No. 75-CR-51-C ✓

O R D E R

Now before the Court for its consideration is the motion of the defendant to correct judgment and sentence in accordance with the opinion of the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Appellant was charged by indictment with violation of 26 U.S.C. §5861(d), possession of an unregistered firearm. He was awaiting trial on state charges when he was released pursuant to a writ of habeas corpus ad prosequendum to appear in federal court on a federal charge. After entry of a plea of guilty, he was sentenced to four years imprisonment. At sentencing, the federal judge indicated that the federal sentence was not to run concurrently to any future state sentence. The judge noted that the state could relinquish jurisdiction and allow their sentence to run concurrent to the federal sentence.

The opinion of the Tenth Circuit herein merely upholds the four-year sentence imposed on defendant by the federal court, and denies his §2255 motion. The Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals has ordered no changes in defendant's sentence nor does it imply that any should be made. Defendant's federal sentence could not begin to run until defendant was received at a federal correctional facility by the Attorney General of the United States. U. S. v. Anderson, 405 F.2d 492 (10th Cir. 1969). 18 U.S.C. §3568.

Since there appears to be no basis for a correction to the federal judgment and commitment papers herein either implied or stated the Tenth Circuit ruling herein, defendant's motion to Correct Judgment and Sentence is hereby overruled.

It is so Ordered this 26th day of March, 1982.

No. 76-CR-129-C F I L E D

MAR 9 1982

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

O R D E R

On November 23, 1976, came the attorney for the Government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Paul Garrison.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §§1702 and 495, as charged in the Indictment.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the Defendant was sentenced to the custody of the Attorney General, as to Count 1, for a period of Three (3) Years and further ordered that the defendant may become eligible for parole at such time as the Parole Commission may determine as provided in Title 18, U.S.C., §4205(b)(2). As to Count 2, the imposition of sentence was suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of Three (3) years following incarceration.

Thereafter, and on January 19, 1981, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, Warrant for Arrest of Probationer was issued.

Thereafter, and on February 25, 1982, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer, Odean Ray Lawson, appeared before the U. S. Magistrate for the Northern District of Oklahoma, and waived preliminary hearing.

Now, on this 9th day of March, 1982, the defendant appearing in person, and with counsel, Paul Garrison, and the Government was represented by Ben F. Baker. Whereupon, the Court directed the Probation Officer to recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and having been given an opportunity to present evidence in his own behalf and to question witnesses against him, waived his right to a revocation hearing; admitted that he was in violation of the conditions of probation as alleged and requested the Court to proceed to sentencing said defendant.

WHEREFORE, the Court finds that the defendant has violated the terms of his probation and that probation should be revoked as to Count 2 of the Indictment.

IT IS ORDERED that the Order of Probation, entered November 23, 1976, be revoked and set aside.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, ODEAN RAY LAWSON, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period of Fifteen (15) Months as to Count 2 of the Indictment.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Judgment and Commitment Order to the U. S. Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

O R D E R

On April 17, 1981, came the attorney for the government and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Robert Perugino. .

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §1919, as charged in the Information.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of one (1) year.

Thereafter, and on December 1, 1981, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set therein, and upon approval of the Magistrate, Warrant for the Arrest of Probationer was issued.

Thereafter, and on March 1, 1982, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer, Anthony Eugene Williams, appeared before the U. S. Magistrate for the Northern District of Oklahoma with his retained counsel and the Government appeared through Assistant United States Attorney Kenneth P. Snoke. Thereafter, the Probation Officer advised the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and having been given an opportunity to present evidence in his own behalf and to question witnesses against him, waived his right to a preliminary hearing and a revocation hearing before the Magistrate; admitted that he was in violation of the conditions of probation as alleged and requested the Court to proceed with sentencing the defendant.

Wherefore, the Court finds that the defendant has violated the terms of his probation and and that defendant's probation should be extended to March 1, 1983.

IT IS ORDERED that the Order of Probation entered on April 17, 1981 be amended; that the defendant's probation is hereby extended to March 1, 1983; that the defendant is further ordered to make restitution of the sum paid to him to which he was not entitled in the approximate sum of $1,065 which sum shall be paid in monthly installments of $150.00 commencing March 20, 1982 and continuing thereafter until the amount due shall have been paid in full. Such payments shall be made to the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma.

DATED at Tulsa, Oklahoma, this 1st day of March, 1982.

Robert S. Rizley
United States Magistrate
