U. S. DISTRICT COURT

O R D E R

On November 27, 1974, came the attorney for the Government, and the defendant appeared in person and with counsel.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §2314, as charged in the Indictment.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that as to Count 1, the defendant was sentenced to the custody of the Attorney General, pursuant to Y.C.A., as provided in 18 U.S.C. §5010(b). As to Count 2, the imposition of sentence was suspended and the defendant placed on probation for a period of 2 years, pursuant to Y.C.A. as provided in 18 U.S.C. §5010(a), with the conditions of probation that defendant seek psychiatric treatment; earn GED certificate and make restitution to three know creditors within 18 months after probation begins. As to Count 3, the imposition of sentence was suspended and defendant placed on probation for a period of 2 years, to run concurrently with the sentence imposed in Count 2.

Thereafter, and on January 23, 1981, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, Warrant for Arrest of Probationer was issued.

Thereafter, and on July 16, 1982, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer appeared before the U. S. District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma. Thereafter, the Court directed the Probation Officer to recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. Upon oral request of the defendant, the revocation hearing was continued for further investigation.

Now, on this 26th day of July, 1982, the defendant appearing in person and with counsel, Art Fleak, and the Government represented by Ben F. Baker. Whereupon, said defendant reaffirmed that he had been served with written notice of probation violation and the allegations thereof; admitted that he was in violation of the conditions of probation as alleged; waived his right to a revocation hearing and requested the Court to proceed to sentencing said defendant.

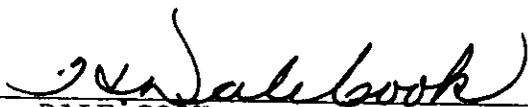

Wherefore, the Court finds that the defendant has violated the terms of his probation and that probation should be revoked.

IT IS ORDERED that the Order of Probation as to Counts 2 and 3, entered November 27, 1974, be revoked and set aside.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, Michael James O'Brien, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for treatment and supervision for a period of Thirteen (13) Months as to Counts 2 and 3 of the Indictment, pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. §4205(b)(2). It is further ordered that the sentence imposed in Count 3 is to run concurrent with the sentence imposed in Count 2. It is further ordered that the defendant be given credit for time spent incarcerated in regard to this revocation petition.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Judgment and Commitment to the U. S. Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the Defendant.
