Case No. 82-C-469-E ✓

ORDER

This Court has before it the petition of the Petitioner Jerry James Barrett, C4256, for a Writ of Habeas Corpus. The Petitioner alleges that he is illegally in the custody of California State authorities. In January, 1981, Petitioner was sentenced and committed to the custody of Federal authorities as a result of Federal criminal convictions (80-Cr-74-02-C & 80-Cr-127-01-C). He was subsequently released on bond pending appeal of the convictions. Upon denial of the appeal, Petitioner was ordered to report to the Federal Correctional Institution in La Tuna, Texas to commence service of sentence. Prior to the date for sentence to commence, Petitioner came before Judge Katz of the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Bernadino, Desert Division in regard to Petitioner's probation on a previous California sentence. Probation was revoked and the Petitioner was ordered confined to the California State Prison for the term provided by law.

Petitioner alleges that because the California Judge had knowledge of the pending Federal sentence, that his order to confine the Petitioner on state charges was improper and illegal. Petitioner's assertion is without foundation. The Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals stated in Jacobs v. Crouse, 349 F.2d 857, 858 (Tenth Cir. 1965) that "Ordinarily, a prisoner who has been sentenced in both federal and state courts does not have a constitutional right to select which sentence shall be served first." The Court went on to say, "This is usually determined in that 'spirit of reciprocal comity and mutual assistance' as agreed upon by the state and federal officials."

The Tenth Circuit is not alone in holding this view. In United States v. Vann, 207 F.Supp. 108, 111-112 (E.D.N.Y. 1962), the Court stated, "[E]ven if, as is not the case, there was some failure of one sovereign to respect the rights of another to the custody of the accused, such happenstance could not accrue to the benefit of the petitioner." The New York Court cited the opinion in Kellett v. United States, 162 F.Supp. 791 (W.D.Mo. 1958) where the Court stated, "Only the sovereign may raise objections to the interference with its right to the possession of a prisoner, under the rule of comity. So long as a petitioner owes a sentence of servitude to each sovereign, he may not complain of the manner in which he is required to serve it."

On the basis of the foregoing authorities and having undertaken a careful review of the Petitioner's request, it is the determination of this Court that the petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus herein is without foundation or merit.

IT IS THEREFORE THE ORDER OF THIS COURT, that the petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus of Jerry James Barrett, C4256, is hereby denied.

Dated at Tulsa, Oklahoma this 28TH day of April, 1982.

No. 81-C-385-E

O R D E R

Having heard the arguments of counsel presented at the hearing held in this case on March 26, 1982, and having reviewed the pleadings and the relevant authorities, the Court concludes that the motion to dismiss of Defendant Robert O'Toole, made pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), Fed.R.Civ.Pro., and filed on September 15, 1981, and the motion to dismiss of Defendant John Mark Young, filed on October 7, 1981, and made pursuant to Rule 12(b)(1)(2), and (6), Fed.R.Civ.Pro. should be sustained, and this action dismissed. Having reached this conclusion, the Court need not address Plaintiff's motion to disqualify counsel.

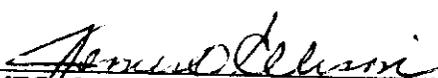

Plaintiff brings this action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and basically alleges that Defendant Young, in connection with a custody hearing, had a subpoena duces tecum issued to Defendant O'Toole, requiring the Defendant O'Toole to appear and bring with him all medical records maintained by Eastern State Hospital pertaining to Plaintiff, who was to appear as a witness in the custody hearing. Defendant O'Toole responded to the subpoena through a subordinate, Mrs. Dorothy Moore. Plaintiff alleges that the records were turned over to Young, who then allowed them to be viewed by other individuals.

The Court finds that Plaintiff's allegations do not give rise to a cause of action under § 1983, and, assuming that such a cause of action could be construed to exist, there is lacking the necessary element of action under "color of law," see, e.g., Dunn v. Hackworth, 628 F.2d 1111 (Eighth Cir. 1978); Burke v. Miller, 580 F.2d 108 (Fourth Cir. 1978), cert. denied 440 U.S. 930, 99 S.Ct. 1268 (1979); Wash v. Reedel, 86 FRD 12 (E.D. Pa. 1979); C. Antieau, Federal Civil Rights Acts §§ 88, 106 (1980 ed.).

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Defendants' Motions to Dismiss be, and the same hereby are sustained, and this action is hereby dismissed.

It is so Ordered this 20th day of April, 1982.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 81-C-792-C

FILED

APR 15 1982

Jack C. Silver, Clerk
U. S. DISTRICT COURT

JUDGMENT OF FORECLOSURE

THIS MATTER COMES on for consideration this 14^m day of April, 1982. The Plaintiff appearing by Frank Keating, United States Attorney for the Northern District of Oklahoma, through Don J. Guy, Assistant United States Attorney; the Defendants, County Treasurer, Craig County, Oklahoma, and Board of County Commissioners, Craig County, Oklahoma, appearing by their attorney, Terry H. McBride, Assistant District Attorney; and, the Defendants, Robert E. Hays and Lynn M. Hays, appearing not.

The Court being fully advised and having examined the file herein finds that Defendants, Robert E. Hays and Lynn M. Hays, were served with Summons and Complaint on November 27, 1981; the Defendant, County Treasurer, Craig County, Oklahoma, was served with Summons and Complaint on November 30, 1981; and, the Defendant, Board of County Commissioners, Craig County, Oklahoma, was served with Summons and Complaint on December 3, 1981; all as appears on the United States Marshal's Service herein.

It appears that the Defendants, County Treasurer, Craig County, Oklahoma, and Board of County Commissioners, Craig County, Oklahoma, have duly filed their Answer herein on December 10, 1981; and, the Defendants, Robert E. Hays and Lynn M. Hays, have failed to answer and that default has been entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that this is a suit based upon a mortgage note and for a foreclosure of a real property mortgage securing said mortgage note upon the following described real property located in Craig County, Oklahoma, within the Northern Judicial District of Oklahoma:

Lot 16 in Block 4 in CASON-POWELL ACRES,
an Addition to the City of Vinita,
Oklahoma, according to the recorded plat thereof on file and of record in the Office of the County Clerk of Craig County, Oklahoma.

THAT the Defendants, Robert E. Hays and Lynn M. Hays, did, on the 25th day of September, 1974, execute and deliver to the United States of America, acting through the Farmers Home Administration, their mortgage and mortgage note in the sum of $19,800.00 with 9 1/2 percent interest per annum, and further providing for the payment of monthly installments of principal and interest.

The Court further finds that Defendants, Robert E. Hays and Lynn M. Hays, made default under the terms of the aforesaid mortgage note by reason of their failure to make monthly installments due thereon, which default has continued and that by reason thereof the above-named Defendants are now indebted to the Plaintiff in the sum of $18,835.10 as unpaid principal, plus accrued interest of $561.06 as of April 23, 1981, plus interest thereafter at the rate of $4.9022 per day, until paid, plus the cost of this action accrued and accruing.

The Court further finds that the real estate taxes due and owing to the County of Craig, State of Oklahoma, from Defendants, Robert E. Hays and Lynn M. Hays, for the year 1981 and preceding have now been paid in full.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Plaintiff have and recover judgment against Defendants, Robert E. Hays and Lynn M. Hays, for the principal sum of $18,835.10, plus accrued interest of $561.06 as of April 23, 1981, plus interest thereafter at the rate of $4,9022 per day, until paid, plus the cost of this action accrued and accruing, plus any additional sums advanced or to be advanced or expended during this foreclosure action by Plaintiff for taxes, insurance, abstracting, or sums for the preservation of the subject property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that upon the failure of said Defendants to satisfy Plaintiff's money judgment herein, an Order of Sale shall be issued to the United States Marshal for the Northern District of Oklahoma, commanding him to advertise and sell with appraisement the real property and apply the proceeds in satisfaction of Plaintiff's judgment. The residue, if any, shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Court to await further order of the Court.

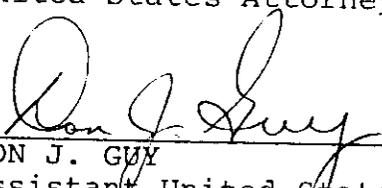

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that from and after the sale of said property, under and by virtue of this judgment and decree, all of the Defendants and all persons claiming under them since the filing of the Complaint herein are forever barred and foreclosed of any right, title, interest or claim to the real property or any part thereof.

Petitioner filed the instant Habeas Corpus Action, 28 U.S.C. §2254, while incarcerated as a federal prisoner in the Federal Correctional Institute in Texarkana, Texas. The complaint is dated August 15, 1981, and was filed August 26, 1981. Petitioner was released from the Federal Correctional Institute on August 21, 1981. The Oklahoma Department of Corrections did not have a detainer placed on the Petitioner for the conviction and sentence attacked in this Habeas Corpus proceeding. The affidavit of Fred Bingamon, Director of Central Records, Oklahoma Department of Corrections, dated March 15, 1982, indicates petitioner is not in state custody, no detainer having been lodged against him.

Petitioner has responded in part:

"Petitioner is under great 'threat' of incarceration, (County Police were just at his mothers home in Bixby this week, trying to 'incarcerate him om(sic) the sentence on the instant case). Petitioner is subject to imeadiate(sic) incarceration and great bodily(sic) harm, as long as this Writ remains not issued.

"Petitioner is under great mental prusure(sic) because he is forced to live under an assumed name, in the State of Okla., or turn himself in the be(sic) placed in the State Prison for a crime he did not committ(sic). (Note that respondents have never requested petitioner tonturn(sic) himself in, possible(sic) because they do not want to 'forever' hold this sentence over his head and keep him out of Tulsa."

Title 28 U.S.C. §2241(c)(3) provides:

"(c) The writ of habeas corpus shall not extend to a prisoner unless---

"(3) He is in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States;..."

Title 28 U.S.C. §2254(a) provides:

"(a) The Supreme Court, a Justice thereof, a circuit judge, or a district court shall entertain an application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court only on the ground that he is in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States."

In Carafas v. LaVallee, 391 U.S. 234, 88 S.Ct. 1556, 20 L.Ed.2d 554 (1968) the Court said:

"The federal habeas corpus statute requires that the applicant must be 'in custody' when the application for habeas corpus is filed. This is required not only by the repeated references in the statute, but also by the history of the great writ. Its province, shaped to guarantee the most fundamental of all rights, is to provide an effective and speedy instrument by which judicial inquiry may be had into the legality of the detention of a person. See Peyton v. Rowe, 391 U.S. 54, 88 S.Ct. 1549, 20 L.Ed.2d 426."

See also Ward v. State of Oklahoma, 376 F.2d 846 (10th CCA 1976); Mason v. Anderson, 357 F.Supp. 672, 673-74 (WD Okl. 1973).

The writ of habeas corpus does not act upon the petitioner who seeks relief, but upon the person who holds him in what is alleged to be unlawful custody. Braden v. 30th Judicial District Court of Kentucky, 410 U.S. 484, 93 S.Ct. 1123, 35 L.Ed.2d 443 (1973); Wales v. Whitney, 144 U.S. 564, 574, 5 S.Ct. 1050, 1054-1055, 29 L.Ed. 277 (1885).

It is clear from the record before the Court petitioner is not in custody pursuant to the judgment of conviction and sentence he attacks and petitioner had not met the threshold jurisdiction of custody required by the writ of habeas corpus he seeks.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED the Motion to Dismiss of the Respondents, pursuant to F.R.Civ.P. 12(b)(1) for lack of subject matter jurisdiction is sustained and the cause of action and complaint are dismissed.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

NOW, on this 22nd day of March, 1982, the above-entitled matter comes on for jury trial before me, the undersigned United District Judge for the Northern District of Oklahoma. The Plaintiff appears in person and by and through her attorneys of record, Gomer A. Evans, Jr., and J. Richard Johnson, Jr., of the firm of Oliver & Evans, Inc. The Defendants appear in person and by and through their attorney, Deryl L. Gotcher, of the firm of Jones, Givens, Gotcher, Doyle & Bogan, Attorneys for Defendants, 201 West Fifth Street, Suite 400, Tulsa, Oklahoma, 74103.

Thereupon, a jury of six men and women was selected and sworn to try the case. Opening statements were made by both parties and the Plaintiff presented eleven witnesses. At the conclusion of the Plaintiff's evidence, the Defendants interposed a Demurrer to both counts of the Plaintiff's Complaint, which was overruled, with exceptions allowed.

Thereafter, the jury trial upon its merits continuing, the Defendants presented two witnesses, after which the Plaintiff presented one rebuttal witness, and both sides rested.

Thereafter, the Plaintiff moved for a directed verdict, which was overruled, with exceptions allowed, and the Defendants renewed their Demurrer to both counts of the Plaintiff's Complaint, which was overruled, with exceptions allowed.

Both sides presented their closing arguments and the Court read its instructions to the jury, after which the jury returned the following verdict:

"VERDICT --- COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE"

"We, the Jury, empaneled and sworn in the above cause, do, upon our oaths, find as follows:

1. Plaintiff's negligence (Heidi L. Taylor)	(0% to 100%)	0%
2. Defendants' negligence	(0% to 100%)	100%
Total		100%

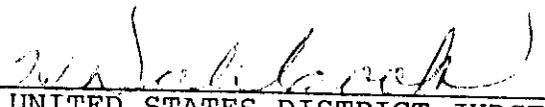

The following shall be answered only if the percentage of Plaintiff's (Heidi L. Taylor) negligence is of a lesser percentage than the negligence of the Defendants.

3. We find the total amount of damages sustained by the Plaintiff, Heidi L. Taylor, disregarding the percentages of negligence of the Plaintiff (Heidi L. Taylor) and the Defendants, is the sum of: $ 500,000.00
4. Do you find that punitive damages should be assessed against Defendants? Yes No "

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the Plaintiff should be, and is hereby, granted a judgment in her favor and against the Defendants, James Sweeney and Charlotte Lorraine Sweeney, d/b/a the Brookshire Motel, in the amount of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000.00), plus pre-judgment interest in the sum of Sixty-six Thousand Twenty-seven Dollars and thirty-nine cents

($66,027.39), for a total judgment of Five Hundred Sixty-six Thousand Twenty-seven Dollars and thirty-nine cents ($66,027.39), plus the costs of this action, together with interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date of judgment, until paid.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

NOW on this 2nd day of April ~~March~~ 1982, this cause comes on for further pre-trial proceedings. The parties appear by their respective counsel and the Court being fully advised and upon consideration of the papers filed in this case and statements of counsel, FINDS AS FOLLOWS:

1. That plaintiff is a New York corporation and defendant, Larry Hamblet, is a citizen and resident of the State of Oklahoma, and the amount in controversy exceeds, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum of $10,000.00, and that the Court has proper venue and jurisdiction over the parties in this action.

2. That the plaintiff, United States Fire Insurance Company, issued to Corporate Investigators, Inc., as named insured, and defendant, Larry Hamblet, as an additional payee, an aircraft insurance policy, numbered AP-01-115345-0 with effective date September 24, 1980, through September 24, 1981, providing among other items theft and aircraft physical damage coverage for one certain 1966 Piper PA-23 aircraft, FAA number N-6207Y.

3. That no "breach of warranty" clause on behalf of defendant, Larry Hamblet, is contained within said insurance policy, nor was same ever requested on behalf of said Larry Hamblet.

4. That on or about February, 1981, it was reported to plaintiff that said aircraft had been stolen and claim was made under the policy for the sum of $40,000.00.

5. That police were never notified that the said aircraft had been allegedly stolen.

6. That in fact said aircraft was damaged and destroyed by fire in Mexico while engaged in illegal activities (carrying contraband) in November, 1980.

7. That said aircraft was purposefully set on fire and totally destroyed by and through its pilot and/or occupants.

8. That defendant, Larry Hamblet, had no knowledge of Paragraphs 5, 6 and 7 above at the time of such events.

9. That there were substantial violations of the insurance policy provisions and, therefore, no insurance coverage is provided for any loss or damage to said aircraft for defendants, Corporate Investigators, Inc. and loss payee, defendant, Larry Hamblet.

The Court therefore concludes as a matter of law that defendant, Larry Hamblet, is not covered under the above mentioned policy of insurance for loss or damage to said aircraft described.

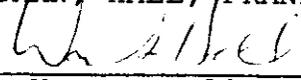

BE IT THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that defendant, Larry Hamblet, is provided no insurance coverage by plaintiff, United States Fire Insurance Company, under its policy numbered AP-01-115345-0 for theft and aircraft physical damage for the 1966 Piper PA-23 aircraft, FAA number N-6207Y, and that said plaintiff have its costs herein laid out and expended.
