S.C. § 4205(a), the sentences imposed in Counts 1 and 2 to run concurrently with the sentence imposed in Count 3.

On August 14, 1981, the Court received a letter from Defendant, which the Court considered to be a pro se motion pursuant to Rule 35, Fed.R.Crim.Pro., and which the Court ordered filed and docketed as such, on August 19, 1981.

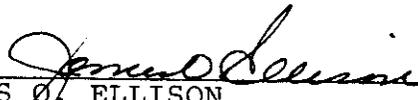

The Defendant's motion for reduction or modification of sentence is, therefore, now before the Court for consideration.

Having considered the matters raised by Defendant, and having reconsidered and reevaluated the circumstances of this case, the Court is of the opinion that the Defendant's motion for reduction or modification of sentence should be granted, and his sentence reduced to five years on Count 2, and five years on Count 3, to run concurrently with the five years imposed upon Defendant in Count 1, all pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4205(a).

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that Defendant's motion for reduction or modification of sentence be, and the same hereby is, granted, and his sentence is hereby reduced as stated herein.

It is so Ordered this 14TH day of September, 1981.
