O R D E R

On August 13, 1979, came the attorney for the Government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel, Marc Geller.

It was adjudged that the defendant, upon her plea of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §752(a), as charged in Count 2 of the Indictment.

It was further adjudged that the imposition of sentence was suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of (3) years.

Thereafter, on December 2, 1981, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, Warrant for Arrest of Probationer was issued.

Thereafter, and on December 9, 1981, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer appeared before the Court with her attorney, Ernest A. Bedford. The Government was represented by James Swartz, Assistant U. S. Attorney. Thereafter, the Court directed that the Probation Officer, Jane Wright, recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and there having been made a disclosure of the evidence against her, and being provided an opportunity to question witnesses against her, and after statements confirming probation violation by probationer and her counsel, and said probationer having waived her right to an evidentiary hearing, the Court continued the hearing for a decision by the Court, and reset the matter for decision for February 12, 1982.

Thereafter, and on February 12, 1982, the Court being advised that probationer was a fugitive, the hearing was stricken and warrant for arrest of Probationer was issued.

Now, on this 25th day of June, 1982, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer appeared before the Court with her attorney, Ernest A. Bedford. The Government was represented by James Swartz. The Court directed the Probation Officer, Jane Wright, to restate and recite the allegations. The probationer confirmed the violations and waived her right to an evidentiary hearing. The Court, therefore, finds that an evidentiary hearing is not necessary and that the defendant has violated the terms of her probation and that probation should be revoked.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Order of Probation, entered on August 13, 1979, be revoked and set aside.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, DIANE E. AUCH, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of:

FIVE (5) MONTHS.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Judgment and Commitment to the United States Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.
