O R D E R

On April 21, 1978, came the attorney for the Government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Robert B. Copeland.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon her plea of guilty as to Count 1 of the Indictment, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C, Section 1708.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence was suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of Two and One-Half (2 1/2) Years, with the condition that the defendant make restitution in an amount to be determined by the Probation Office.

Thereafter, on October 8, 1980, there having been filed an application by the Probation Officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, Warrant for Arrest of Probationer was issued.

Thereafter, and on October 23, 1981, pursuant to said warrant, the defendant appeared before the Court with her attorney and counsel, Robert P. Copeland. The Government was represented by Kenneth P. Snoke, Assistant U. S. Attorney. The Court directed the Probation Officer, Jim Keeter, recite and advise the Court and the defendant the grounds of revocation, and after statements confirming probation violation by probationer and her counsel, the Court finds that an evidentiary hearing is not necessary. The Court declines revocation of probation and extends the probation previously imposed for a period of Two (2) Years. In addition to the usual conditions of probation, defendant is directed to make restitution in the amount of $125.00.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Order of Probation to the U. S. Probation Office.

O R D E R

On December 11, 1978, came the attorney for the government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Art Fleak.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon her plea of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U. S. C., Sections 1708 and 495, as charged in the Indictment.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of Five (5) Years as to each of Counts 1 and 2 of the Indictment, Count 2 to run concurrent with Count 1. Defendant was further ordered to make restitution in the amount of $170.66.

Thereafter, and on June 26, 1981, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, warrant for arrest of probationer was issued.

Thereafter, and on October 13, 1981, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer, Beverly Ann Lattie, appeared before the U. S. Magistrate for the Northern District of Oklahoma. Thereafter, the Magistrate directed the Probation Officer to recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and having been given an opportunity to present evidence in her own behalf and to question witnesses against her, and having been given notice of her right to be represented by counsel, said probationer waived her right to counsel; and waived her right to a preliminary hearing and a revocation hearing before the District Court.

NOW, on this 13th day of October, 1981, the defendant appearing in person and with counsel, Art Fleak, and the Government represented by Kenneth P. Snoke. Whereupon, said defendant reaffirmed that she had been served with written notice of probation violation and the allegations thereof; waived preliminary hearing; admitted that she was in violation of the conditions of probation as alleged; waived her right to a revocation hearing and requested the Court to proceed to sentencing said defendant.

Wherefore, the Court finds that the defendant has violated the terms of her probation and that probation should be revoked as to Count 1.

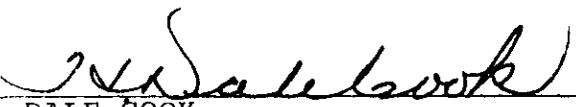

IT IS ORDERED that the Order of Probation, entered on December 11, 1978 be revoked and set aside.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, Beverly Ann Lattie, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period of Sixty (60) Days as to Count 1.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the probation judgment heretofore entered as to Count 2 shall be continued.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Judgment and Commitment to the U. S. Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.
